Hubbard, Amedeo Modigliani, 1989 The Circle of Montparnasse Kenneth E. Silver, Romy Golan, 1985 Becoming Modigliani Henri Colt, 2024-05-23 An insightful myth busting biography of early 20th century Italian painter and sculptor Amedeo Modigliani seen through the lenses of the artist's tuberculosis and other ailments Becoming Modigliani is a comprehensive biography that delves into the troubled life of the Jewish Italian artist Amedeo Modigliani Written by Dr Henri Colt an internationally recognized lung specialist the book examines the artist's legend and Modigliani's creative journey from a medical perspective from his birth in Livorno Italy to his tragic death in a paupers hospital in Paris at the age of thirty five presumably from tuberculous meningitis Becoming Modigliani sheds light on the young man's chronic illnesses addictions and relationships with friends and lovers as he navigated the vibrant yet challenging world of early twentieth century Bohemian Paris Beginning with Modi's birth in 1884 the narrative is divided into five parts seamlessly blending biographical elements with medical insights and a critical analysis of Modigliani's work among some of the greatest artists of the time. It also provides thoughtful descriptions of a changing society governed by the impact of infectious diseases, war, and a flourishing of other creative geniuses such as Picasso, Jean Cocteau, and Guillaume Apollinaire. With thirty-seven virtually standalone chapters, a preface, and epilogue, three appendices, and a rich array of illustrations and references, this biography promises a profound and compassionate exploration of Modigliani's embattled world. In Becoming Modigliani, Dr. Colt's aim is to foster empathy and greater understanding by unraveling the intricate layers of Modigliani's existence. The result is a captivating and deeply researched tale that will resonate with a diverse audience of serious readers, art and medical history enthusiasts, sociologists, and anyone interested in the human spirit.

Modernist Diaspora Richard D. Sonn, 2022-02-10

In the years before, during, and after the First World War, hundreds of young Jews flocked to Paris, artistic capital of the world and center of modernist experimentation. Some arrived with prior training from art academies in Kraków, Vilna, and Vitebsk; others came armed only with hope and a few memorized phrases in French. They had little Jewish tradition in painting and sculpture to draw on, yet despite these obstacles, these young Jews produced the greatest efflorescence of art in the long history of the Jewish people. The paintings of Marc Chagall, Amedeo Modigliani, Chaim Soutine, Sonia Delaunay, Marc Chagall, and Emmanuel Mané Katz; the sculptures of Jacques Lipchitz, Ossip Zadkine, Chana Orloff; and works by many other artists now grace the world's museums. As the Le Corbusier of Paris was the most cosmopolitan artistic movement the world had seen, the left bank neighborhood of Montparnasse became a meeting place for diverse cultures. How did the tolerant bohemian atmosphere of Montparnasse encourage an international style of art in an era of bellicose nationalism, not to mention racism and antisemitism? How did immigrants not only absorb but profoundly influence a culture? This book examines how the clash of cultures produced genius.

Modern Art and the Idea of the Mediterranean Wojciech Jirát-Wasiutyński, Anne Elizabeth Dymond, Wojciech Jirát-Wasiutyński, 2007-01-01

The Mediterranean is an invented cultural space on the frontier between North and South, West and East. Modern Art and the Idea of the Mediterranean examines the representation of this region in the visual arts since the late eighteenth century, placing the idea of the Mediterranean as a cultural construct rather than a physical reality at the centre of our understanding of modern visual culture. This collection of essays features an international group of scholars who examine competing visions of the Mediterranean in terms of modernity and cultural identity questioning and illuminating both European and non European representations An introductory essay frames the analysis in terms of a new spatial paradigm of the Mediterranean as a geographic historical and cultural region that emerged in the late eighteenth century as France and Britain colonized the surrounding territories Essays are grouped around three vital themes visualization of the space of the new Mediterranean varied uses of the classical paradigm and issues of identity and resistance in an age of modernity and colonialism Drawing on recent geographical historical cultural and anthropological studies contributors address the visual representation of identity in both the European and the Oriental the colonial and post colonial Mediterranean

A Day with Picasso Billy Kluver, 1999-02-18 In 1978 while collecting documentary photographs of the artists community in Montparnasse from the first decades of the century Billy Kluver discovered that some previously unassociated photographs fell into significant groupings One group in particular showing Picasso Max Jacob Mo se Kisling Modigliani and others at the Caf de la Rotonde and on Boulevard du Montparnasse all seemed to have been taken on the same day The people were wearing the same clothes in each shot and had the same accessories Their ties were knotted the same way and their collars had the same wrinkles A total of twenty four photographs four rolls of film with six photographs each were eventually found With the challenge of identifying the date photographer and circumstances Kluver embarked on an inquiry that would illuminate the minute texture of that time and place Biographical research into the subjects lives led Kluver to focus on the summer of 1916 as the likely time the photos were taken He then measured buildings and plotted angles and lengths of shadows in the photographs to narrow the time frame to a spread of three weeks Further investigation eventually allowed Kluver to identify the photographer as Jean Cocteau and to determine the day that Cocteau had taken the photographs August 12 1916 A computer printout of the sun s positions on that date obtained from the Bureau des Longitudes together with the length of the shadows enabled Kluver to calculate the time of day of each photograph and thus to put them in proper sequence In a tour de force of art historical research Kluver then reconstructed a scenario of the events of the four hours depicted in the photographs With evocative attention to detail noting when Picasso is no longer carrying an envelope or Max Jacob has acquired a decoration in his lapel Kluver recreates a single afternoon in the lives of Picasso and friends a group of remarkable people in early twentieth century Paris Besides the central portfolio of photographs by Cocteau the book contains additional photographs and drawings short biographies of all the subjects and a historical section on the events and activities in the Paris art world at the time
