Impressions of Desmond Doig artist and writer of his travels to Europe Africa Tibet and India My Soul Looks Back in Wonder Juan Williams, 2005 One of the most pivotal moments in American history is brought to light through stirring thought provoking eyewitness accounts from people who have played active roles in the civil rights movement over the past 50 years Bronze Monsters and the Cultures of Wonder Nassos Papalexandrou, 2021-11-23 The eighth and seventh centuries BCE were a time of flourishing exchange between the Mediterranean and the Near East One of the period's key imports to the Hellenic and Italic worlds was the image of the griffin a mythical monster that usually possesses the body of a lion and the head of an eagle In particular bronze cauldrons bore griffin protomes figurative attachments showing the neck and head of the beast Crafted in fine detail the protomes were made to appear full of vigor transfixing viewers Bronze Monsters and the Cultures of Wonder takes griffin cauldrons as case studies in the shifting material and visual universes of pre classical antiquity arguing that they were perceived as lifelike monsters that introduced the illusion of verisimilitude to Mediterranean arts The objects were placed in the tombs of the wealthy Italy Cyprus and in sanctuaries Greece creating fantastical environments akin to later cabinets of curiosities Yet griffin cauldrons were accessible only to elites ensuring that the new experience of visuality they fostered was itself a symbol of status Focusing on the sensory encounter of this new visuality Nassos Papalexandrou shows how spaces made wondrous fostered novel subjectivities and social distinctions
