Selected Chapters From Film History An Introduction:

Doing Digital Film History Sarah-Mai Dang, Tim van der Heijden, Christian Gosvig Olesen, 2024-12-30 How has the digital turn shaped the practices of film historical research and teaching While computational approaches have been used by film historians since the 1960s and 1970s the arrival and use of digital tools and methods in recent decades has fundamentally changed the ways we search analyze interpret present and so think and write about film history from digital archival and curatorial practices data driven search and analysis of film historical collections to the visualization and dissemination of film historical materials online While film historians have increasingly embraced the new possibilities brought by digital technologies their practical epistemological and methodological implications need further exploration What opportunities does the digitization of film historical sources provide for film historians What new questions can be raised by using digital methods What new perspectives emerge from analyzing interpreting and visualizing film historical data at the levels of both close and distant or scalable reading and viewing By focusing on the concepts tools and practices of digital film historiography this edited volume aims to contribute to a better understanding and critical reflection on the changes and continuities of doing film history in the digital age

The Challenge of the Silver Screen Freek L. Bakker, 2009 In 1897 only two years after the invention of film the first feature film about Jesus appeared This and other films about Jesus became examples for and an inspiration for films on other important religious figures like Rama Buddha and Muhammad Although religious leaders did not always approve of these films they did find a ready audience among believers This book explores these films and looks at how these films dealt with the fundamental question of portraying an individual thought to have either divine status or a very special and unique status among human beings This book will thus benefit not only students of religious film but also those studying the portrayal of central religious figures in the contemporary world

EBOOK: Film Art: An Introduction David Bordwell, 2013-08-16 Film is an art form with a language and an aesthetic all its own Since 1979 David Bordwell and Kristin Thompson's Film Art has been the best selling and most widely respected introduction to the analysis of cinema Taking a skills centered approach supported by examples from many periods and countries the authors help students develop a core set of analytical skills that will enrich their understanding of any film in any genre In depth examples deepen students appreciation for how creative choices by filmmakers affect what viewers experience and how they respond Film Art is generously illustrated with more than 1 000 frame enlargements taken directly from completed films providing concrete illustrations of key concepts

Bangladesh Cinema and National Identity Zakir Hossain Raju, 2014-12-17 Throughout the twentieth and early twenty first centuries cinema has been adopted as a popular cultural institution in Bangladesh At the same time this has been the period for the articulation of modern nationhood and cultural identity of Bengali Muslims in Bangladesh This book analyses the relationship between cinema and modernity in Bangladesh providing a narrative of the uneven process that produced the idea of Bangladesh cinema This book investigates the roles of a non Western national film industry in Asia in constructing nationhood and identity within colonial and postcolonial predicaments Drawing on the idea of cinema as public sphere and the postcolonial notion of formation of the Bangladesh nation interactions between cinema and middle class Bengali Muslims in different social and political matrices are analyzed The author explores how the conflict among different social groups turned Bangladesh cinema into a site of contesting identities In particular he illustrates the connections between film production and reception in Bangladesh and a variety of nationalist constructions of Bengali Muslim identity Questioning and debunking the usual notions of Bangladesh and cinema this book positions the cinema of Bangladesh within a transnational frame Starting with how to locate the beginning of the second Bengali language cinema in colonial Bengal the author completes the investigation by identifying a global Bangladeshi cinema in the early twenty first century The first major academic study on this large and vibrant national cinema this book demonstrates that Bangladesh cinema worked as different public spheres for different publics throughout the twentieth century and beyond Filling a niche in Global Film and Media Studies and South Asian Studies it will be of interest to scholars and students of these disciplines Film Study Frank Manchel,1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities A Certain Tendency of the Hollywood Cinema, 1930-1980 Robert B. Ray,2020-07-21 Robert B Ray examines the ideology of the most enduringly popular cinema in the world the Hollywood movie Aided by 364 frame enlargements he describes the development of that historically overdetermined form giving close readings of five typical instances Casablanca It s a Wonderful Life The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance The Godfather and Taxi Driver Like the heroes of these movies American filmmaking has avoided commitment in both plot and technique Instead of choosing left or right avant garde or tradition American cinema tries to have it both ways Although Hollywood s commercial success has led the world audience to equate the American cinema with film itself Hollywood filmmaking is a particular strategy designed to respond to specific historical situations As an art restricted in theoretical scope but rich in individual variations the American cinema poses the most interesting question of popular culture Do dissident forms have any chance of remaining free of a mass medium seeking to co opt them Film and History James Chapman,2017-09-16 Film is the pre eminent mass medium of the modern age It is a valuable source of evidence for the study of both the past and the contemporary world and is a social practice that has affected the lives of millions How can historians engage with this important and influential medium Written for both students and teachers Film and History provides a concise accessible introduction to the use of film in historical enquiry and a summary of the main theoretical debates Charts the development of film history as a subject area and a discipline in its own right Considers different approaches to film history including film as an art form as ideology as a historical source and as a social practice

