Modern Economic Systems And Their Transformation:

Modern Economic Systems and their Transformation J. L. Porket,1998      Modern Economic Systems and their Transformation J. Porket,1998-07-13 Societies whether traditional or modern experience tension between spontaneity individual freedom and control regulation Consequently economies as a subsystem of society experience it too More specifically they experience a tension between economic individualism and economic collectivism which in modern economies revolves around the role of the state in the economy Since the collapse of communism this tension has manifested itself not as a tension between market capitalism and command socialism but as a tension between the free market and the interventionist variants of market capitalism Although currently economic and political liberalization is in evidence worldwide not only in post communist societies its outcome remains uncertain Liberal democracy in the sense of democratic politics and free market economics has not triumphed hitherto and also its future is far from assured The end of history is not in sight      Consistency and Viability of Islamic Economic Systems and the Transition Process J. Marangos,2013-08-27 Consistency and Viability of Islamic Economics Systems and the Transition Process outlines the transition problem for non market economies and creates an analytic framework for understanding the cause and effect of these economies

Industry 4.0: Industrial Revolution of the 21st Century Elena G. Popkova,Yulia V. Ragulina,Aleksei V. Bogoviz,2018-07-21 This book addresses a wide range of issues relating to the theoretical substantiation of the necessity of Industry 4 0 the development of the methodological tools for its analysis and evaluation and practical solutions for effectively managing this process It particularly focuses on solving the problem of optimizing the development of Industry 4 0 in the context of knowledge economy formation The book presents the authors approach to studying the process of Industry 4 0 formation in connection with knowledge economy and approach that allows the process to be studied in connection with the existing socio economic and technological conditions As a result the conclusions and recommendations could be applied to modern economic systems and do not require any further elaboration The presented research is based on modern economic theory scientific and methodological tools including the tools of the theory of economic cycles the theory of games and the institutional economic theory Raising awareness of the problem of Industry 4 0 formation the book is of interest to a wide audience including not only specialists and experts with a detailed knowledge of the topic but also scholars lecturers and undergraduates of various fields of economics      Economics of the Tribes and their Transformation K.S. Singh,2016-01-01 The present volume seeks to present probably for the first time an all India conspectus of the economies of the tribes through specific case studies from different parts of the country of various modes of production The diversities of regional situations and the multiple processes of transition are dealt with in similar case studies The focus is on change and transformation of the modes of production including the relations of production These papers also raise the larger issues of the relationship of the tribes economy with society The picture that emerges is a complex one calling for further research and vigorous action programme to make tribal s adjustment to the emerging situations less painful      Alternative Political Economy Models of Transition John Marangos,2017-07-05 The collapse of centrally administered socialism in Russia and Eastern Europe resulted in what is commonly referred to as the transition problem the transformation from a centrally administered socialist economic system to one that is market based Economic science has been faced with the challenge of developing an appropriate body of analysis advice and direction to help other nations that may be undergoing this process In this volume John Marangos adopts a political economy approach that yields alternative models of transition The volume develops transition models from what Marangos defines as the primary elements of six variables 1 economic analysis 2 definitions of the Good Society 3 speed of transition 4 political structure 5 ideological structure and 6 initial conditions The models developed include the shock therapy model the neoclassical gradualist model of transition the post Keynesian model the pluralistic market the socialist model and the non pluralistic market socialist model After identifying the primary elements of each transition model Marangos considers the elements of each model with respect to the desirable reforms An essential element of the transition process is not only to identify the necessary reforms but also a sequence in which the reforms should be introduced For each transition model developed in this book a set of primary and secondary elements were provided in conjunction with a sequence of reforms Analyzing the transition problem from a political economy perspective Marangos shows that it is possible to have inconsistencies within each transition model and between transition models yet be able to identify the potential for implementation and maintenance of necessary reforms each model recommends This volume contributes to the understanding of the process of transition with the objective of identifying an optimal model of transition

Alternative Political Economy Models of Transition Marangos,      The Cost of Development in China Guangyu Hu,2017-05-10 This book focuses on the future of China and its sustainable development and summarizes the implications forms causes countermeasures and related rules of the main costs generated during a country s period of development so as to provide a theoretical reference and decision making consulting tools for institutions and scientific governance and management professionals Combining China s national situation and development characteristics with the country as a unit it uses case studies to propose the concept of cost theory and the theoretical system of national development cost Focusing on the goals of innovation in nation building common development and prosperity as well as enhancement of people s net welfare the book summarizes and draws conclusions about various aspects of national development including economic development cost political social and cultural development cost foreign opening up development cost and nature development cost It primarily establishes an indicator system of national development cost for promoting full factor productivity and reducing development cost and provides a theoretical basis for implementing the scientific political achievement view      Research Developments in Sustainable Aviation T. Hikmet Karakoc,Siripong Atipan,Alper Dalkiran,Ali Haydar Ercan,Navatasn Kongsamutr,Vis Sripawadkul,2023-09-29 Sustainable aviation is a long term strategy aimed at providing innovative solutions to the challenges facing the aviation industry The International Symposium on Sustainable Aviation is a multi disciplinary symposium that presents research on current sustainability based issues and future trends in the field of aviation from an economic social and environmental perspective The conference provides a platform offering insights on a broad range of current issues in aviation such as improving aircraft fuel efficiency fostering the use of biofuels minimizing environmental impact mitigating GHG emissions and reducing engine and airframe noise ISSA allows researchers scientists engineers practitioners policymakers and students to exchange information present new technologies and developments and discuss future direction strategies and priorities in aviation and sustainability

Transformation of Social Security Katharina Müller,Andreas Ryll,Hans-Jürgen Wagener,2012-12-06 This collection of papers focuses on the recent pension reform experiences in Central Eastern Europe while starting from a broader theoretical and empirical context It provides evidence for the political feasibility of radical pension reform considered unlikely in the West The approach is both multi disciplinary and cross regional The book contains papers by economists political scientists and sociologists The authors come from Germany Poland Hungary the Czech Republic and the US The volume consists of four parts First general questions of transformation and social security in post 1989 Central Eastern Europe are addressed followed by an introduction into issues and role models in the international pension reform debate Then three Central European country cases are presented analysing institutional legacies recent reform measures and relevant political actors A comparative section on Central Eastern European pension reforms concludes this book
