Reed,2012-10-01 This witty wide ranging memoir from Roy Reed a native Arkansan who became a reporter for the New York Times begins with tales of the writer s formative years growing up in Arkansas and the start of his career at the legendary Arkansas Gazette Reed joined the New York Times in 1965 and was quickly thrust into the chaos of the Selma Alabama protest movement and the historical interracial march to Montgomery His story then moves from days of racial violence to the political combat of Washington Reed covered the Johnson White House and the early days of the Nixon administration as it wrestled with the competing demands of black voters and southern resistance to a new world The memoir concludes with engaging postings from New Orleans and London and other travels of a reporter always on the lookout for new people old ways good company and fresh outrages Shadow Patterns Jeff Shannon,2017-04-15 Winner 2017 Ned Shank Award for Outstanding Preservation Publication from Preserve Arkansas Shadow Patterns Reflections on Fay Jones and His Architecture is a collection of critical essays and personal accounts of the man the American Institute of Architects honored with its highest award the Gold Medal in 1990 The essays range from the academic with appreciations and observations by Juhanni Palaasma and Robert McCarter and Ethel Goodstein Murphree to personal reflections by clients and friends Two of Arkansas s most accomplished writers Roy Reed and Ellen Gilchrist who each live in Fay Jones houses have provided intimate portrayals of what it s like to live in and manage the quirks of a house built by a genius where light is everywhere Everything is quiet and everything is a surprise as Gilchrist says Through this compendium of perspectives readers will learn about Jones s personal qualities including his strong will his ability to convince other people of the rightness of his ideas and yet his willingness at times to change his mind We also enter into the work powerful architecture like Stoneflower and Thorncrown Chapel and Pinecote Pavilion along with private residences ranging from the modest to the monumental And we learn about his relationship with his mentor Frank Lloyd Wright Shadow Patterns broadens and enriches our understanding of this major figure in American architecture of the twentieth century Speak So I Shall Know Thee William J. Walsh,2012-02-29 A R Ammons was asked if he agreed that the United States has not produced a major poet in the last 30 years I agree The poetry in the country has become sort of a company affair where support for the arts has just about ruined the arts and the system of bureaucrats managing the funds being developed here and there is turning into trade unionism which may be the best way to write poetry but it is unfamiliar to me This comprehensive collection contains 31 interviews in which Southern writers talk about their craft the Southern literary scene and themselves Poets short story writers and novelists include firmly established writers side by side with emerging talent Lee Smith James Dickey Harry Crews Pat Conroy Doris Bett Pulitzer Prize winner Donald Justice and 25 others Instinct for Survival Pat C. Hoy II,2012-04 The essays in Instinct for Survival explore fundamental ideas about the ties of community the trials and tribulations of family life the sacrificial nature of public service the yearnings of the spirit and the tangled joys of teaching From his childhood in Arkansas to his career as both Army officer and professor of literature Pat Hoy uses his rich experiences as departure points in his quest for meaning In Mosaics of

Southern Masculinity Hoy recalls his absent father and develops a multilayered inquiry into male identity that includes memories of his own sons and reflections on the ways other southern writers have grappled with father son relationships The Spirit Was Willing and So Was the Flesh stems from Hoy's attempts to come to terms with the feminine aspects of his own personality and with the apparent dichotomy between the spiritual and the physical Hoy toys with his own personal poetics and philosophy of writing in Conversing with Images where he articulates the unspoken power of images A fascination with life's mysteries informs these essays which together create a transcendent and marvelous mosaic of life

The Jungles of Arkansas Bob Lancaster, 1989-07-01 When H L Mencken wrote about the miasmatic jungles of Arkansas he was referring to the relative obscurity and uncertain image that Arkansas has enjoyed or suffered from throughout its history In these entertaining and sometimes quirky essays Lancaster sheds light on that image by analyzing the stereotypes that have characterized the state since its very beginning
