Look One Hundred Years Of Contemporary Art:

God in the Gallery (Cultural Exegesis) Daniel A. Siedell, 2008-10-01 Is contemporary art a friend or foe of Christianity Art historian critic and curator Daniel Siedell addresses this question and presents a framework for interpreting art from a Christian worldview in God in the Gallery A Christian Embrace of Modern Art As such it is an excellent companion to Francis Schaeffer's classic Art and the Bible Divided into three parts Theology History and Practice God in the Gallery demonstrates that art is in conversation with and not opposed to the Christian faith In addition this book is beautifully enhanced with images from such artists as Andy Warhol Jackson Pollock Enrique Martinez Celaya and others Readers of this book will include professors students artists and anyone interested in Christianity and culture Rediscovering Aesthetics Francis Halsall, Julia Alejandra Jansen, Tony O'Connor, 2009 Rediscovering Aesthetics brings together prominent international voices from art history philosophy and artistic practice who reflect on current notions functions and applications of aesthetics in their distinctive fields Robert Ryman Suzanne Perling Hudson, 2009 In this first book length study of Robert Ryman Suzanne Hudson traces the artist's production from his first paintings in the early 1950s many of which have never been exhibited or reproduced to his more recent gallery shows Ryman's largely white on white paintings represent his careful working over of painting's conventions at their most radically reduced Through close readings of the work Hudson casts Ryman as a painter for whom painting was conducted as a continuous personal investigation Ryman's method an act of learning by doing as well as his conception of painting as used paint set him apart from second generation abstract expressionists minimalists or conceptualists Hudson's chapters Primer Paint Support Edge and Wall named after the most basic elements of the artist's work eloquently explore Ryman's ongoing experiment in what makes a painting a painting Ryman's work Hudson argues tests the medium's material and conceptual possibilities It neither signals the end of painting nor guarantees its continued longevity but keeps the prospect of painting an open question answerable only through the production of new paintings From publisher description Contemporary Art and the Church W. David O. Taylor, Taylor Worley, 2017-06-20 The church and the contemporary art world often find themselves in an uneasy relationship in which misunderstanding and mistrust abound Drawn from the 2015 biennial CIVA conference these reflections from theologians pastors and practicing artists imagine the possibility of a renewed and mutually fruitful relationship between contemporary art and the church On the Strange Place of Religion in Contemporary Art James Elkins, 2004-12-15 Can contemporary art say anything about spirituality John Updike calls modern art a religion assembled from the fragments of our daily life but does that mean that contemporary art is spiritual What might it mean to say that the art you make expresses your spiritual belief On the Strange Place of Religion in Contemporary Art explores the curious disconnection between spirituality and current art This book will enable you to walk into a museum and talk about the spirituality that is or is not visible in the art you see Redeeming Transcendence in the Arts Jeremy Begbie, 2018-02-14 How can the arts witness to the transcendence of the Christian God Many people believe that there is something transcendent about the arts that they can awaken a profound sense of awe wonder and mystery of something beyond this world even for those who may have no use for conventional forms of Christianity In this book Jeremy Begbie a leading voice on theology and the arts employs a biblical Trinitarian imagination to show how Christian involvement in the arts can be shaped by the distinctive vision of God s transcendence opened up in and through Jesus Christ Poetic Theology William A. Dyrness,2011 What are the poetics of everyday life What can they teach us about God Art music dance and writing can certainly be poetic but so can such diverse pastimes as fishing skiing or attending sports events Any and all activities that satisfy our fundamental need for play for celebration and for ritual says William Dyrness are inherently poetic and in Poetic Theology he demonstrates that all such activities are places where God is active in the world All of humanity s creative efforts Dyrness points out testify to our intrinsic longing for joy and delight and our deep desire to connect with others with the created order and especially with the Creator This desire is rooted in the presence and calling of God in and through the good creation With extensive reflection on aesthetics in spirituality worship and community development Dyrness s Poetic Theology will be useful for all who seek fresh and powerful new ways to communicate the gospel in contemporary society William Dyrness s bold invitation to a poetic theology shaped by Scripture tradition and imagination one luring us toward a fuller participation in beauty than argument or concept alone allow reminds us that truth itself is beautiful to behold and poetic to the core If poetry is in its deepest reflex an intensification of life then Dyrness s call for a poetic theology is one we ignore at our peril reminding us that faithful living is not only about proper thinking but also and perhaps more properly about the texture of our living and the quality of our loving Mark S Burrows Andover Newton Theological School Makes a strong case for aesthetics as one of the avenues used by God to draw human beings near to him and his glory A wonderful journey through Reformed spirituality and a wake up call for Reformed theology Cornelius van der Kooi Free University Amsterdam Robert Ryman Suzanne P. Hudson,2024-02-06 This first book length study of Robert Ryman argues that his work is a continuous experiment in the possibilities of painting In this first book length study of Robert Ryman Suzanne Hudson traces the artist s production from his first paintings in the early 1950s many of which have never been exhibited or reproduced to his recent gallery shows Ryman s largely white on white paintings represent his careful working over of painting s conventions at their most radically reduced Through close readings of the work Hudson casts Ryman as a painter for whom painting was conducted as a continuous personal investigation Ryman s method an act of learning by doing as well as his conception of painting as used paint sets him apart from second generation abstract expressionists minimalists or conceptualists Ryman born in 1930 is a self taught artist who began to paint in earnest while working as a guard at the Museum of Modern Art in New York in the 1950s Hudson argues that Ryman s approach to painting developed from quotidian contact with the story of modern painting as assembled by MoMA director and curator Alfred Barr and rendered widely accessible by director of the education department Victor D Amico and colleagues Ryman's introduction to artistic practice within the white walls of MoMA Hudson contends was shaped by an institutional ethos of experiential learning Others who worked at the MoMA during these years include Lucy Lippard who married Ryman in 1961 Dan Flavin another guard and Sol LeWitt a desk assistant Hudson's chapters Primer Paint Support Edge and Wall named after the most basic elements of the artist's work eloquently explore Ryman's ongoing experiment in what makes a painting a painting Ryman's work she writes tests the medium's material and conceptual possibilities It signals neither the end of painting nor guarantees its continued longevity but keeps the prospect of painting an open question answerable only through the production of new paintings

