Taube,Dumbarton Oaks,2004 Olmec Art at Dumbarton Oaks presents the Olmec portion of the Robert Woods Bliss Collection of Pre Columbian Art It illustrates all thirty nine Olmec art objects in color plates and includes many complementary and comparative black and white illustrations and drawings The body of Pre Columbian art that Robert Bliss carefully assembled over a half century between 1912 and 1963 amplified only slightly since his death is a remarkably significant collection In addition to their aesthetic quality and artistic significance the objects hold much information regarding the social worlds and religious and symbolic views of the people who made and used them before the arrival of Europeans in the New World This volume is the second in a series of catalogues that will treat objects in the Bliss Pre Columbian Collection The majority of the Olmec objects in the collection are made of jade the most precious material for the peoples of ancient Mesoamerica from early times through the sixteenth century Various items such as masks statuettes jewelry and replicas of weapons and tools were used for ceremonial purposes and served as offerings Karl Taube brings his expertise on the lifeways and beliefs of ancient Mesoamerican peoples to his study of the Olmec objects in teh Bliss collection His understanding of jade covers a broad range of knowledge from chemical compositions to geological sources to craft technology to the symbolic power of the green stone Throughout the book the author emphasizes the role of jade as a powerful symbol of water fertility and particularly of the maize plant which was the fundamental source of life and sustenance for the Olmec The shiny green of the stone was analogous to the green growth of maize This fundamental concept was elaborated in specific religious beliefs many of which were continued and elaborated by later Mesoamerican peoples such as the Maya Karl Taube employs his substantial knowledge of Pre Columbian cultures to explore and explicate Olmec symbolism in this catalogue Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1994 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1997 international cultural discourse or should it be representative of a specifically national or even regional identity The gallery is a microcosm of the greater debate how the South African nation relates to the larger world and how if at all it understands the concept of a shared culture In the last 20 years Museum Studies have become a major part of the field of Cultural Studies There is a vast literature on what might be called the history museum but far less on the art museum or gallery To date there has been no large scale historical inquiry into the Iziko SANG the country's national gallery The absence of such a history marks a serious gap in the literature which this study aims to fill Art Index Alice Maria Dougan, Margaret Furlong, 1999
