Modernization Democracy And Islam:

Modernization, Democracy, and Islam Shireen T. Hunter, Huma Malick, 2005-01-30 The Islamic world has a poor record in terms of modernization and democracy However the source of this situation is not religion but factors including colonialism international economic and trading systems and the role of the military among others Recognizing these themes allows the consideration of possible remedies for change in the Muslim world The Islamic world has a poor record in terms of modernization and democracy However the source of this situation is not religion Islam but rather factors including colonialism international economic and trading systems and the role of the military among others Recognizing these themes allows the consideration of possible remedies for change in the Muslim world The distinguished scholars contributing to this volume identify key factors some intrinsic to the Muslim world and some external that contribute to Islam's current predicament Contrary to much prevailing thought and opinion Islam is neither monolithic nor impervious to change It is neither anti democratic nor inherently anti modernization Islam itself as this book shows is not the root cause of the malaise of the Islamic world The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Politics John L. Esposito, Emad El-Din Shahin, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Politics with contributions from prominent scholars and specialists provides a comprehensive analysis of what we know and where we are in the study of political Islam The Ashgate Research Companion to Islamic Law Peri Bearman, 2016-03-16 This unparalleled Companion provides a comprehensive and authoritative guide to Islamic law to all with an interest in this increasingly relevant and developing field The volume presents classical Islamic law through a historiographical introduction to and analysis of Western scholarship while key debates about hot button issues in modern day circumstances are also addressed In twenty one chapters distinguished authors offer an overview of their particular specialty reflect on past and current thinking and point to directions for future research The Companion is divided into four parts The first offers an introduction to the history of Islamic law as well as a discussion of how Western scholarship and historiography have evolved over time The second part delves into the substance of Islamic law Legal rules for the areas of legal status family law socio economic justice penal law constitutional authority and the law of war are all discussed in this section Part three examines the adaptation of Islamic law in light of colonialism and the modern nation state as well as the subsequent re Islamization of national legal systems The final section presents contemporary debates on the role of Islamic law in areas such as finance the diaspora modern governance and medical ethics and the volume concludes by questioning the role of Sharia law as a legal authority in the modern context By outlining the history of Islamic law through a linear study of research this collection is unique in its examination of past and present scholarship and the lessons we can draw from this for the future It introduces scholars and students to the challenges posed in the past to the magnitude of milestones that were achieved in the reinterpretation and revision of established ideas and ultimately to a thorough conceptual understanding of Islamic law The Muslim World in the 21st Century Samiul Hasan, 2012-01-15 Islam is not only a religion but also a culture tradition and civilization There are currently 1.5 billion people in the world who identify themselves as Muslim Two thirds of the worldwide Muslim population i.e. approximately a billion people live in forty eight Muslim majority countries MMC in the world all of which except one are in Africa and Asia Of these MMCs in Africa and Asia only twelve inhabited by about 165 million people have ever achieved a high score on the Human Development Index HDI the index that measures life expectancy at birth education and standard of living and ranks how developed a country is This means that the majority of the world's Muslim population lives in poverty with low or medium level of human development The contributions to this innovative volume attempt to determine why this is They explore the influence of environment space and power on human development The result is a complex interdisciplinary study of all MMCs in Africa and Asia It offers new insights into the current state of the Muslim World and provides a theoretical framework for studying human development from an interdisciplinary social cultural economic environmental political and religious perspective which will be applicable to regional and cultural studies of space and power in other regions of the world

The Decline of Nation-States after the Arab Spring Imad Salamey, 2016-10-14 Surveying the causes of the Arab Spring and revealing the governing trends arising from it this book examines various international relation theories through the lens of the experiences of the countries in the Middle East and North Africa region It takes the events of the Arab Spring as an outcome of globalization's double movement whose integrative cultural political and security frameworks devastated nationally controlled economies undermining the nation state system and propagating a decentralized and communitarian based governance structure The consequences for many plural diverse societies were two fold autocratic nationalism was discarded while decentralized regimes representing communitarian based politics came to the fore The author reveals how the formulation of a new communitocratic order rests on the accommodation of this newly emerging communitarianism and explores the major drivers of political transformation describing the emerging communities forecasting their governing options and the possible repercussions for the post Arab Spring states

