Shocking Paris Stanley Meisler, 2015-04-14 For a couple of decades before World War II a group of immigrant painters and sculptors including Amedeo Modigliani Marc Chagall Chaim Soutine and Jules Pascin dominated the new art scene of Montparnasse in Paris Art critics gave them the name the School of Paris to set them apart from the French born and less talented young artists of the period Modigliani and Chagall eventually attained enormous worldwide popularity but in those earlier days most School of Paris painters looked on Soutine as their most talented contemporary Willem de Kooning proclaimed Soutine his favorite painter and Jackson Pollack hailed him as a major influence Soutine arrived in Paris while many painters were experimenting with cubism but he had no time for trends and fashions like his art Soutine was intense demonic and fierce After the defeat of France by Hitler's Germany the East European Jewish immigrants who had made their way to France for sanctuary were no longer safe In constant fear of the French police and the German Gestapo plagued by poor health and bouts of depression Soutine was the epitome of the tortured artist Rich in period detail Stanley Meisler's

Shocking Paris explores the short dramatic life of one of the most influential artists of the twentieth century Quarter Charles Douglas, Douglas Goldring, Charles Beadle, 2018-01-25 What were Montmartre and Montparnasse really like in their heyday roughly between 1904 when the youthful Picasso had just arrived on the Hill of Martyrs and 1920 when Amedeo Modigliani justly called the prince of Bohemians died of consumption and dissipation in Montparnasse This book written by an Englishman who lived in Montmartre for 30 years and knew its famous habitu s intimately gives a vivid description It reveals the truth behind the many legends is packed with authentic stories about writers and painters whose names are now household words and contains much hitherto unpublished information about the life and career of Modigliani obtained from his family and friends Much of the text was written in Montmartre amid the scenes described and after personal consultation with survivors of the great days when Fr d presided over the Lapin Agile and Libion patron of the Caf de la Rotonde was beginning to rival him in Montparnasse It is the most complete account which has yet been written in English of the birth of Cubism and other contemporary movements in modern painting and of the lives and loves that started Sculpting a Life Paula Birnbaum, 2023-02-07 The first biography of sculptor Chana Orloff and the first to include them stories from her unpublished memoir which focus on the artist s early life in Ukraine her family s move to Palestine and Orloff's life there 1905 1910 and her subsequent years between Paris and Tel Aviv Public Relations Worktext Joseph M. region in the visual arts since the late eighteenth century placing the idea of the Mediterranean a cultural construct rather than a physical reality at the centre of our understanding of modern visual culture This collection of essays features an international group of scholars who examine competing visions of the Mediterranean in terms of modernity and cultural identity questioning and illuminating both European and non European representations An introductory essay frames the analysis in terms of a new spatial paradigm of the Mediterranean as a geographic historical and cultural region that emerged in the late eighteenth century as France and Britain colonized the surrounding territories Essays are grouped around three vital themes visualization of the space of the new Mediterranean varied uses of the classical paradigm and issues of identity and resistance in an age of modernity and colonialism Drawing on recent geographical historical cultural and anthropological studies contributors address the visual representation of identity in both the European and the Oriental the colonial and post colonial Mediterranean A Day with Picasso Billy Kluver, 1999-02-18 In 1978 while collecting documentary photographs of the artists community in Montparnasse from the first decades of the century Billy Kl ver discovered that some previously unassociated photographs fell into significant groupings One group in particular showing Picasso Max Jacob Mo se Kisling Modigliani and others at the Caf de la Rotonde and on Boulevard du Montparnasse all seemed to have been taken on the same day The people were wearing the same clothes in each shot and had the same accessories Their ties were knotted the same way and their collars had the same wrinkles A total of twenty four photographs four rolls of film with six photographs each were eventually found With the challenge of identifying the date photographer and circumstances Kl ver embarked on an inquiry that would illuminate the minute texture of that time and place Biographical research into the subjects lives led Kl ver to focus on the summer of 1916 as the likely time the photos were taken He then measured buildings and plotted angles and lengths of shadows in the photographs to narrow the time frame to a spread of three weeks Further investigation eventually allowed Kl ver to identify the photographer as Jean Cocteau and to determine the day that Cocteau had taken the photographs August 12 1916 A computer printout of the sun s positions on that date obtained from the Bureau des Longitudes together with the length of the shadows enabled Klver to calculate the time of day of each photograph and thus to put them in proper sequence In a tour de force of art historical research Kl ver then reconstructed a scenario of the events of the four hours depicted in the photographs With evocative attention to detail noting when Picasso is no longer carrying an envelope or Max Jacob has acquired a decoration in his lapel Kl ver recreates a single afternoon in the lives of Picasso and friends a group of remarkable people in early twentieth century Paris Besides the central portfolio of photographs by Cocteau the book contains additional photographs and drawings short biographies of all the subjects and a historical section on the events and activities in the Paris art world at the time Atlas of Cities Paul Knox, 2022-01-11 A unique stunningly illustrated look at the origins development and future prospects of cities More than half the world's population lives in cities and that proportion is expected to rise to three quarters by 2050 Urbanization is a global phenomenon but the way cities are
