Modernizing China's Military Progress:

Modernizing China's Military David Shambaugh, 2002 Annotation The most thorough overview of the Chinese defense programs and Sino American military relations by a leading authority Modernizing China's Military, 2019

Modernizing China's Military David Shambaugh, 2003-03-25 David Shambaugh a leading international authority on Chinese strategic and military affairs offers the most comprehensive and insightful assessment to date of the Chinese military The result of a decade s research Modernizing China's Military comes at a crucial moment in history one when international attention is increasingly focused on the rise of Chinese military power Basing his analysis on an unprecedented use of Chinese military publications and interviews with People s Liberation Army PLA officers Shambaugh addresses important questions about Chinese strategic intentions and military capabilities questions that are of key concern for government policymakers as well as strategic analysts and a concerned public China's Military Modernization, Japan's

Normalization and the South China Sea Territorial Disputes Zenel Garcia, 2019-03-21 This book assesses the Sino Japanese strategic competition in the context of the South China Sea SCS territorial disputes The South China Sea territorial disputes are quickly becoming the most significant security problem in East and Southeast Asia Two major powers China and Japan have interests in the region and are pursuing different strategies that can significantly impact the outcome of the disputes Utilizing Securitization Theory this study evaluates the Sino Japanese strategic competition through political narratives that galvanize the military and economic policies that are transforming the region It highlights how these narratives so closely bounded to the political legitimacy of current governments and supported by provocative policies have resulted in a co constitutive pattern of enmity and securitization thus making it increasingly difficult to resolve the disputes

Military Modernization in an Era of Uncertainty National Bureau of Asian Research (U.S.), 2005 Focuses on the defense capabilities of key Asian powers in the context of their grand strategies Through a combination of country regional and topical studies the book assesses how Asian states are modernizing their military programs in response to China s rise as a regional power the war on terrorism changes in U S force posture the revolution in military affairs and local security dilemmas In addition to this central theme each chapter examines the changing balance of power in Asia and identifies likely threats and opportunities that may arise in the next five years China's Military Procurement in the Reform Era Yoram Evron, 2015-06-26 The decisions that shape the policy of weapons procurement are an important area of national security policy This is all the more true for China which during recent decades has vacillated between different sources and directions of military build up This book explores the politics of military procurement in China under the successive leaderships of Deng Xiaoping Jiang Zemin and Hu Jintao It shows how China s political and military leaders have sought to adjust military procurement policy to meet China s strategic objectives to relate it to non military needs to strike a balance between the import of weapons and indigenous production and to determine the connections between hardware and other components of military power Exploring in detail five major shifts in the nation's military procurement it traces the considerations and negotiations among China's civilian and military leaderships By doing so it offers both a conceptual framework and empirical grounds for evaluating the factors that shape China's military procurement directions as well as their limitations prospects and operational implications As the first book to study comprehensively and systematically the attributes shaping China's military procurement it will be of great interest to students and scholars of Chinese politics Chinese history and military and strategic studies

Global Security Watch—China Richard Weitz, 2013-07-10 This book presents a comprehensive overview of China's main foreign and defense policies providing students policy makers and general readers with an up to date assessment of this most important country Global Security Watch China presents a comprehensive overview of the main foreign and defense policies of the People's Republic of China emphasizing the political military developments in the modern era since the 1989 Tiananmen Square incident It provides a historical overview in the first chapter followed by information on the domestic factors that affect Chinese national security such as economics society and politics China's external objectives its global energy strategy and its defense policies and security objectives Drawing upon a wide variety of domestic and foreign primary sources the work details China's policies and its relationships with the United States Europe the Middle East Latin America Asia and Eurasia It includes biographical sketches of select individuals of importance to modern Chinese history such as Mao Zedong and Deng Xiaoping Appropriate for audiences ranging from university students to policy makers to general readers this book is an excellent resource for academic libraries and suitable as a textbook for courses on contemporary Chinese politics and international relations

