Grunt Weston Ochse, 2018-09-01 Kill Bin Laden Dalton Fury, 2009-09-15 The New York Times bestselling first hand account of a Delta Force commando's hunt for the Al Qaida leader in the months after 9/11. The mission was to kill the most wanted man in the world an operation of such magnitude that it couldn't be handled by just any military or intelligence force. The best America had to offer was needed. As such the task was handed to roughly forty members of America's supersecret counterterrorist unit formally known as 1st Special Forces Operational Detachment Delta more popularly the elite and mysterious unit Delta Force. Told by senior ranking military officer Dalton Fury this is the real story of the operation the first eyewitness account of the Battle of Tora Bora and the first book to detail just how close Delta Force came to capturing bin Laden in late 2001 mere months after the September 11th attacks on the United States were carried out on his orders. In this rare look inside the shadowy world of Delta Force Fury details just how close US bombers and fighter aircraft came to killing bin Laden and exactly why he slipped through their fingers.

Grunt Hero Weston Ochse, 2017-04-25 Gates of Fire Steven Pressfield, 1999-09-01 NATIONAL BESTSELLER Steven Pressfield brings the battle of Thermopylae to brilliant life. Pat Conroy. At Thermopylae a rocky mountain pass in northern Greece the feared and admired Spartan soldiers stood three hundred strong. Theirs was a suicide mission to hold the pass against the invading millions of the mighty Persian army. Day after bloody day they withstood the terrible onslaught buying time for the Greeks to rally their forces. Born into a cult of spiritual courage physical endurance and unmatched battle skill the Spartans would be remembered for the greatest military stand in history one that would not end until the rocks were awash with blood leaving only one gravely injured Spartan squire to tell the tale.

Arms Andrew Somerset, 2015-09-15 After a fifteen year hiatus from the world of guns journalist sports shooter and former soldier A J Somerset no longer fit in with other firearm enthusiasts. Theirs was a culture much different than the one he remembered a culture more radical less tolerant and more immovable in its beliefs as if each gun had come with a free bonus ideological Family Pack of political tenets a ready made identity. To find the origins of this surprising shift Somerset began mapping the cultural history of guns and gun ownership in North America. Arms: The Culture and Credo of Gun is the brilliant result. How were firearms transformed from tools used by pioneers into symbols of modern manhood? Why did the NRA's focus shift from encouraging responsible gun use to lobbying against gun safety laws? What is the relationship between gun ownership and racism in America? How have the film television and video game industries molded our perception of gun violence? When did the fear of gun seizures arise and how has it been used to benefit arms manufacturers lobbyists and the far right? Few ideas divide communities as much as those involving firearms and fewer authors are able to tackle the subject with the same authority humor and intelligence. Written from the unique perspective of

Kershaw, 2022-10-04 The year 2022 marks 2 500 years since Athens the birthplace of democracy fought off the mighty Persian Empire This is the story of the three epic battles Marathon Thermopylae and Salamis that saved democracy forever altering the history of Europe and the West In 2022 it will be 2 500 years since the final defeat of the invasion of Greece by Xerxes the Persian king This astonishing clash between East and West still has resonances in modern history and has left us with tales of heroic resistance in the face of seemingly hopeless odds The Harvest of War makes use of recent archaeological and geological discoveries in this thrilling and timely retelling of the story originally told by Herodotus the Father of History In 499 BC when the rich sophisticated Greek communities of Ionia on the western coast of modern Turkey rebel from their Persian overlord Darius I Athens sends ships to help them Darius crushes the Greeks in a huge sea battle near Miletus and then invades Greece Standing alone against the powerful Persian army the soldiers of Athens newly democratic state a system which they have invented unexpectedly repel Darius's forces on the plains of Marathon After their victory the Athenians strike a rich vein of silver in their state owned mining district and decide to spend the windfall on building a fleet of state of the art warships Persia wants revenge The next Persian king Xerxes assembles a vast multinational force constructs a bridge of boats across the Hellespont digs a canal through the Mount Athos peninsula and bears down on Greece Trusting in their wooden walls the Athenians station their ships at Artemisium where they and the weather prevent the Persians landing forces in the rear of the land forces under the Spartan King Leonidas at the nearby pass of Thermopylae Xerxes's assault is a disastrous failure until a traitor shows him a mountain track that leads behind the Greeks Leonidas dismisses the Greek troops but remains in the pass with his 300 Spartan warriors where they are overwhelmed in an heroic last stand Athens is sacked by the Persians Democracy is hanging by a thread But the Athenians convince the Greek allies to fight on in the narrow waters by the island of Salamis Despite the heroism of the Persian female commander Artemisia the Persian fleet is destroyed The Harvest of War concludes by exploring the ideas that the decisive battles of Marathon Thermopylae and Salamis mark the beginnings of Western civilization itself and that Greece became the bulwark of the West representing the values of peace freedom and democracy in a region historically ravaged by instability and war
