Chung-kuo A, Chung-kuo! Chih-p'ing Chou, Joanne Chiang, Der-lin Chao, 1993-05-23 This textbook presents a selection of thirteen expository essays written from the 1920s through the 1980s by influential Chinese intellectuals on controversial issues of their times including the emancipation of women the reforms of the Chinese language the implementation of modernization and freedom and patriotism To provoke classroom discussion each topic is treated by essayists with opposing views Prepared for American students who have already completed two years of Chinese and who are interested in reading original documents the book juxtaposes traditional and simplified characters for the text and vocabulary so that students can be exposed to both versions of Chinese characters Each of the thirteen texts is followed by a detailed glossary annotated in English with suggested topics for class discussion An index at the end of the book allows students easy access to the vocabulary items Audio and video materials are available for use with this text For further information contact the Chinese Linguistics Project 231 Palmer Hall Princeton University Princeton N J 08544 609 258 4269

Modern Chinese Parts of Speech Guo Rui, 2018-06-18 Classification of parts of speech in Chinese is tough due to the lack of morphological differences and thus is short of in depth investigation and exploration Based on the analysis and research of nearly 40 000 Chinese characters this book elaborates on the system of Chinese parts of speech and proposes a set of criteria on their classification contributing to relevant theoretical and methodological studies To begin with it examines the common characteristics and internal hierarchies of parts of speech as well as the relationship between grammatical functions and parts of speech in modern Chinese Then it puts forward the criteria on the classification of Chinese parts of speech with a descriptive explanation of around 20 parts of speech Besides it illustrates the statistical studies on Chinese parts of speech offering data support and corpus verification to the criteria Also it analyses the system of Chinese parts of speech from the perspective of typology Specifically it elucidates the correspondence between syntactic positions and parts of speech functional differentiation of Chinese word items etc This book will be a valuable reference to researchers and students in Chinese linguistics Learners of Chinese will also be attracted by it