Interpreting China's Military Power Ka Po Ng, 2005-08-09 Although inter state tensions have generally been easing after the Cold War military power remains a dominant factor in Asian regional politics As China operating the world's largest army grows stronger there are ongoing debates over the implications for Asia's regional security This book argues that it is imperative to look beyond the empirical observations and conventional materialist reading of Chinese military development to understand its dynamics and directions in doctrinal terms and put it in a readiness context for evaluation Military doctrine has long been under studied and is often treated as a subject separate from force development But as this study contends this factor is necessary for interpreting the making and purposes of China's military power because it forms the intellectual foundation of military structural and hardware development When loaded with political rhetoric it also communicates to us the intended uses of the military power The role of doctrine is reinforced in the context of military readiness which defines what for and how the army is getting ready Force development is evaluated in structural operational and directional terms The importance of this analytical framework based on military doctrine and readiness is demonstrated in a survey of the evolution of Chinese military doctrine and force development As the Chinese People's Liberation Army has continued to adjust its military structure and operation to follow the doctrinal lead its switches between the doctrines of local war and total war have seen corresponding changes to the emphasis between operational and structural readiness

China's Military

Modernization Gerard J. Labadie,1998 In aggregate terms China's military modernization program appears vast relentless and threatening However analysis of the program component parts viewed in context with phenomena buffeting the Chinese political economy yields a far different perspective At this juncture the threat is overstated Despite achieving select pockets of excellence the Peoples Liberation Army PLA cannot achieve world class military power status before the year 2020 Meanwhile time is available for the United States to engage China and shape her role in the Asian security environment At the theater strategic level the United States Pacific Command USPACOM has the critical role in developing military to military contacts necessary for creation and sustainment of transparency measures essential for regional stability and security 1997 was a pivotal year for Sino American relations with the signing of the Military Maritime Safety Agreement The challenge now is to expand this framework and ensure Chinese reciprocity Recommended future actions included 1 creating a cadre of US military China experts to carry the program into the next century 2 expanding the scope of military to military contacts down to the junior officer level 3 exploring opportunities for joint training exercises and humanitarian operations

Two Thousand and Seven Report to Congress of the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission,2007 China Goes Global David Shambaugh,2013-03-07 Eminent China scholar David Shambaugh's China Goes Global is the sweeping synthesis of that nation's growing prominence on the world stage that we have been waiting for Thirty years ago China's role in global affairs beyond its immediate East Asian periphery was decidedly minor Its military was extremely weak and it had little geostrategic power As Shambaugh charts though China's expanding economic power has allowed it extend its reach and influence virtually everywhere After establishing the main precondition the astounding growth of the Chinese economy Shambaugh turns his focus to the manifestations of China's global ambitions its growing military power characterized best by its current pursuit of a blue water navy its increasing cultural influence i e soft power and its new prominence in global governance institutions like the G 20 He is no alarmist however Rather he will draw on his extremely deep knowledge of the subject to offer a balanced and well reasoned account of where China is now and where he thinks it is headed Sea Power and the Asia-Pacific Geoffrey Till,Patrick

Bratton,2012-02-07 This volume examines the rise and fall of sea powers in the Asia Pacific region

when it comes to analysis of the military and political dimensions of the Taiwan issue This is one challenge that U S policymakers and military strategists cannot afford to get wrong and scholars cannot afford to ignore Michael Green former

Senior Director for Asian Affairs National Security Council The Showdown to Come In 1995 during a heated discussion about that year's Taiwan crisis a Chinese general remarked to a U S diplomat In the end you care more about Los Angeles than you do about Taipei In a single sentence he both questioned the level of America's commitment to a longtime ally and threatened massive perhaps nuclear retaliation should the United States intervene militarily on Taiwan's behalf In the end President Clinton sent two aircraft carriers to the region and China ceased its military exercises in the Taiwan Strait A decade later however China is much stronger both economically and militarily and it holds a significant amount of America's national debt If another Taiwan crisis should occur as it almost certainly will would China back down In A War Like No Other you'll discover how little it would take to transform the close cooperation and friendly rivalry between the United States and the People's Republic of China into the first ever shooting war between two nuclear powers This chilling look into one possible future offers thoughtful advice to both governments on how to reduce the chances of such a nightmare actually occurring Two Brookings Institution scholars offer specific prescriptions on how the two nations can improve communications especially in times of crisis avoid risky behavior even when provoked and above all remember which buttons not to push

