work himself and social research has consistently drawn on his ideas This makes perfect sense Social and political theory must find ways to conceptualise the relation between human subjects and our social environment and the distinctive and intense observation of individual psychical structuring afforded within clinical psychoanalysis has given rise to rich theoretical and methodological resources for doing just this However psychoanalytic concepts do not remain the same when they are rearticulated in the context of research This book traces the reiteration and transformation of concepts in the psychoanalytic theory of Freud Klein and Lacan the social theory of Butler Derrida Foucault Laclau and Zizek and case studies of empirical research ranging from the classic Tavistock Institute studies to contemporary work in politics gender studies cultural studies and education Each chapter explores one cluster of concepts Melancholia loss and subjectivity Overdetermination and free association Resistance reflexivity and the compulsion to repeat Repression disavowal and foreclosure Psychic defenses and social defenses Arguing against the reification of psychoanalytic concepts Claudia Lapping suggests the need for a reflexive understanding of the play of attachments and substitutions as concepts are reframed in the contrasting activities of psychoanalysis and research the classic female Bildungsroman on contemporary cultural texts As a collection of fifteen essays written by international scholars the book offers a representative sample of the narratives of female development presenting a variety of genres including the novel the short story autobiography TV series and Internet video blogs and theoretical frameworks adopting hermeneutic postcolonial feminist and postfeminist perspectives In its diversity this volume reveals that despite the ongoing process of women's emancipation the heroine's struggle with the private/public divide has remained throughout the twentieth century and in the first decades of the new millennium a central issue in stories about the female quest for self definition The book will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of literary women and gender studies particularly those interested in the narratives of female development that represent American and British cultural contexts Conflicts in Feminism Marianne Hirsch, Evelyn Fox Keller, 2015-10-15 Conflicts in Feminism proposes new strategies for negotiating and practicing conflict in feminism Noted scholars and writers examine the most critically divisive issues within feminism today with sensitivity to all sides of the debates By analyzing how the debates have worked for and against feminism and by promoting dialogue across a variety of contexts these provocative essays explore the roots of divisiveness while articulating new models for a productive discourse of difference Asian American Literature Elaine Kim, 1982 An introduction to the literary works of Chinese Americans Japanese Americans Filipino Americans and Korean Americans this book focuses on the self images and social contexts of the nineteenth century immigrants their descendants and the Americanized writers of today Although the book examines the novels autobiographies poems and plays themselves the social history of Asians in America is a significant backdrop as Maxine Hong Kingston herself argues it should be These racially distinctive Americans have confronted in their lives and writings American stereotypes of the Oriental racial discrimination and the cultural gulf between East and West After a chapter on Fu Manchu Charlie Chan and other Anglo American caricatures of Asians the author turns to a discussion of the first immigrant writers many of whom were educated aristocrats playing the role of cultural ambassadors and then to the less privileged more socially critical generations of writers who followed From works like Flower Drum Song Eat a Bowl of Tea The Woman Warrior China Men and a host of lesser known writings the author shows how portrayals of Chinatown the Japanese American family and the roles of all the Asian American women and men have changed Drawing on her personal interviews with Asian American writers Kim also conveys their attitudes towards their own group other Asian Americans other racial minorities and white Americans a complex mix of bitterness acceptance and militance Author note Elaine H Kim is Associate Professor of Ethnic Studies at the University of California Berkeley She directs the Korean Community Center of Oakland and Asian Women United California Racial Melancholia, Racial Dissociation David L.