Nationalism and Intra-State Conflicts in the Postcolonial World Fonkem Achankeng, 2015-09-28 This book highlights the complexities of nationalism and the struggles of different groups left unaddressed within the nation states of a postcolonial world The central question is what happened to the worldly and radical visions of freedom liberty and equality that animated intellectual activists and policy makers from Woodrow Wilson in the 1920s This book analyzes the outcome of lumping disparate groups of people together under one nation state and holding them together against the knowledge of the incompatibility theory of plural states In a world of arbitrarily and colonially mapped sovereign states groups and nations with distinctive histories and cultures trapped within the borders of sovereign states want the freedom to decide their own destinies This book challenges deconstructs and decolonizes Western epistemologies related to postcolonial state formation and maintenance In examining the freedom concept that no human group ought to be determining the independence of other human groups this book constructs an alternative conceptualization of nations and peoples rights in the twenty first century in which radical hopes and global dreams are recognized as central to internal nationalism struggles

Hunter,2014-09-17 Iranian politics has been marked by sharp ideological divisions and infighting These divides kept largely out of public view until the 1990s came to greater light with the contested 2009 presidential elections To explain the diverse and complex forces that led to this event and that animate Iran's current fractured society and polity author Shireen T Hunter looks beyond the battle between the forces of reform and reaction democracy and dictatorship and considers the historic forces that created the conditions faced by Iran since the revolution Iran Divided: The Historic Roots of Iranian Debates on Identity, Culture, and Governance in the 21st Century explains historical and political factors and their relevance to Iran today shedding light on the forces behind Iranian politics and society This book discusses historical roots of Iran's current divisions and debates Iran versus Islam secularism versus religion constitutionalism versus Islamic government fundamental issues of identity culture and governance aging of the revolutionary coalition development of new elites experiences of the Islamic republic and new international conditions moving the country beyond old divides and ideological rifts toward a new national consensus A comprehensive survey the book will be an indispensable tool to any student seeking to understand the Islamic Republic of Iran and its standing in the world today Arab Liberal Thought

after 1967 Meir Hatina, Christoph Schumann, 2016-04-29 This volume aims at confronting the image of the Middle East as a region that is fraught with totalitarian ideologies authoritarianism and conflict It gives voice and space to other more liberal and adaptive narratives and discourses that endorse the right to dissent question the status quo and offer alternative visions for society The Third Wave Samuel P. Huntington, 1993-01-01 Between 1974 and 1990 more than thirty countries in southern Europe Latin America East Asia and Eastern Europe shifted from authoritarian to democratic systems of government This global democratic revolution is probably the most important political trend in the late twentieth century In The Third Wave Samuel P Huntington analyzes the causes and nature of these democratic transitions evaluates the prospects for stability of the new democracies and explores the possibility of more countries becoming democratic The recent transitions he argues are the third major wave of democratization in the modern world Each of the two previous waves was followed by a reverse wave in which some countries shifted back to authoritarian government Using concrete examples empirical evidence and insightful analysis Huntington provides neither a theory nor a history of the third wave but an explanation of why and how it occurred Factors responsible for the democratic trend include the legitimacy dilemmas of authoritarian regimes economic and social development the changed role of the Catholic Church the impact of the United States the European Community and the Soviet Union and the snowballing phenomenon change in one country stimulating change in others Five key elite groups within and outside the nondemocratic regime played roles in shaping the various ways democratization occurred Compromise was key to all democratizations and elections and nonviolent tactics also were central New democracies must deal with the torturer problem and the praetorian problem and attempt to develop democratic values and processes Disillusionment with democracy Huntington argues is necessary to consolidating democracy He concludes the book with an analysis of the political economic and cultural factors that will decide whether or not the third wave continues

