Modernism At Mid Century The Architecture Of The United States Air Force Academy:

Modernism at Mid-Century Robert Bruegmann, 1995-02-15 One of the country's largest and most important postwar architectural projects the United States Air Force Academy opened in 1958 With its spectacular natural setting and stunning Modernist design the Academy was quickly hailed as a national landmark and attracts over a million visitors each year The contributors to this volume Jory Johnson Robert Nauman Sheri Olson James Russell and Kristen Schaffer and editor Robert Bruegmann chronicle the complex history of the planning design and construction of the Air Force Academy As the most conspicuous commission of the American military at the height of the Cold War the design of the Academy generated intense popular interest and was a lightning rod for conflicting values in postwar society The design by architects Skidmore Owings Merrill has been hailed as the final triumph of the International Style and as a monument to military bureaucracy The

United States Air Force Academy, 1996 On the Wings of Modernism Robert Allen Nauman, 2004 Nauman argues that contrary to the technological and teleological interpretations presented by the polemicists of international style modernism the academy's actual production was squarely grounded in bureaucratic and political processes He demonstrates that selection of both the site and the design firm was the result of political maneuverings involving the U S military leadership

David Samson, 2016-03-09 The phase of American architectural history we call mid century modernism 1940 1980 saw the spread of Modern Movement tenets of functionalism social service and anonymity into mainstream practice It also saw the spread of their seeming opposites Temples arcades domes and other traditional types occur in both modernist and traditionalist forms from the 1950s to the 1970s Hut Pavilion Shrine examines this crossroads of modernism and the archetypal and critiques its buildings and theory The book centers on one particularly important and omnipresent type the pavilion a type which was the basis of major work by Louis I Kahn Paul Rudolph Philip Johnson Minoru Yamasaki and other eminent architects While focusing primarily on the architecture culture of the United States it also includes the work of British European Team X and Scandinavian designers and writers Making connections between formal analysis historical context and theory the book continues lines of inquiry which have been pursued by Neil Levine and Anthony Vidler on representation and by Sarah Goldhagen and Alice Friedman on modernism's forbidden elements of the honorific and the visually pleasurable It highlights the significance of pavilionizing mid century designers such as Victor Lundy John Johansen Eero Saarinen and Edward Durell Stone and shows how frequently essentialist and traditionalist types appeared in the roadside vernacular of drive in restaurants gas stations furniture and car showrooms branch banks and motels The book ties together the threads in mid century architectural theory that addressed aspects of type essential structure and primal humanistic aspects of environment making and discusses how these concerns outlived the mid century moment and in the designs and writings of Aldo Rossi and others they paved the way for Post Modernism A Colorado History, 10th
