Finnish Architecture and the Modernist Tradition Malcolm

Quantrill,2012-12-06 This is a unique and comprehensive study of the entire span of Finnish architecture in the 20th century Using comparative critical analysis the author weaves Aalto s contribution into his overview of the evolution of modern Finnish architecture and includes the work of a range of lesser published figures It will be of considerable interest to architects art historians and all those interested in modern Finnish architecture Imperiled Heritage: Tradition, History and Utopia in Early Modern German Literature Max Reinhart,2017-03-02 The most prolific historian of early modern German literature in the twentieth century Klaus Garber has largely remained unknown to English language scholars The seven essays selected here are translated into English for the first time and represent the essence of Garber s work Central to Garber s outlook is a break with the traditional canonization of culture into national categories Moreover he argues that literary history consists not only of intellectual history but also political and social history As he states in his preface to this volume To bring Old Europe to life in all the variety of its cultural landscapes to hear across space and time the voices that praised this multiplicity as a valuable possession to be inspired by the past to respond to our own needs these tasks constitute the noblest goal of early modern literary studies today Kierkegaard and the Renaissance and Modern

Traditions: Philosophy Jon Bartley Stewart,2009 The long period from the Renaissance to the nineteenth century supplied numerous sources for Kierkegaard s thought in any number of different fields The present volume covers the period from the birth of Savonarola in 1452 through the beginning of the nineteenth century and into Kierkegaard s own time The Danish thinker read authors representing vastly different traditions and time periods and a diverse range of genres including philosophy theology literature drama and music The present volume consists of three tomes that are intended to cover Kierkegaard s sources in these different fields of thought Tome I is dedicated to the philosophers of this period who played a role in shaping Kierkegaard s intellectual development Manet's Modernism Michael Fried,1996 Fried put forward a highly original beholder centered account of the evolution of a central tradition in French painting from Chardin to Courbet P 4 of cover Religion in the 21st Century Lisbet Christoffersen,2010 Religion in the 21st century is a phenomenon that cannot be taken for granted and is undergoing transformations that present us with new challenges both from a scholarly and societal perspective The nuanced and multifaceted way in which these features are analyzed in this book should be welcomed by all who are interested and concerned with the role of religion on the contemporary scene The combination of accessible scholarship and challenging positions makes this a book for everyone who is interested in religion in the secularized parts of the world The volume contributes to an understanding of how it is not after all a contradiction to be both fully modern and religious Jan Olav Henriksen Norwegian School of Theology Oslo Norway National Symbols in Modern

Iran Menahem Merhavy, 2019-12-03 Now more than ever the role of icons and monuments in shaping a national identity is a subject of vital importance to scholars of both nationalism and memory studies While the nation state undoubtedly has a powerful influence on a society's cultural memory it cannot necessarily control the ways in which icons are perceived Once created national symbols and perceptions of them take on a life of their own Taking an innovative approach to the study of Iranian nationalism Merhavy examines the way symbols from Iran's past have played an important role in the struggles between political religious and ideological movements over legitimacy in the last five decades Using a rich variety of primary sources he traces the process by which these symbols have been appropriated rejected and reinterpreted by the Pahlavi state the Islamic opposition and finally the Islamic Republic In doing so this volume contributes to our understanding of cultural symbols that survive political upheavals dramatic and significant as they may be It also contributes to the growing body of literature that challenges the state centered perspective of much research on modern Iran by exposing the ever growing importance of civil society in the Iranian public sphere from the second half of the twentieth century onward The End of Tradition? Nezar Alsayyad, 2004-08-02 Rooted in real world observations this book questions the concept of tradition whether contemporary globalization will prove its demise or whether there is a process of simultaneous ending and renewing In his introduction Nezar Alsayyad discusses the meaning of the word tradition and the current debates about the end of tradition Thereafter the book is divided into three parts The three chapters in part I explore the inextricable link between tradition and modern revealing the geopolitical implications of this link Part II looks at tradition as a process of invention and here the three chapters are all concerned with the making of landscapes and landscape myths showing how the spectacle of history can be aestheticized and naturalized Finally Part III shows how tradition is a regime programmed and policed and how it has been deployed resisted and reworked through hegemonic struggles that seek to create both built environments and citizen subjects Who's Afraid of Modern Art? Daniel A. Siedell, 2015-01-07 Modern art can be confusing and intimidating even ugly and blasphemous And yet curator and art critic Daniel A Siedell finds something else something much deeper that resonates with the human experience With over thirty essays on such diverse artists as Andy Warhol Thomas Kinkade Diego Velazquez Robyn O Neil Claudia Alvarez and Andrei Rublev Siedell offers a highly personal approach to modern art that is informed by nearly twenty years of experience as a museum curator art historian and educator Siedell combines his experience in the contemporary art world with a theological perspective that serves to deepen the experience of art allowing the work of art to work as art and not covert philosophy or theology or visual illustrations of ideas meanings and worldviews Who's Afraid of Modern Art celebrates the surprising beauty of art that emerges from and embraces pain and suffering if only we take the time to listen Indeed as Siedell reveals a painting is much more than meets the eye So who's afraid of modern art Siedell's answer might surprise you Hist West Educ: Modern West V3 James Bowen, 2013-10-08 Volume Three of three this is a reprint of James Bowen's A History of Western Education originally published by Methuen in the 1970s

