Modern Black Writers:

Modern Black Writers Michael Popkin,1989 Color and Culture Ross Posnock,2009-07-01 The coining of the term intellectuals in 1898 coincided with W E B Du Bois s effort to disseminate values and ideals unbounded by the color line Du Bois s ideal of a higher and broader and more varied human culture is at the heart of a cosmopolitan tradition that Color and Culture identifies as a missing chapter in American literary and cultural history The book offers a much needed and startlingly new historical perspective on black intellectuals as a social category ranging over a century from Frederick Douglass to Patricia Williams from Du Bois Pauline Hopkins and Charles Chesnutt to Nella Larsen Zora Neale Hurston and Alain Locke from Ralph Ellison and James Baldwin to Samuel Delany and Adrienne Kennedy These writers challenge two durable assumptions that high culture is white culture and that racial uplift is the sole concern of the black intellectual The remarkable tradition that this book recaptures culminating in a cosmopolitan disregard for demands for racial authenticity and group solidarity is strikingly at odds with the identity politics and multicultural movements of our day In the Du Boisian tradition Ross Posnock identifies a universalism inseparable from the particular and open to ethnicity an approach with the power to take us beyond the provincialism of postmodern tribalism Great Black Writers M. K. Fullen,2002 Presents brief biographies of six modern African American authors Ida Wells Barnett Zora Neale Hurston Langston Hughes Alex Haley James Baldwin and Lorraine Hansberry Black Writers Abroad Robert Coles,2018-10-26 Originally published in 1999 Black Writers Abroad puts forward the theory that African American literature was born partially within the context of a people and its writers who lived for the most part in slavery and bondage prior to the Civil War It is an in depth study of black American writers who left the United States as expatriates The book discusses the people that left where they went why they left and why they did or did not return from the nineteenth century to the twentieth century It seeks to explain the impact exile had upon these authors literary work and careers as well as upon African American literary history Major

Avilez,2016-05-15 Radical Aesthetics and Modern Black Nationalism explores the long overlooked links between black nationalist activism and the renaissance of artistic experimentation emerging from recent African American literature visual art and film GerShun Avilez charts a new genealogy of contemporary African American artistic production that illuminates how questions of gender and sexuality guided artistic experimentation in the Black Arts Movement from the mid 1960s to the mid 1970s As Avilez shows the artistic production of the Black Arts era provides a set of critical methodologies and paradigms rooted in the disidentification with black nationalist discourses Avilez s close readings study how this emerging subjectivity termed aesthetic radicalism critiqued nationalist rhetoric in the past It also continues to offer novel means for expressing black intimacy and embodiment via experimental works of art and innovative artistic methods A bold addition to an advancing field Radical Aesthetics and Modern Black Nationalism rewrites recent black cultural production even as it uncovers unexpected ways of locating black radicalism

Nationalism, Marxism, and African American Literature between the Wars Anthony Dawahare,2009-09-18 During and after the Harlem Renaissance two intellectual forces nationalism and Marxism clashed and changed the future of African American writing Current literary thinking says that writers with nationalist leanings wrote the most relevant fiction poetry and prose of the day Nationalism Marxism and African American Literature Between the Wars A New Pandora s Box challenges that notion It boldly proposes that such writers as A Philip Randolph Langston Hughes and Richard Wright who often saw the world in terms of class struggle did more to advance the anti racist politics of African American letters than writers such as Countee Cullen Jessie Redmon Fauset Alain Locke and Marcus Garvey who remained enmeshed in nationalist and racist discourse Evaluating the great impact of Marxism and nationalism on black authors from the Harlem Renaissance and the Depression era Anthony Dawahare argues that the spread of nationalist ideologies and movements between the world wars did guide legitimate political desires of black writers for a world without racism But the nationalist channels of political and cultural resistance did not address the capitalist foundation of modern racial discrimination During the period known as the Red Decade 1929 1941 black writers developed some of the sharpest critiques of the capitalist world and thus anticipated contemporary scholarship on the intellectual and political hazards of nationalism for the working class As it examines the progression of the Great Depression the book focuses on the shift of black writers to the Communist Left including analyses of the Communists position on the Negro Question the radical poetry of Langston Hughes and the writings of Richard Wright American Writers Elizabeth H. Oakes,2004 American Writers focuses on the rich diversity of American novelists
