Translating Modernism Ronald Berman,2010-09-23 In Translating Modernism Ronald Berman continues his career long study of the ways that intellectual and philosophical ideas informed and transformed the work of America's major modernist writers. Here Berman shows how Fitzgerald and Hemingway wrestled with very specific intellectual artistic and psychological influences influences particular to each writer particular to the time in which they wrote and which left distinctive marks on their entire oeuvres Specifically Berman addresses the idea of translating or translation for Fitzgerald the translation of ideas from Freud Dewey and James among others and for Hemingway the translation of visual modernism and composition via C zanne Though each writer had distinct interests and different intellectual problems to wrestle with as Berman demonstrates both had to wrestle with transmuting some outside influence and making it their own Translation and Objects Ma Carmen África Vidal Claramonte, 2024-08-06 Translation and Objects offers a new and original perspective in Translation Studies originating from the conviction that in today s world translation is pervasive Building on the ideas of scholars who have expanded the boundaries of the discipline this book focuses on the analysis of objects that migrants carry with them on their journey of migration The ideas of displacement and constant movement are key throughout these pages Migrants live translation literally because displacement is a leitmotif for them Translation and Objects analyzes migrant objects such as shoes stones or photographs as translation sites that function as expressions as well as sources of emotions

These displaced emotional objects laden with meanings and sentiments tell many stories saying a great deal about their owners who almost never have a voice This book shows how meaning is displaced through the materiality texture smells sensations and forms of moving objects Including examples of translations that have been created from a no nlinguistic perspective and exploring linguistic issues whilst connecting them to other fields such as anthropology and sociology Vidal sets out a broad vision of translation This is critical reading for translation theory courses within Translation Studies comparative literature and cultural studies With the exception of Chapter 3 no part of this book may be reprinted or reproduced or utilised in any form or by any electronic mechanical or other means now known or hereafter invented including photocopying and recording or in any information storage or retrieval system without permission in writing from the publishers Other Things Bill Brown, 2016-01-08 From the pencil to the puppet to the drone the humanities and the social sciences continue to ride a wave of interest in material culture and the world of things How should we understand the force and figure of that wave as it shapes different disciplines Other Things explores this question by considering a wide assortment of objects from beach glass to cell phones sneakers to skyscrapers that have fascinated a range of writers and artists including Virginia Woolf Man Ray Spike Lee and Don DeLillo The book ranges across the literary visual and plastic arts to depict the curious lives of things Beginning with Achilles's Shield then tracking the object thing distinction as it appears in the work of Martin Heidegger and Jacques Lacan Bill Brown ultimately focuses on the thingness disclosed by specific literary and artistic works Combining history and literature criticism and theory Other Things provides a new way of understanding the inanimate object world and the place of the human within it encouraging us to think anew about what we mean by materiality itself A Companion to 20th-Century America Stephen J. Whitfield, 2008-04-15 A Companion to 20th Century America is an authoritative survey of the most important topics and themes of twentieth century American history and historiography Contains 29 original essays by leading scholars each assessing the past and current state of American scholarship Includes thematic essays covering topics such as religion ethnicity conservatism foreign policy and the media as well as essays covering major time periods Identifies and discusses the most influential literature in the field and suggests new avenues of research as the century has drawn to a close Rural Artists' Colonies in Europe, 1870-1910 Nina Lübbren, 2001 This ground breaking book presents a critical study of pictorial narrative in nineteenth century European painting Covering works from France Germany Britain Italy and elsewhere it traces the ways in which immensely popular artists like Jean L on G r me Karl von Piloty and William Quiller Orchardson used unique visual strategies to tell thrilling and engaging stories Regardless of genre content or national context these paintings share a fundamental modern narrative mode Unlike traditional art they do not rely on textual sources nor do they tell stories through the human body alone Instead they experiment with objects spaces cause and effect relations and open ended ambiguity prompting viewers and reviewers to read for clues in order to weave their own elaborate tales Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern

French Landscape Magdalena Dabrowski, Museum of Modern Art (New York, Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 2000 N.Y.), 1999 Published on the occasion of the exhibition of the same name held at the Museum of Modern Art New York October 27 1999 March 14 2000 French landscape is a part of larger exchbition ModernStarts which is in turn part of a cycle A Gust of Photo-Philia Alexandra Moschovi, 2020-12-15 The first transnational of exchibitions entitled MoMa 2000 history of photography's accommodation in the art museum Photography was long regarded as a middle brow art by the art institution Yet at the turn of the millennium it became the hot global art of our time In this book part institutional history part account of shifting photographic theories and practices Alexandra Moschovi tells the story of photography s accommodation in and as contemporary art in the art museum Archival research of key exhibitions and the contrasting collecting policies of MoMA Tate the Guggenheim the V A and the Centre Pompidou offer new insights into how art as photography and photography as art have been collected and exhibited since the 1930s Moschovi argues that this accommodation not only changed photography's status in art culture and society but also played a significant role in the rebranding of the art museum as a cultural and social site The Art Museum from Boullée to Bilbao Andrew McClellan, 2008-01-02 Art museums cases of beauty and calm in a fast paced world have emerged in recent decades as the most vibrant and popular of all cultural institutions But as they have become more popular their direction and values have been contested as never before This engaging thematic history of the art museum from its inception in the eighteenth century to the present offers an essential framework for understanding contemporary debates as they have evolved in Europe and the United States The Promotion of Knowledge John Stephen Morrill, John Morrill, 2004-07-15 This is an intriguing collection of reflections on the stability and instability of the ways in which we organize knowledge and on how far the academic community can and should be involved in the shaping of public policy To mark its centenary in 2002 the British Academy the national academy for the humanities and social sciences organized a programme of lectures on the current state of various disciplines and their future prospects The authors of the eight essays and four commentaries are drawn from Britain Europe and the United States

"Patricia Johanson and the Re-Invention of Public Environmental Art, 1958?010" Xin Wu,2017-07-05 Impeccably researched and richly detailed this book addresses the issue of translation between visual arts and landscape design in the 50 more years career of Patricia Johanson an important artist in the second half of the twentieth century Examining the artist s search for an art of the real as a member of the post World War II New York art world and how such pursuit has led her from painting and sculpture to public garden and environmental art Xin Wu argues for the significance of the process of art creation challenging the centrality of art objects This book is an insightful study to confront a crucial question in the history of art through the work of a contemporary artist It therefore converses with art historians and critics alike as well as advanced readers of twentieth century art Following Johanson s artistic development from its formation in the 1960s American art scene to the very present day across the fields of art architecture garden civil engineering and environmental aesthetics it investigates the process of creation in a transdisciplinary perspective and reveals a view of art as a domain of exploration of key issues for the contemporary world The artist s concept of nature is highlighted and particular impacts of Chinese aesthetics and thought unveiled Based on extensive analysis of unpublished private archives Xin Wu offers us the first ever comprehensive scholarly interpretation of Patricia Johanson s oeuvre including drawings paintings sculptures installations garden proposals and built and unbuilt projects in the United States Brazil Kenya and Korea Avant-Garde, Internationalism, and Politics Andrea Giunta, 2007-07-16 DIVAn exploration of the impact of the 1960s and the U S post cold war moment on the reception of Latin American art and artists div
