Police Race And Ethnicity A Guide For Police Services:

Police, Race and Ethnicity Brian K. Cryderman, Augie Fleras, Christopher N. O'Toole, Ontario Committee for the Standardization of Police Education in Race and Ethnic Relations, 1998 This guide for law enforcement officers in Ontario is intended to provide some understanding of the multicultural reality of policing in Canada and to lessen mistakes through cultural ignorance Section one deals with key sociological terms theories terminology and concepts relating to race and ethnic issues Section two discusses the pros and cons of the multicultural nature of Canadian society and the trend towards a community policing model of enforcement Part three gives a profile of seven minority groups providing a history language family religion and heritage background for each to give police a better understanding of the community

Race, Ethnicity, and Policing Stephen K Rice, Michael D White, 2010-03-01 From Rodney King and driving while black to claims of targeting of undocumented Latino immigrants relationships surrounding race ethnicity and the police have faced great challenge Race Ethnicity and Policing includes both classic pieces and original essays that provide the reader with a comprehensive even handed sense of the theoretical underpinnings methodological challenges and existing research necessary to understand the problems associated with racial and ethnic profiling and police bias This path breaking volume affords a holistic approach to the topic guiding readers through the complexity of these issues making clear the ecological and political contexts that surround them and laying the groundwork for future discussions The seminal and forward thinking twenty two essays clearly illustrate that equitable treatment of citizens across racial and ethnic groups by police is one of the most critical components of a successful democracy and that it is only when agents of social control are viewed as efficient effective and legitimate that citizens will comply with the laws that govern their society The book includes an introduction by Robin S Engel and contributions from leading scholars including Jeffrey A Fagan James J Fyfe Bernard E Harcourt Delores Jones Brown Ramiro Martinez Jr Karen F Parker Alex R Piquero Tom R Tyler Jerome H Skolnick Ronald Weitzer and many others

The Oxford Handbook of Ethnicity, Crime, and Immigration Sandra M. Bucerius, Michael H. Tonry, 2014 This title provides comprehensive analyses of current knowledge about the unwarranted disparities in dealings with the criminal justice system faced by some disadvantaged minority groups in all developed countries

Latinos in a Changing Society Edwin Meléndez, Martha Montero-Sieburth, 2007-02-28 Given the importance of Latino issues in the current social and economic times the publication of Latinos in a Changing Society is both timely and prescient in its contributions to the current discourse of how Latinos are being influenced by U S norms and culture and how Latinos are also affecting U S society This volume contributes to our need for comprehensive analysis of how Latin communities compare and contrast with other underserved groups It also examines how changes are taking place within specific Latino groups particularly between first and second generation Cubans returning Puerto Ricans Dominican poverty and emergent Mexican leaders in the New England area The opportunities that Latinos and dominant mainstream interests share are identified in this volume but so are the many areas in need of change In this current atmosphere of anger and suspicion toward immigrants this volume presents an analytical perspective that is too often absent from politically motivated debates about Latinos and their role in a changing society Undocumented immigrants are often portrayed as people who come to this country to take advantage of a generous welfare system contributing little to the economic and social development of the country This volume critically examines issues such as the Latino commitment to labor participation the ways that Latino parents engage in schools and in their communities health access and social programs the policing concerns within the Latino community the academic adjustments made by Latino college students as well as the educational opportunities that exist for Latinos across the country Unlike publications that seek to summarize knowledge about the Latino population in the United States Latinos in a Changing Society provides a broader range of insights into the types of policy analysis research and public consciousness needed to advance the educational social cultural and political participation and incorporation of Latinos in the new century This volume critically examines such issues as the disparity in poverty among Latino groups the lack of access to health services the Latino commitment to labor participation the ways that Latino parents engage in schools and in their communities and the educational dropout rates of Latinos across the country and the underlying causes of those rates Unlike publications that seek to summarize knowledge about the Latino population in the United States Latinos in a Changing Society provides a broader range of insights into the types of policy analysis research and public consciousness needed to advance the educational social cultural and political participation and incorporation of Latinos in the new century

Mixed Race Amnesia Minelle Mahtani, 2014-11-10 Mixed Race Amnesia is an ambitious and critical look at how multiraciality is experienced in the global north Drawing on a series of interviews acclaimed geographer Minelle Mahtani explores some of the assumptions and attitudes people have around multiraciality She discovers that in Canada at least people of mixed race are often romanticized as being the embodiment of a post racial future an ideal that is supported by government policy and often internalized by people of mixed race As Mahtani reveals this superficial celebration of multiraciality is often done without any acknowledgment of the freight and legacy of historical racisms Consequently a strategic and collective amnesia is taking place one where complex diasporic and family histories are being lost while colonial legacies are being reinforced Mahtani argues that in response a new anti colonial approach to multiraciality is needed and she equips her readers with the analytical tools to do this

Stop and Search Leanne Weber, Ben Bowling, 2014-06-11 Police powers to stop question and search people in public places and the way these powers are exercised is a contentious aspect of police community relations and a key issue for criminological and policing scholarship and for public debate about liberty and security more generally Whilst monitoring and controlling minority populations has always been a feature of police work new fears new suspect populations and new powers intended to control them have arisen in the face of instability associated with rapid global change This book synthesises and extends knowledge about stop and search practices across a range of jurisdictions and contexts It explores the use of stop and search powers in relation to street crime terrorism and unauthorised migration in Britain North America Europe Australia Africa and Asia The book covers little researched practices such as road blocks and ID checking and discusses issues such as fairness effectiveness equity and racial profiling It provides a substantive and theoretical foundation for transnational and comparative research on police powers in a global context This book was originally published as a special issue of Policing and Society

Policing Hate Crime Gail Mason, Jane Maree Maher, Jude McCulloch, Sharon Pickering, Rebecca Wickes, Carolyn McKay, 2017-03-16 In a contemporary setting of increasing social division and marginalisation Policing Hate Crime interrogates the complexities of prejudice motivated crime and effective policing practices Hate crime has become a barometer for contemporary police relations with vulnerable and marginalised communities But how do police effectively lead conversations with such communities about problems arising from prejudice Contemporary police are expected to be active agents in the pursuit of social justice and human rights by stamping out prejudice and group based animosity At the same time police have been criticised in over policing targeted communities as potential perpetrators as well as under policing these same communities as victims of crime Despite this history the demand for impartial law enforcement requires police to change their engagement with targeted communities and kindle trust as priorities in strengthening their response to hate crime Drawing upon a research partnership between police and academics this book entwines current law enforcement responses with key debates on the meaning of hate crime to explore the potential for misunderstandings of hate crime between police and communities and illuminates ways to overcome communication difficulties This book will be important reading for students taking courses in hate crime as well as victimology policing and crime and community Juvenile Justice Steven M.