Re-Enchantment James Elkins, David Morgan, 2011-01-13 The near absence of religion from contemporary discourse on art is one of the most fundamental issues in postmodernism Artists critical of religion can find voices in the art world but religion itself including spirituality is taken to be excluded by the very project of modernism The sublime re-enchantment as in Weber and the aura as in Benjamin have been used to smuggle religious concepts back into academic writing but there is still no direct communication between religionists and scholars Re-Enchantment volume 7 in The Art Seminar Series will be the first book to bridge that gap The volume will include an introduction and two final synoptic essays as well as contributions from some of the most prominent thinkers on religion and art including Boris Groys James Elkins Thierry de Duve David Morgan Norman Girardot Sally Promey Brent Plate and Christopher Pinney

The Brain-Eye Eric Alliez, 2015-12-11 A detailed and inventive study of the thinking at work in modern painting drawing on a formidable body of scholarly evidence to challenge modernist and phenomenological readings of art history The Brain Eye presents a series of interlinked case studies in which philosophical thought encounters the hallucinatory sensations unleashed by painter researchers Rather than outlining a new philosophy of art The Brain Eye details the singular problems pursued by each of its protagonists Striking readings of the oeuvres of Delacroix Seurat Manet Gauguin and Cézanne recount the plural histories of artists who worked to free the differential forces of colour discovered by Goethe in his Colour Theory in the name of a true hallucination and of a logic proper to the Visual A rigorous renewal of the philosophical thinking of visual art The Brain Eye explores the complex relations between concept and sensation theory and practice the discursive and the visual and draws out the political and philosophical stakes of the aesthetic revolution in modern painting

