Odoratus Sexualis Iwan Bloch, 1934 Odoratus Sexualis Iwan Bloch, 1976 Odoratus Sexualis Eugen Dühren (pseud. van Iwan Bloch.), 1934 Heinrich Kaan's "Psychopathia Sexualis" (1844) Heinrich Kaan, 2016-10-25 With Heinrich Kaan's book we have then what could be called the date of birth or in any case the date of the emergence of sexuality and sexual aberrations in the psychiatric field Michel Foucault Abnormal Lectures at the Collège de France 1974 1975 Heinrich Kaan's fascinating work part medical treatise part sexual taxonomy part activist statement and part anti-onanist tract takes us back to the origins of sexology He links the sexual instinct to the imagination for the first time creating what Foucault called a unified field of sexual abnormality Kaan's taxonomy consists of six sexual aberrations masturbation pederasty lesbian love necrophilia bestiality and the violation of statues Kaan not only inaugurated the field of sexology but played a significant role in the regimes of knowledge production and discipline about psychiatric and sexual subjects As Benjamin Kahan argues in his Introduction Kaan's text crucially enables us to see how homosexuality replaced masturbation as the central concern of Euro American sexual regulation Kaan's work translated into English for the first time here opens a new window onto the history of sexuality and the history of sexology and reconfigures our understanding of Richard von Krafft-Ebing's book of the same name published some forty years later Odoratus Sexualis I. Bloch, 1992-03 Scents and Sensibility Catherine Maxwell, 2017-10-20 This lively accessible book is the first to explore Victorian literature through scent and perfume presenting an extensive range of well known and unfamiliar texts in intriguing and imaginative new ways that make us re think literature's relation with the senses Concentrating on aesthetic and decadent authors Scents and Sensibility introduces a rich selection of poems essays and fiction exploring these texts with reference to both the little known cultural history of perfume use and the appreciation of natural fragrance in Victorian Britain It shows how scent and perfume are used to convey not merely moods and atmospheres but the nuances of the aesthete or decadent's carefully cultivated identity personality or sensibility A key theme is the emergence of the olfactif the cultivated individual with a refined sense of smell influentially represented by the poet and critic Algernon Charles Swinburne who is emulated by a host of canonical and less well known aesthetic and decadent successors such as Walter Pater Edmund Gosse John Addington Symonds Lafcadio Hearn Michael Field Oscar Wilde Arthur Symonds Mark Andrija Raffalovich Theodore Wratishlaw and A Mary F Robinson This book explores how scent and perfume pervade the work of these authors in many different ways signifying such diverse things as style atmosphere influence sexuality sensibility spirituality refinement individuality the expression of love and poetic creativity and the aura of personality dandyism modernity and memory A coda explores the contrasting twentieth century responses of Virginia Woolf and Compton Mackenzie to the scent of Victorian literature Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1970 Sex and Race, Volume 2 J. A. Rogers, 2014-09-15 In the Sex and Race series first published in the 1940s historian Joel Augustus Rogers questioned the concept of race the origins of racial differentiation and the root of the color problem Rogers surmised that a large percentage of ethnic differences are the result of sociological factors and in these volumes he gathered what he called the bran of history the uncollected unexamined history of black people in the hope that these neglected parts of history would become part of the mainstream body of Western history Drawing on a vast amount of research Rogers was attempting to point out the absurdity of racial divisions Indeed his belief in one race humanity precluded the idea of several different ethnic races The series marshals the data he had collected as evidence to prove his underlying humanistic thesis that people were one large family without racial boundaries Self trained and self published Rogers and his work were immensely popular and influential during his day even cited by Malcolm X The books are presented here in their original editions

The Problem with Pleasure Laura Frost,2013-07-09 Aldous Huxley decried the horrors of modern pleasure or the proliferation of mass produced widely accessible entertainment that could degrade or dull the mind He and his contemporaries including James Joyce T S Eliot Gertrude Stein D H Lawrence and Jean Rhys sought to radically redefine pleasure constructing arduous and indirect paths to delight through their notoriously daunting work Laura Frost follows these experiments in the art of unpleasure connecting modernism s signature characteristics such as irony allusiveness and obscurity to an ambitious attempt to reconfigure bliss In The Problem with Pleasure Frost draws upon a wide variety of materials linking interwar amusements such as the talkies romance novels the Parisian fragrance Chanel no 5 and the exotic confection Turkish Delight to the artistic play of Joyce Lawrence Stein Rhys and others She considers pop cultural phenomena and the rise of celebrities such as Rudolph Valentino and Gypsy Rose Lee against contemporary sociological scientific and philosophical writings on leisure and desire Throughout her study Frost incorporates recent scholarship on material and visual culture and vernacular modernism recasting the period's high low elite popular divides and formal strategies as efforts to regulate sensual and cerebral experience Capturing the challenging tensions between these artists' commitment to innovation and the stimulating amusements they denounced yet deployed in their writing Frost calls attention to the central role of pleasure in shaping interwar culture
