CEO-Speak Joel Amernic, Russell Craig, 2006-02-22 CEO Speak explores the metaphors and persuasive strategies used by leaders at Enron Microsoft AOL Time Warner General Electric IBM Nortel Canadian National Railways Andersen Disney and Alcan Pechiney Alusuisse Amernic and Craig show that CEOs are frequently presented as heroes engaged in the war of business who can effect astonishing miracles of financial performance and reinvention Contesting the notion that accounting is objective CEO Speak serves as an introduction to the controversies and ambiguities in corporate accountability and provides rich examples of the excesses of corporate communication

CEO Society Peter Bloom, Carl Rhodes, 2018-04-15 Chief Executive Officers CEOs have become the cultural icons of the 21st century Figures like Steve Jobs and Mark Zuckerberg are held up as role models who epitomise the modern pursuit of innovation wealth and success We now live Bloom and Rhodes argue in a CEO society a society where corporate leadership has become the model for transforming not just business but all spheres of life where everyone from politicians to jobseekers to even those seeking love are expected to imitate the qualities of the lionized corporate executive But why in the wake of the failings exposed by the 2008 financial crisis does the corporate ideal continue to exert such a grip on popular attitudes In this insightful new book Bloom and Rhodes examine the rise of the CEO society and how it has started to transform governments culture and the economy This influence they argue holds troubling implications for the future of

James D. Martin, 2020-06-02 The emergence of the pastor Chief Executive Officer CEO position in churches today has become widely acceptable in Mega and Meta churches Recent studies have not explored this issue David Fisher acknowledges that in the 21st century being a pastor presents major challenges because it leads to professional and personal identity crisis resulting from secular and ecclesial challenges Studies have supported the idea that there is the need for church leaders to adopt the secular models of leadership and several noted authors have shown that churches today have become like other organizations that have to market their products This is a problematic interpretation because leadership in modern churches has gone beyond the biblical and theological definitions of becoming shepherds of their flock and servants of God In the search for an effective pastoral leadership role this paper will explore the contemporary definition of pastoral leadership and compare it with what the scriptures say concerning the elders and servants of God assigned the duty of being shepherds of their flock The Inspired Leader Richard Blackaby, 2012-08-01 Bestselling author and speaker Richard Blackaby offers readers in the workplace a way to replenish their faith If you were to ask me where I see God at work today writes Blackaby I would tell you In the marketplace This observation has birthed his newest book The Inspired Leader 101 Biblical Reflections for Becoming a Person of Influence a compilation of 101 short stories and reflections written by Blackaby and numerous Christian CEOs who work for 100 million companies Compelling challenging and amazingly applicable The Inspired Leader offers a spiritual oasis for business and church leaders alike The United Nations Global Compact and the Encyclical Laudato Si Oliver F. Williams, 2023-04-21 In April 2016 the Center for Ethics and Religious Values in Business of the Mendoza College of Business at the University of Notre Dame with the United Nations Global Compact UNGC Office convened a group of scholars and business leaders to discuss the Encyclical Laudato Si LS and the UN Sustainable Development Goals SDGs The articles in this special issue are from that conference the hope is that they will provoke your thinking and lead to new action to make the world a better place How is it that the secular United Nations and the religious Vatican have a common vision for business At root this common vision for business flows from a common vision for society as a whole For business flowing from this common vision is a common understanding of the purpose of business Catholic social thought has always taught that the single minded focus on making money in business can never be acceptable The purpose of business is to create sustainable value for stakeholders and that value is not exclusively monetary value