Several Guidelines for Democratizers offer specific practical suggestions for initiating and carrying out reform Huntington's emphasis on practical application makes this book a valuable tool for anyone engaged in the democratization process At this volatile time in history Huntington's assessment of the processes of democratization is indispensable to understanding the future of democracy in the world

Islam and Human Rights Kirk W. Larsen T. Hunter, Huma Malik, 2015-05-26 In the last few years issues related to human rights including encouraging the democratization of Muslim societies from the Middle East to Southeast Asia have acquired great importance in shaping the character of U S Muslim relations and U S policy toward Muslim countries An important impetus behind this development were the tragic events of 9 11 which demonstrated the destructive potential of militant groups that use a distorted interpretation of Islam as justification for their actions These events also led to a greater realization by the United States and the West that a lack of democracy and lack of respect for human rights have been contributory factors to the rise of militant Islam Consequently in its approach toward the Muslim world the United States has emphasized the themes of human rights and democracy Within the Islamic world too both secular and moderate Islamists have begun focusing on issues related to human rights Although many conservative Muslims believe that Islam is incompatible with Western notions of democracy and human rights reformist Muslim thinkers and activists maintain that a proper reading of Islamic injunctions and the ethical values underpinning those injunctions shows there is no such incompatibility Complicating the debate is the fact that many Muslims secular as well as conservative and reformist doubt the seriousness of the U S commitment to the cause of human rights and democracy in the Muslim world believing that the United States applies human rights standards selectively to suit its strategic and economic interests Irrespective of the validity of these charges they are part of the context of the U S Muslim dialogue on human rights And it is this complex dialogue that this volume seeks to advance

The Political Economy of Iran Farhad Gohardani, Zahra Tizro, 2019-03-07 This study entails a theoretical reading of the Iranian modern history and follows an interdisciplinary agenda at the intersection of philosophy psychoanalysis economics and politics and intends to offer a novel framework for the analysis of socio economic development in Iran in the modern era A brief review of Iranian modern history from the Constitutional Revolution to the Oil Nationalization Movement the 1979 Islamic Revolution and the recent Reformist and Green Movements demonstrates that Iranian people travelled full circle This historical experience of socio economic development revolving around the bitter question of Why are we backward and its manifestation in perpetual socio political instability and violence is the subject matter of this study Michel Foucault's conceived relation between the production of truth and production of wealth captures the essence of hypothesis offered in this study Foucault 1980 93 94 maintains that In the last analysis we must produce truth as we must produce wealth indeed we must produce truth in order to produce wealth in the first place Based on a hybrid methodology combining hermeneutics of understanding and hermeneutics of suspicion this monograph proposes that the failure to produce wealth has had particular roots in the failure in the production of truth and trust At the heart of the proposed theoretical model is the following formula the Iranian subject's confused preference structure culminates in the formation of unstable coalitions which in turn leads to institutional failure creating a chaotic social order and a turbulent history as experienced by the Iranian nation in the modern era As such the society oscillates between the chaotic states of socio political anarchy emanating from irreconcilable differences between and within social assemblages and their affiliated hybrid forms of regimes of truth in the springs of freedom and repressive states of order in the winters of discontent Each time after the experience of chaos the order is restored based on the emergence of a final arbiter Iranian leviathan as the evolved coping strategy for achieving conflict resolution This highly volatile truth cycle produces the experience of socio economic backwardness and violence The explanatory power of the theoretical framework offered in the study exploring the relation between the production of truth trust and wealth is demonstrated via providing historical examples from strong events of Iranian modern history The significant policy implications of the model are explored This monograph will appeal to researchers scholars graduate students policy makers and anyone interested in the Middle Eastern politics Iran development studies and political economy
