Modern Music Librarianship Essays In Honor Of Ruth Watanabe:

Modern Music Librarianship Alfred Mann, 1989 For 37 years Ruth Watanabe served as head of the Sibley Library of the Eastman School of Music University of Rochester one of the most outstanding collections of music books on music and music recordings of any academic institution in the western world This volume published in association with B renreiter Verlag comprises essays devoted to the history organization administration and innovations of the modern music library

Modern Music Librarianship ,1989 Library Acquisition of Music Michael R. Fling, 2004-10-05 Provides advice for libraries on acquiring printed and recorded music including information on preordering the ordering process secondhand and out of print materials and more A Musical Offering Martin Bernstein, 1977 In the great tradition of the German Festschrift this book brings together articles by Professor Bernstein s colleagues friends and students to honor him on his 70th birthday Ranging in subject from the trouv e song through esoteric aspects of Renaissance studies and authenticity in 18th century musical sources to a lively and irreverent attack on performance practices today the twenty essays by many of America s most distinguished scholars reflect the breadth and variety of Martin Bernstein s far reaching interests and demonstrates the vitality and relevance of what is best in musicology today Music Library and Research Skills Jane Gottlieb, 2017 Concise and engaging this text covers a wide range of reference sources for research in all genres of music Through this practical introduction to the key concepts of music research students will develop a firm understanding of the tools used to gather data including what types of sources exist how they are arranged and how they may best be used to do research 1979-1990 Henryk Sawoniak, 2012-02-14 No detailed description available for 1979 1990 Indexing and Retrieval of Non-Text Information Diane Rasmussen Neal, 2012-10-30 The scope of this volume will encompass a collection of research papers related to indexing and retrieval of online non text information In recent years the Internet has seen an exponential increase in the number of documents placed online that are not in textual format These documents appear in a variety of contexts such as user generated content sharing websites social networking websites etc and formats including photographs videos recorded music data visualizations etc The prevalence of these contexts and data formats presents a particularly challenging task to information indexing and retrieval research due to many difficulties such as assigning suitable semantic metadata processing and extracting non textual content automatically and designing retrieval systems that speak in the native language of non text documents Managing Performing Arts Collections in Academic and Public Libraries Carolyn A. Sheehy, 1994-07-21 This professional reference provides solid advice to academic and public librarians for managing performing arts collections The volume is divided into sections on the history of performing arts librarianship dance collections film studies collections music collections and theater collections Each chapter is written by one or more expert contributors and presents current and reliable information on collection management They discuss personnel management collection development technical services public services the impact of new technologies facilities management financial planning and political considerations Each chapter closes with references cited in the chapter and the volume concludes with a valuable selected annotated bibliography of important background sources and management tools