Includes case studies to ground discussion of theories and approaches in specific examples Wide ranging and authoritative Film and History equips students with the methods both to analyse film texts and to understand the place of film in history and culture A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse,1990-01-01 This text is an introduction to the full range of standard reference tools in all branches of English studies More than 10 000 titles are included The Reference Guide covers all the areas traditionally defined as English studies and all the field of inquiry more recently associated with English studies British and Irish American and world literatures written in English are included Other fields covered are folklore film literary theory general and comparative literature language and linguistics rhetoric and composition bibliography and textual criticism and women s studies

Programming Selected Chapters Austin,1998-10 Talkies, Road Movies and Chick Flicks Heidi Wilkins,2016-02-19 The representation of gender in film remains an intensely debated topic particularly in academic considerations of US mainstream cinema where it is often perceived as perpetuating rigid binary views of gender and reinforcing patriarchal dominant notions of masculinity and femininity While previous scholarly discussion has focused on visual or narrative portrayals of gender this book considers the ways that film sound music voice sound effects and silence is used to represent gender Taking a socio historical approach Heidi Wilkins investigates a range of popular US genres including screwball comedy the road movie and chick flicks to explore the ways that film sound can reinforce traditional assumptions about masculinity and femininity impart ambivalent meanings to them or even challenge and subvert the notion of gender itself Case studies include His Girl Friday Easy Rider and Bridesmaids British Cinema Amy Sargeant,2019-07-25 Although new writing and research on British cinema has burgeoned over the last fifteen years there has been a continued lack of single authored books providing a coherent overview to this fascinating and elusive national cinema Amy Sargeant s personal and entertaining history of British cinema aims to fill this gap With its insightful decade by decade analysis British Cinema is brought alive for a new generation of British cinema students and the general reader alike Sargeant challenges Rachel Low s premise that few of the films made in England during the twenties were any good by covering subjects as diverse as the art of intertitling the narrative complexities of Shooting Stars and Brunel s burlesques Sargeant goes onto examine among other things the differing acting styles of Dietrich and Donat in the seminal Knight Without Armour to early promotional campaigns in the 1930s whereas subjects ranging from product endorsement by stars to the character of the suburban wife are covered in the 1940s The 1950s includes topics such as the effect of post war government intervention to Free Cinema and Lindsay Anderson s infuriating lapses of rigour together with a much needed overview of Michael Balcon s contribution to British cinema For Sargeant the 1960s provides an overview of the tentative relationship between film and advertising and the rise of young Turks such as Tony Richardson Ken Loach Donald Cammell and Nicolas Roeg Teaching Russian Through STEM Svetlana V. Nuss,Maria Khotimsky,2024-12-30 Teaching Russian Through STEM Contexts Tools and Approaches addresses the growing demand for language courses that respond to the interests of students who are increasingly majoring in the fields of science technology engineering and mathematics This edited collection draws on the expertise of international contributors addressing the challenges of teaching Russian as a morphologically complex language with a focus on vocabulary and syntax specific to STEM contexts Through a variety of case studies readers will access a theoretical foundation and practical examples of how to design and implement content based courses with a focus on STEM The book explores the challenges and opportunities of teaching Russian in the context of STEM providing educators with the tools and knowledge to create engaging and relevant language courses for today s students Teaching Russian Through STEM will be of interest to Russian language instructors curriculum developers and researchers in the field of Russian language pedagogy It will be particularly valuable for those interested in innovating their language courses and aligning them with the growing demand for STEM education American Cinema/American Culture

John Belton,1994 An insight into the interplay between the film industry and mass culture in America which examines the industry its narrative conventions and cinematographic style The work also presents a sweep of film history using five genres silent film melodrama American comedy the war film film noir and the making of the West as the basis for discussion The treatment of each genre focuses on that period in time when each had its greatest effect on the industry film aesthetics and American culture The work concludes with a look at Hollywood post World War II giving separate chapter coverage to the effects of the Cold War television the counterculture of the 60s directors from the film school generation such as Scorsese Ford Coppola and Spielberg and the recent trends of the 80s and 90s
