Feminist Interpretations of Jean-Jacques Rousseau Lynda Lange, 2009-03-02 A progenitor of modern egalitarianism communitarianism and participatory democracy Jean Jacques Rousseau is a philosopher whose deep concern with the relationship between the domains of private domestic and public political life has made him especially interesting to feminist theorists but also has made him very controversial The essays in this volume representing a wide range of feminist interpretations of Rousseau explore the many tensions in his thought that arise from his unique combination of radical and traditional perspectives on gender relations and the state Among the topics addressed by the contributors are the connections between Rousseau's political vision of the egalitarian state and his view of the natural role of women in the family Rousseau's apparent fear of the actual danger and power of women important questions Rousseau raised about child care and gender relations in individualist societies that feminists should address the founding of republics the nature of consent the meaning of citizenship and the conflation of modern universal ideals of democratic citizenship with modern masculinity leading to the suggestion that the latter is as fragile a construction as the former Overall this volume makes an important contribution to a core question at the hinge of modernism and postmodernism how modern egalitarian notions of social contract premised on universality and objective reason can yet result in systematic exclusion of social groups including women Contributors are Leah Bradshaw Melissa A Butler Anne Harper Sarah Kofman Rebecca Kukla Lynda Lange Ingrid Makus Lori J Marso Mira Morgenstern Susan Moller Okin Alice Ormiston Penny Weiss Elie Wiestad Elizabeth Wingrove Monique Wittig and Linda Zerilli Feminism, Defeated Kate M. Phelan, 2025-06-09 Feminism has been defeated Once a politics feminism is now a philosophy an epistemology a method Once for women it is now for everyone Once in pursuit of liberation it now seeks only inclusion In Feminism Defeated Kate Phelan traces the depoliticization and ultimately the defeat of feminism She recovers the second wave view of men and women as sex classes enemies political kinds a view more radical than the contemporary view of men and women as social constructs She also describes how poststructuralism displaced this view and replaced it with another In this view the sex gender binary constructs men and women and excludes the gender nonconforming As this view replaced the second wave one the injustice of men's oppression of women was replaced by that of exclusion and the goal of women's liberation was replaced by that of inclusion Thus did feminism become the trans inclusionary movement as which we now know it and Phelan shows that this shift was not the progression of feminism it was the betrayal of it In this highly original and persuasive study she argues that the recent emergence of a new gender critical feminism presents a moment of opportunity to reclaim feminism s political project Solidarity of Strangers Jodi Dean,1996-01-01 Anyone concerned by the swirling academic and political debates over identity politics multiculturalism and what could bring us together in divisive times should read Jodi Dean s welcome argument for reconstructing a conscious deliberative solidarity With insightful engagement with scholars as diverse as Judith Butler Cornel West Jurgen Habermas and Lynet Uttal Dean models the kind of dialogue she advocates Martha Minow author of Making All the Difference Inclusion Exclusion and American Law Solidarity of Strangers is an impressive achievement Dean works to move political theory beyond the poststructuralist Habermasian divide as she offers a discourse ethics that accounts for difference and a universalism that does not abandon specificities Shane Phelan author of Getting Specific Postmodern Lesbian Politics Dean offers a strong original and humane defense of universalist ideals against doubts which she deeply grasps and sympathetically arrays of the compatibility of such ideals with a respect for difference Frank Michelman Harvard Law School Dean has a real gift for weaving personal narrative current events law and high theory Her complicated and important argument attempts to move behind the either/or of identity politics and its critics via a creative reevaluation of universalism premised on difference and plurality A very important book Judith Grant University of Southern California author of Fundamental Feminism Contesting the Core Concepts of Feminist Theory Calling for inspiration on Habermas George Herbert Mead and their critics Dean challenges conventional interpretive constraints on law and theory aiming to open up contestable spaces to democratic practices She offers the ideal of reflective solidarity as a vehicle for reclaiming a qualified notion of universality for feminism This controversial move will no doubt provoke debate requiring readers to think through the link between our epistemological convictions and our political commitments Kathy Ferguson author of The Man Question Visions of Subjectivity in Feminist Theory Gender Relations in Sport Emily A.
