the opportunities afforded by a comprehensive school building and renovation program

Nativism and Modernity

Ming-yan Lai, 2009-01-01 Nativism and Modernity is the first comparative study of xiangtu nativism in Taiwan and xungen nativism in China. It offers a new critical perspective on these two important literary and cultural movements in contemporary Chinese contexts and shows how nativism can be a vital form of place based oppositional practice under global capitalism. While nativism has often been viewed in nostalgic terms, Ming-yan Lai instead focuses on the structural implications of nativist oppositional claims and their transformations of marginality into alternative discursive spaces and practices. Through contextual analysis and close readings of key texts, Lai addresses interdisciplinary issues of modernity and critically explores the two nativist discourses, various engagements with power relations covering a multitude of social differentiations including nation, class, gender, and ethnicity.

Questioning the Secular State David Westerlund, 1996 Should the state be secular or religious? Here the author seeks to determine the extent of the role of religion in political life.

Modernity, Nation and Urban-Architectural Form Shireen Jahn Kassim, Norwina Mohd Nawawi, Mansor Ibrahim, 2018-07-20 This book explores how Malaysia as a multicultural modern nation has approached issues of nationalism and regionalism in terms of physical expression of the built environment. Ever since the nation's post-Colonial era, architects and policy makers have grappled with the theoretical and practical outcomes of creating public architecture that effectively responds to traditions, nationhood, and modernity. The authors compile and analyse prevailing ideas and strategies, present case studies in architectural language and form, and introduce the reader to tensions arising between a nationalist agenda and local regionalist architectural language. These dichotomies represent the very nature of multicultural societies and issues with identity, a challenge that various nations across the globe face in a changing environment. This topical and pertinent volume will appeal to students and scholars of urban planning, architecture, and the modern city.

Handbook on the Changing Geographies of the State Sami Moisio, Natalie Koch, Andrew E.G. Jonas, Christopher Lizotte, 2020-10-30 This authoritative Handbook presents a comprehensive analysis of the spatial transformation of the state, a pivotal process of globalization. It explores the state as an ongoing project that is always changing, illuminating the new spaces of geopolitics that arise from these political, social, cultural, and environmental negotiations.

Metrics of Modernity Sarah-Neel Smith, 2022-03-01 In this vivid portrait of the art world of 1950s Turkey, Sarah-Neel Smith offers a new framework for analyzing global modernisms of the twentieth century. Economic development after World War II: a cohort of influential Turkish modernists built a new art scene in Istanbul and Ankara. The entrepreneurial female gallerist Adalet Cimcoz, the art critic and future prime minister B. İsmet İnönü, and artists like Aliye Berger, Feyza Koral, and Bedri Rahmi Eyüboğlu were not only focused on aesthetics. On the canvas, in criticism, and in the gallery, these cultural pioneers also grappled with economic questions, attempting to transform their country from a developing nation into a major player in the global markets of the postwar period. Smith's book publishes landmark works of Turkish modernism for the first time, along with an innovative array of sources from gossip columns to economic theory to reveal the art world as a key site for the articulation of Turkish nationhood at midcentury Routledge Handbook of Political Islam Shahram Akbarzadeh, 2020-12-29 This updated second edition of the Handbook of Political Islam covers a range of political actors that use Islam to advance their cause While they share the ultimate vision of establishing a political system governed by Islam their tactics and methods can be very different Capturing this diversity this volume also sheds light on some of the less known experiences from South East Asia to North Africa Drawing on expertise from some of the top scholars in the world the chapters examine the main issues surrounding political Islam across the world including Theoretical foundations of political Islam Historical background Geographical spread of Islamist movements Political strategies adopted by Islamist groups Terrorism Attitudes towards democracy Relations between Muslims and the West in the international sphere Challenges of integration Gender relations Capturing the geographical spread of Islamism and the many manifestations of this political phenomenon make this book a key resource for students and researchers interested in political Islam Muslim affairs and the Middle East Nation Work Timothy Brook, André Schmid, 2010-08-04 As increasing attention is drawn to globalization questions arise about the fate of the nation a political and social unit that for centuries has seemed the common sense way to organize the world In Nation Work Timothy Brook and Andr Schmid draw together eight essays that use historical examples from Asian countries China India Korea and Japan to enrich our understandings of the origin and growth of nations Asia provides fertile ground for this inquiry the volume argues because in Asia the history of the modern nation has been inseparable from global influences in the form of Western imperialism Yet while the impetus for building a modern national identity may have come from the need to fashion a favorable place in a world system dominated by Western nations those engaged in nationalist enterprises found their particular voices more often in relation to tensions within Asia than in relation to more generic tensions between Asia and the West With topics ranging from public health measures in nineteenth century Japan through textual scholarship of Tamil intellectuals the willful division of Korea s history from China s the development of China s cotton industry and the meaning of postnational ism for Chinese artists the essays reveal the fascinating array of sites at which nation work can take place This will be essential reading for historians and social scientists interested in Asia Timothy Brook is Professor of History Stanford University Andr Schmid is Assistant Professor of East Asian Studies University of Toronto The Amusement Park Jason Wood, 2017-01-20 Jason Wood is Director of Heritage Consultancy Services Lancaster UK and former Professor of Cultural Heritage at Leeds Metropolitan University UK Nation-Building and Turkish Modernization Rasim Özgür Dönmez, Ali Yaman, 2019-04-15 This book evaluates the Turkish nation building process from the Ottoman Empire to today considering the role of Islam in this process It gives insight into what has changed and not changed in this process The book explains to readers that the Islamisation of the country is not a coincidence Rather Islamism has been grown symbiotically with the secular Republican regime through the organizational power of Islamic sects and with the assistance of the West

How we live as a nation today is not a revolution of Islamists as some scholars have remarked Rather it is a continuation of the Turkish nation building process with further Islamisation
