Modern World Religions Islam:

Islam in the Modern World Jeffrey T. Kenney, Ebrahim Moosa, 2013-08-15 This comprehensive introduction explores the landscape of contemporary Islam. Written by a distinguished team of scholars, it provides broad overviews of the developments, events, people, and movements that have defined Islam in the three majority Muslim regions, traces the connections between traditional Islamic institutions and concerns and their modern manifestations and transformations. How are medieval ideas, policies, and practices refashioned to address modern circumstances? Investigates new themes and trends that are shaping the modern Muslim experience, such as gender, fundamentalism, the media, and secularisation. Offers case studies of Muslims and Islam in dynamic interaction with different societies. Islam in the Modern World includes illustrations, summaries, discussion points, and suggestions for further reading that will aid understanding and revision. Additional resources are provided via a companion website.

The World's Religions: Islam Peter Clarke, 2002-06-01 The theological and philosophical bases of the beliefs are clearly presented with their history, development, expression, and everyday practice. It is written by international specialists in a scholarly but non-technical style.

Religions in the Modern World Linda Woodhead, Christopher Partridge, Hiroko Kawanami, 2016-01-13 Religions in the Modern World: Traditions and Transformations Third Edition is the ideal textbook for those coming to the study of religion for the first time, as well as for those who wish to keep up to date with the latest perspectives in the field. This third edition contains new and upgraded pedagogic features, including chapter summaries, key terms and definitions, and questions for reflection and discussion. The first part of the book considers the history and modern practices of the main religious traditions of the world, while the second analyzes trends from secularization to the rise of new spiritualities. Comprehensive and fully international in coverage, it is accessibly written by practicing and specialist teachers.

Islam & Art in the Modern World: A Contemporary Perspective Ahmer Sohail, 2023-02-01 Islam Art in the Modern World: A Contemporary Perspective is an essential read for anyone looking to truly understand the intricate relationship between Islam and art in the modern world. Written by Ahmer Sohail, a leading authority in the field of Islamic art, the book offers a comprehensive and in-depth examination of the cultural, historical, and societal factors that shape this relationship. The author's unique art history and psychology background provides a well-rounded perspective unmatched in the field. Through a thorough analysis of traditional and modern art forms found in Islamic art, as well as the impact of technology on it, the book offers valuable insights into the subject. It delves into the subject of Islamic art and its role in the preservation of cultural heritage, its future, and the role of Islamic art in activism and social justice. The book also examines the globalisation of culture, the impact of Islamic art on pop culture, and the representation of women in contemporary Islamic art. The author's expertise and passion for the subject are evident throughout the book, making it a must-read for scholars, students, and art enthusiasts alike. The author's in-depth research and detailed analysis provide a comprehensive understanding of the intersection of Islam and art in the modern world. If you're Ninian Smart on World Religions: Religious experience and philosophical analysis. I. Autobiographical. 'Methods in my life' Ninian Smart,2009 Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research. An unending string of publications, many of them accessible to the general public, sustained a reputation that became worldwide. Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart's wide-ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century. The editor, John Shepherd, was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria. He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster.

Islam Cenap Çakmak, 2017-05-18. This expansive four-volume encyclopedia presents a broad introduction to Islam that enables learning about the fundamental role of Islam in world history and promotes greater respect for cultural diversity. One of the most popular and widespread religions in the world, Islam has attracted a great deal of attention in recent times, particularly in the Western world. With the ongoing tensions in the Middle East and a pervasive sense of hostility toward Arab Americans, there is an ever-increasing need to examine and understand Islam as a religion and historical force. Islam: A Worldwide Encyclopedia provides some 700 entries on Islam, written by expert contributors that cover the religion from the birth of Islam to the present time. The set also includes 16 pages of color images per volume that serve to illustrate the diverse expressions of this important religious tradition. Each entry begins with a basic introduction followed by a general discussion of the subject and a conclusion. Each entry also features a further readings list for readers. In addition to supplying a comprehensive authoritative overview of Islam, this work also specifically addresses many controversial related issues, including jihad, violence in Islam, polygamy, and apostasy.

Routledge Revivals: The Challenge of Islam (2005) Douglas Pratt, 2016-10-04. First published in 2005, this book addresses the challenges arising from Christian-Muslim encounter and attempts to enable outsiders to understand the religion of Islam. The author offers distinctive perspectives that complement much other literature in the study of Islam and, in particular, Christian-Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the West. The book is divided into three parts. Part I constitutes an introduction to Islam. Part II delves into aspects of the wider encounter with Islam, and Part III explores issues in regard to the prospect of engaging in dialogue with Islam. The author argues that in the post-9/11 world, the imperative to understand and engage with Islam is urgent, and intends this work to assist the reader in doing so.

Muslims - Vol 2 Andrew Rippin, 2003-09-02. Looks at modern Muslim views on religious authority, including feminism's new Islam, and shows how these views affect the perception of the Qur'an and the figure of Muhammad in the traditional practice of Islam.

The Illustrated Guide to World Religions Michael David Coogan, 1998. Graced with rich illustrations and written by a team of eminent scholars, this book presents a wealth of information on faiths around the world. Each chapter in this volume examines one of seven major world religions, from Judaism to Christianity and from Islam to Buddhism.

Fifty Years of Religious Studies in Canada Harold Coward, 2014-11-07. In Canadian universities in the early 1960s, no courses were offered on Hinduism, Buddhism, or Islam. Only the study of Christianity was available, usually in a theology program in a church college or seminary. Today, almost every university in North America has a religious studies department that offers courses on Western and Eastern religions as well as religion in general Harold Coward addresses this change in this memoir of his forty five year career in the development of religious studies as a new academic field in Canada He also addresses the shift from theology classes in seminaries to non sectarian religious studies faculties of arts and humanities the birth and growth of departments across Canada from the 1960s to the present the contribution of McMaster University to religious studies in Canada and Coward s Ph D experience there the Centre for Studies in Religion and Society at the University of Victoria and the future of religious studies as a truly interdisciplinary enterprise Coward s retrospective while not a history as such documents information from his varied experience and wide network of colleagues that is essential for a future formal history of the discipline His story is both personally engaging and richly informative about the development of the field