The US-China Military and Defense Relationship during the Obama Presidency James Johnson, 2018-04-28 This book offers a timely and compelling explanation for the deterioration of U S China security relations during the Obama Presidency The U S China relationship has become one of if not the most vital features of contemporary world politics and with arrival the Donald Trump to the White House in 2017 this vital geopolitical relationship sits at a precarious and dangerous crossroads This book assesses a wide array of sources to systematically unpack the policy rhythms drivers and dynamics that defined the course of Sino American security relations during the Obama era It fills several gaps in the literature on international security and conflict and offers a nuanced and innovative comparative approach to examine individual military domains The case study chapters draw on recent Chinese and English sources on military doctrine capabilities and defense strategy to build a clear understanding the main sources of U S China misperceptions and highlight the problems these assessments can create for the conduct of statecraft across strategically competitive geopolitical dyads The book builds a sobering picture of U S China relations that will appeal to specialists and generalists alike with an interest in future warfare emerging military technologies military studies arms control and foreign policy issues in the Asia Pacific region more broadly PLA Influence on China's National Security Policymaking Phillip C. Saunders, Andrew

Scobell, 2015-09-09 In recent years there have been reports of actions purportedly taken by People's Liberation Army PLA units without civilian authorization and of Chinese Communist Party CCP civilian leaders seeking to curry favor with the military suggesting that a nationalistic and increasingly influential PLA is driving more assertive Chinese policies on a range of military and sovereignty issues To many experienced PLA watchers however the PLA remains a party army that is responsive to orders from the CCP PLA Influence on China's National Security Policymaking seeks to assess the real relationship between the PLA and its civilian masters by moving beyond media and pundit speculation to mount an in depth examination and explanation of the PLA s role in national security policymaking After examining the structural factors that shape PLA interactions with the Party State the book uses case studies to explore the PLA s role in foreign policy crises It then assesses the PLA s role in China s territorial disputes and in military interactions with civilian government and business exploring the military s role in China s civil military integration development strategy The evidence reveals that today s PLA does appear to have more influence on purely military issues than in the past but much less influence on political issues and to be more actively engaged in policy debates on mixed civil military issues where military equities are at stake

Handbook of Military Administration Jeffrey A. Weber, Johan Eliasson, 2007-12-07 While policy makers are perpetually conceptualizing new reform packages the actual enactment of those reforms is typically more challenging Remarkably the one public institution that is able to meet that challenge is also the largest The United States Department of Defense which employs over 600 000 people and deals with 500 billion in fundin Shaping China's Security Environment Andrew Scobell, Larry M. Wortzel, 2006 The contributions contained herein address the role of the Chinese military in shaping its country s security environment Of course the PLA itself is shaped and molded by both domestic and foreign influences In the first decade of the 21st century the PLA is not a central actor in China s foreign policy the way it was just a few decades ago Nevertheless the significance of the PLA must be understood The military remains a player that seeks to play a role and influence China s policy towards such countries and regions as the United States Japan the Koreas Southeast Asia South Asia and of course Taiwan It is important not to overlook that in times of crisis or conflict the role and influence of the PLA rise significantly China at the Beginning of the 21st Century Łukasz Gacek, Ewa Trojnar , 2014 China at the beginning of the 21st century intrigues many researchers around the world The problems discussed within this volume provide the readers with a background of most vital issues in modern China They are related to the challenges of the Chinese society and state s international skirmishes which is depicted by the book s division into two separate parts While the first part provides the insight into social change creating tremendous opportunities and no less significant threats for the country s future development the second part looks further and beyond borders to focus our attention on security issues