Volume Three The Modern West Europe and the New World The final volume covers the period of educational dissent which became conspicuous in the early seventeenth century and reached crisis proportions in the late twentieth when the dominant ideologies of progress and equality generated at the beginning of the nineteenth century were questioned for the first time on a widespread popular scale Christian Inversion of Jewish Nationalist Monotheism, and its Modern Romantic-Narcissist Betrayal Patrick Madigan,2023-11-03 This is a history of Western culture divided into two parts The first concerns the aggressive championing of monotheism by Jewish people as their distinctive national culture although they only fell into or embraced it late in their development Jesus offended by proposing an inversion of the divine protocols and an agenda more in harmony with international political realities the one God proposed to use the Jews to reach and transform the entire human race which was the actual object of His redemptive and creative energies With the Renaissance widening opportunities for study travel learning and discovery authorities had greater difficulty justifying limitations on individuals freedom of expression of heterodox artistic political philosophical or religious positions This book explores the difficult modern psychological adjustment of dealing with a world with diminishing centers of authority where it often seems as if no one is in charge while also doing justice to one's feelings of frustration and lack of fulfillment without becoming a radical narcissist

The Theoretic Life - A Classical Ideal and its Modern Fate Alexander S. Rosenthal-Pubul,2019-01-01 In this work Alexander Rosenthal Pubul presents a broad examination of the ancient philosophical question What is the good life while addressing how the liberal arts can help us to answer this question Greek philosophy distinguished between the noble what is good in itself from the merely useful good for something else From thence follows the distinction between the liberal arts which pursue such noble goods and the mechanical arts which are only instrumental For Aristotle the most noble and excellent good is wisdom itself Hence the theoretic life devoted to the love of wisdom for its own sake philosophy is the highest and the most excellent This work theorizes the origins of modernity in a rebellion against this Greek conception resulting in a complete inversion of the classical hierarchy Sir Francis Bacon reconceiving the purpose of knowledge as power enthroned technology over philosophy and the liberal arts The unfolding of the modern Baconian revolution progressively sidelines the liberal arts as practical economic and technical utility become the standard of value In assessing this problem the book engages in a capacious journey across disciplines like philosophy history art politics and science It is also a veritable tour across the Western intellectual tradition including Socrates Plato Aristotle Cicero Seneca Thomas Aquinas Bacon Descartes Hume Kant Nietzsche Dewey Berdyaev Einstein and Heidegger It pleads the urgent need to preserve the humanizing cultural ideals of the ancient classics against the modern tyranny of utility and the dangers of a new barbarism

Classical Traditions and Modern Meanings Stefan Sperl,1996

On the Thirty-nine Articles Oliver O'Donovan,2013-01-07 The Thirty Nine Articles together with the Book of Common Prayer form the foundation of Anglican theology Yet there are very few extended treatments of them Oliver O Donovan relates the Articles to the exhilarating and troubled century in which they took shape He also shows how the distinctive insights and values of a past age relate to the demands of today s world What I propose in this case is not to talk solely about the Articles but to talk about God mankind sin and redemption the central matters of the Christian faith and to take the Tudor authors with me as companions in discussion Two voices will be speaking each raising the questions that Christian faith in his time forces upon him Here is a new edition of his book on one of the key texts of Anglican identity by one of the UK s leading theologians The book has been out of print for some time and there have been repeated calls for a new edition with a new introduction which engages with more recent developments and offers the text to a new generation

Archaeological Sites as Space for Modern Spiritual Practice

Raimund Karl,Jutta Leskovar,2018-11-07 Archaeological heritage can be disputed especially where it is important to religions and their practitioners While the destruction of archaeological sites in war often due to religious fervour is frequently making the headlines apparently lesser disputes about local heritage sites go unreported This book focuses on these lesser but much more frequent potential conflicts between archaeological heritage management and conservation on the one hand and practitioners of religious beliefs who use archaeological heritage in their practice on the other By exploring case studies from Austria the Czech Republic Estonia France Norway Romania Russia Spain Sweden and Wales this book examines the interaction between spiritual practice and monuments conservation This book will be of great interest to heritage professionals archaeologists historians conservationists and religious practitioners alike through its exploration of various kinds of interactions between these different heritage communities and their interests in archaeology
