Radomska, 2024-11-29 This edited volume proposes a theoretical reflection on the different artistic geographies of East Central Europe ECE from an interdisciplinary perspective found at the intersection of art history art and politics and critical geography Contributors argue that this multiplicity is a defining feature of the region At the same time chapters employ the concept of plural geographies and call for an equal geography based on solidarity and an equal distribution of capital which could allow plural geographies to exist and be described The multiple geographies of ECE consider the perspective of local conditions and emphasize how this region was part of successive empires with an important ethnic diversity and changing borders giving it historical layers and multicultural characteristics The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history political studies cultural studies and geography

Three analyses the British image of the refugee artists and their works on the one hand and the migrants' self-representations on the other the latter exemplified by refugee organisations the Free German League of Culture Freier Deutscher Kulturbund the Austrian Centre the Anglo Sudeten Club and the Czech Institute and institutions founded by migrant artists Jack Bilbo's Modern Art Gallery and Arthur Segal's Painting School Chapter Four examines the works produced in internment and those exhibited and produced for the refugee organisations discussed in Chapter Three Chapter Five discusses the results of this study in the light of three postcolonial concepts diaspora communities the notion of home and the gendered identity of the refugee The appendix lists all painters sculptors and graphic artists from Nazi Germany in Britain with biographical details Apart from visual and written sources discussed for the first time there are two major results of the study First although the artists were united as refugees this unity did not lead to a unity in art refugee art is a construction put forward by the British press and the refugee organisations particularly the Free German League of Culture Second contrary to claims that modern art was international and formed a universal unity that transgressed nationality neither the West European nor modernism formations instead in the 1930s and 1940s cultures in Europe constructed conceptions of other European cultures on the basis of nation state identities
