Molly Fire:

There's Something About Molly Christina Hovland, 2021-09-20 Molly Princeton hasn't met the right guy. Yes, she's a dating coach, but she's also a single mom with a rocky relationship history. She may be able to help others find love, but she doesn't really need it in her life. Happiness doesn't require falling in love. Winning a matchmaker competition, however, requires being part of a couple. And darn it, she needs to win this one. That's when she sets her sights on Gavin Frank, the one man she would absolutely never fall in love with. Gavin is her nemesis, her best friend's ex, and yeah, okay, he's sexy as sin. He's also off-limits. But she's out of other options. Plus, Gavin could use a fake relationship to keep his meddling mother from setting up blind dates with every available woman in the Mile High City. There's no way he'd fall for Molly. None. Nada. The two quickly learn there's a thin line between hate and love, and she finds herself tipping onto the wrong side. For the first time, she doesn't have all the answers. What the heck is she supposed to do next? Lucky for her, Gavin realizes there's something about Molly; he can't resist. Don't miss these other laugh-out-loud rom-coms from Christina Hovland: Rachel Out of Office, April May Fall.

Breathing Fire Jaime Lowe, 2021-07-27 A dramatic, revelatory account of the female inmate firefighters who battle California wildfires. Shawna was overcome by the claustrophobia, the heat, the smoke, the fire all just down the canyon and up the ravine. She was feeling the adrenaline, but also the terror of doing something for the first time. She knew how to run with a backpack; they had trained her physically. But that's not training for flames. That's not live fire. California's fire season gets hotter, longer, and more extreme every year. Fire season is now year-round. Of the thousands of firefighters who battle California's blazes every year, roughly 30 percent of them are on the ground, wildland crews are inmates earning a dollar an hour. Approximately 200 of those firefighters are women serving on all-female crews. In Breathing Fire, Jaime Lowe expands on her revelatory work for The New York Times Magazine. She has spent years getting to know dozens of women who have participated in the fire camp program and spoken to captains, family, and friends, correctional officers, and camp commanders. The result is a rare, illuminating look at how the fire camps actually operate, a story that encompasses California's underlying catastrophes of climate change, economic disparity, and historical injustice, but also draws on deeply personal histories, relationships, desires, frustrations, and the emotional and physical intensity of firefighting. Lowe's reporting is a groundbreaking investigation of the prison system and an intimate portrayal of the women of California's Correctional Camps who put their lives on the line while imprisoned to save a state in peril.
