The Rise of the Memoir Alex Zwerdling, 2017 The Rise of the Memoir traces the growth and extraordinarily wide appeal of the memoir Its territory is private rather than public life shame guilt and embarrassment not the achievements celebrated in the public record What accounts for the sharp need writers like Rousseau Woolf Orwell Nabokov Primo Levi and Maxine Hong Kingston felt to write and to publish such works when they might more easily have chosen to remain silent Alex Zwerdling explores why each of these writers felt compelled to write them as that story can be reconstructed from personal materials available in archival collections what internal conflicts they encountered while trying and how each of them resisted the private and public pressures to stop themselves rather than pursuing this confessional route against their own doubts without a reasonable expectation that such works would be welcome in print and eventually find an empathetic audience Reconstructing this process in which a dubious project eventually becomes a compelling product a memoir that will last illuminates both what was at stake and why this serially invented open form has reshaped the expectations of readers who welcomed a vital alternative to the official story

The Promise Leonard Shengold, 2018-05-15 Our sense of identity begins our psychological birth sometime in the first year of life with the feeling that we are the centre of the universe protected by godlike benevolent parents who will enable us to live happily ever after This is the Promise that is never given up lurking in the unconscious part of our minds We must learn reluctantly that our parents are unable to protect us from the passage of time from decline and from death Yet we retain even as adults the delusion that while others may die we never will This adds fuel to the murderous anger we are born with and must master alongside the contradictory vertical split in the mind that we are destined to die The Promise is described in patients and in examples from biography and fiction in relation to anniversaries and specific holidays The book ends with a specific illustration in relation to an eight month old infant The Cambridge Companion to Literature and Psychoanalysis Vera J. Camden,2021-12-16 The Cambridge Companion to Literature and Psychoanalysis explains the link between literature and psychoanalysis for students critics and teachers It offers a twenty first century resource for defining and analyzing the psychoanalytic dimensions of human creativity in contemporary society Essays provide critical perspectives on selected canonical authors such as William Shakespeare Jane Austen Virginia Woolf Toni Morrison and James Baldwin It also offers analysis of contemporary literature of social sexual and political turmoil as well as newer forms such as film graphic narrative and autofiction Divided into five sections each offering the reader different subject areas to explore this volume shows how psychoanalytic approaches to literature can provide valuable methods of interpretation It will be a key resource for students teachers and researchers in the field of literature and psychoanalysis as well as literary theory Mrs Dalloway Mark Hussey,2025-05-13 The first book in the Biography of a novel series offers a compelling account of Virginia Woolf s masterpiece The fourth and best known of Virginia Woolf s novels Mrs Dalloway is a modernist masterpiece that has remained popular since its publication in 1925 Its dual narratives follow a day in the life of wealthy housewife Clarissa Dalloway and shell shocked war veteran Septimus Warren Smith capturing their inner worlds with a vividness that has rarely been equalled Mrs Dalloway Biography of a novel offers new readers a lively introduction to this enduring classic while providing Woolf lovers with a wealth of information about the novel s writing publication and reception It follows Woolf s process from the first stirrings in her diary through her struggles to create what was quickly recognised as a major advance in prose fiction It then traces the novel s remarkable legacy to the present day Woolf wrote in her diary that she wanted her novel to give life death sanity insanity to criticise the social system to show it at work at its most intense Mrs Dalloway Biography of a novel reveals how she achieved this ambition creating a book that will be read by generations to come

Resisting Theologies and the Everyday Wren Radford,2025-06-26 This powerful volume provides dynamic ways of constructing theologies of resistance and liberation by engaging with the everyday practices of marginalised communities In doing so this collection of theological experts reject abstracted concepts of bodes and taxonomies of race gender sexuality and disability Readers will find this a dynamic book with a variety of approaches that provide ways of constructing theologies of resistance and liberation Experiences of marginalisation have provided a powerful reference point for developing theologies of justice and liberation however theological and political frameworks often reduce the complexity of lived experiences into categories and themes Daily practices of resisting and surviving are frequently considered too fleshy domestic or banal to be of theological meaning Therefore Radford and their coterie of academics draw on understandings of the everyday in feminist womanist Latinx and decolonial theologies as well as in cultural theory This allows critical reflection on how theological approaches can shape alternative relations to self society and the sacred In recognising the lived and felt realities of struggling against oppressive colonial and racialised systems contributors engage with academic and activist debates about the possibilities of remaking social relations and creating other ways of knowing and being From Black theology to disabled activists on social media to queer clergy in South Africa this volume holds together differences in contributors approaches modelling the view that there is not just one form of resistance nor a single approach to constructing theology

Becoming Like a Child Jerome W. Berryman, 2017-01-01 Invites us to engage in the creative process live creative authentic playful lives Berryman invites the reader into a creative process that explores what it means to be spiritually mature starting with Jesus injunction to become like a child What does this mean at the literal level the figurative level the mystical level the ethical level The structure of the process parallels the book s organization and the structure of Christian worship as well as the arc of life itself The steps on this journey begin when we enter and the world of childlike maturity opens to us as we respond with inarticulate wonder and gratitude Berryman includes stories and examples from his long career working with children which adds warmth and appeal to the book He has described this volume as his summary theological statement

Creating Safe Space Tomoko Kuribayashi, Julie Ann Tharp, 1998-01-01 An anthology of literary essays focusing on the ways in which sexual emotional physical racial and other forms of violence have affected women artists imaginations