Breaking Resemblance Alena Alexandrova, 2017-05-01 In recent decades curators and artists have shown a distinct interest in religion its different traditions manifestations in public life gestures and images Breaking Resemblance explores the complex relationship between contemporary art and religion by focusing on the ways artists re-work religious motifs as a means to reflect critically on our desire to believe in images on the history of seeing them and on their double power iconic and political It discusses a number of exhibitions that take religion as their central theme and a selection of works by Bill Viola Lawrence Malstaf Victoria Reynolds and Berlinde de Bruyckere all of whom in their respective ways and media recycle religious motifs and iconography and whose works resonate with or problematize the motif of the true image Art for Social Change and Cultural Awakening Wei Hsiu Tung, 2013-09-05 Artistic residency has become widely adopted in Western countries while only recently having become popular and well supported within Taiwan This book explores the challenges that this form of art practice faced in contemporary Taiwan from the revocation of Martial Law in 1987 to the 2000s arguably one of the most exciting periods in the sociocultural history of the island Case studies show what is at stake politically historically and socially in artists endeavours to give shape to a sense of Taiwanese identity Despite the prevalence of artists engaged in social issues in today s world and the undeniable contributions of artistic residency to contemporary art practice little literature or scholarly research has been conducted on the practical conceptual and ideological aspects of artist residency Very often it is perceived in very narrow terms overlooking explicit or hidden issues of localism nationalism and globalization If artistic residence did indeed emerge from the radical movements of the 1960s and 70s in the Western world and especially Britain then this book argues that the contemporary sociocultural context of Taiwan calls for redefined culturally specific models of residency The precarious geo political situation of Taiwan has made issues of cultural identity tackled by artists and successive governments alike very sensitive A new genre of artistic residence in Taiwan would mean that artists involved from whatever cultural background operate as engaging interpreters their roles would not be confined to mirroring culture and society These artists in residence would contribute to cultural awakening by offering ways of negotiating creatively with otherness and this for the sake of a better social life and shared identity The Handy Art History Answer Book Madelynn Dickerson, 2013-06-01 The Art of Discovery The Discovery of Art The History of Art Warhol Michelangelo and da Vinci Picasso Monet and Rembrandt Ai WeiWei and Jenny Holzer What were they thinking when they created their masterworks While we can t always know an artist s exact thoughts The Handy Art History Answer Book examines their benefactors their wealth or poverty their passions the politics and the world events that inspired and influenced them Explore their techniques and materials the forms colors and styles the movements and schools of thoughts and discover the varied forms and nature of artistic expression Tracing art history from cave paintings to contemporary installations along with Romanticism Impressionism and the numerous isms in between The Handy Art History Answer Book guides you through the major art movements artists and important art pieces from 35 000 B C E to today This fascinating book provides an overview of art from its history and basic principles to its evolution philosophy and the masters who created groundbreaking works that changed its course forever Accessible and entertaining this captivating book answers over 600 questions such as What is beauty What tools did Paleolithic artists use Why do Egyptian figures have two left feet What is the difference between weaving and tapestry What happened to the Venus de Milo s arms Why is Emperor Comodus dressed as Hercules What are the Classical Greek Orders of Architecture What do the Yoruba consider beautiful What was the first Gothic cathedral How was single point perspective invented What makes the Mona Lisa such a great work of art What is the difference between Art Nouveau and Art Deco What is a Zen garden Why wasn t photography considered

Modern Art and the Idea of the Mediterranean Wojtech Jirat-Wasiutyński, Anne Elizabeth Dymond, Wojciech Jirat-Wasiutyński, 2007-01-01 The Mediterranean is an invented cultural space on the frontier between North and South West and East Modern Art and the Idea of the Mediterranean examines the representation of this region in the visual arts since the late eighteenth century placing the idea of the Mediterranean a cultural construct rather than a physical reality at the centre of our understanding of modern visual culture This collection of essays features an international group of scholars who examine competing visions of the Mediterranean in terms of modernity and cultural identity questioning and illuminating both European and non European representations An introductory essay frames the analysis in terms of a new spatial paradigm of the Mediterranean as a geographic historical and cultural region that emerged in the late eighteenth century as France and Britain colonized the surrounding territories Essays are grouped around three vital themes visualization of the space of the new Mediterranean varied uses of the classical paradigm and issues of identity and resistance in an age of modernity and colonialism Drawing on recent geographical historical cultural and anthropological studies contributors address the visual representation of identity in both the European and the Oriental the colonial and post colonial Mediterranean

A Student's Search for Meaning Melissa Carter, James Fraser, Chelsea Garbell, Amy Wilson, 2023-11-25 This edited volume brings together reflections on how students pursue the search for meaning and purpose in the context of higher education It offers perspectives from humanities professors college chaplains of multiple faiths and observers of the changing shape of the American university as each considers the needs and expectations of today's students The collection address three key lines of inquiry what the student search for meaning looks like in the context of higher education how do presenters understand the dimensions of the search for meaning itself and how do or don't humanities faculty and religious life leaders talk to each other around the common student concerns addressed in both course work and the extracurricular world of religious life programs Together the conversation suggests that students pursue a search for meaning in the context of university life and the academic curriculum but the particular dimensions of this search are yet undefined This is often a contested pursuit because it conflicts with the other purposes of the university which some see as primary A key audience for this book is university administrators who work in the field of chaplaincy and faith based programming as well as department chairs and faculty in the liberal arts who are directly involved in building humanities curriculum
