See Through Stories:

See Through Nelly Reifler, 2006-01-19 Heartbreaking and haunting the stories in this electrifying debut collection explore the deep chasm between expectations and reality and the ways in which we can fragment ourselves and be many people at once Looking Through My Mother's Eyes Giovanna Del Negro, 2003 This look at the traditional and subversive world of women's folklore examines the realm of women's talk exploring the ways Italian immigrant women from Montreal use classic folk genres to stretch the boundaries of their culture Through songs lullabies bawdy riddles and trickster tales these women subvert redefine and alter what it means to be Italian and female in North America More than just a study of Italian Canadians this essay delves into broader themes of gender immigration and ethnicity showcasing voices that contradict homogenizing interpretations of traditional historical scholarship Tell Me a Story Robert J.

Hater, 2006 Father Robert Hater strongly believes that story without basic belief lacks direction and basic belief without story is lifeless He illustrates this relationship between story and Catholic belief with sensitive and powerful narratives including the account of his own mother's death and its impact on him This is an invaluable resource for anyone involved in conveying the story of Jesus and the church pastors homilists catechetical leaders catechists and teachers parish ministers and families as well as all who wish to find God in their own stories Exemplary Stories Miguel de Cervantes

Saavedra, 1998 Even more popular in their day than Don Quixote Cervantes's Exemplary Stories 1613 surprise challenge and delight Ranging from the picaresque to the satirical Cervantes's Exemplary Stories defy the conventions of heroic chivalric literature through a combination of comic irony moral ambiguity realism and sheer mirth With acute narrative skill and deft characterisation drawing on colloquial language and farce Cervantes creates a tension between the everyday and the literary the plausible and the improbable While encouraging us to reach our own moral conclusions he also persuades us to accept the coincidental and the incredible two boys indulge their life of crime at a time of public prayer a young nobleman undergoes a change of identity at the behest of not a princess but a mere gipsy girl and most fantastically talking dogs philosophize in a ward full of syphilitics By placing the extraordinary within the contexts of the ordinary the Exemplary Stories chart new novelistic territory and demonstrate Cervantes at his most imaginative and innovative This new translation captures the full vigour of Cervantes's wit and makes available two rarely printed tales The Illustrious Kitchen Maid and The Power of Blood Available Light Clifford Geertz, 2001-07-22 In this collection of essays Clifford Geertz explores the nature of his anthropological work in relation to a broader public serving as the foremost spokesperson of his generation of scholars those who came of age after World War II Geertz who once considered a career in philosophy begins by explaining how he got swept into the revolutionary movement of symbolic anthropology At that point his work began to encompass not only the ethnography of groups in Southeast Asia and North Africa but also the study of how meaning is made in all cultures or to use his phrase to explore the frames of meaning in which people everywhere live out their lives His philosophical orientation helped him to establish the role of anthropology within broader intellectual circles and led him to address the work of such leading thinkers as Charles Taylor Thomas Kuhn William James and Jerome Bruner In this volume Geertz comments on their work as he explores questions in political philosophy psychology and religion that have intrigued him throughout his career but that now hold particular relevance in light of postmodernist thinking and multiculturalism Available Light offers discussions of concepts such as nation identity country and self with a reminder that like symbols in general their meanings are not categorically fixed but grow and change through time and place

Making Space for Storied Leadership in Higher Education Elizabeth P. Quintero, Larisa Callaway-Cole, Adria Taha-Resnick, 2021-08-03 This book analyzes stories of university early childhood faculty members community activists in southern California and children and the early childhood teacher education students working with them The grounding of this research is reconceptualization of postmodern narrative theoretical influences Through narrative inquiry the book connects ongoing research to ongoing pedagogy It explores the following research questions 1 How do learners across generations create build upon and reinvent each other's stories to make new meanings through consideration of family history multigenerational knowledge and experiences 2 How do learners stories offer new possibilities through leadership that connects Global South knowledge with Global North contexts 3 In what ways is it possible to use this framework and methodology in Higher Education to promote systemic consistency in promoting social justice that is generatively inclusive More than half of the research participants have truly lived bi culturally many of the children in the early care and education programs in the USA are from Mexico and Central America These collaborators truly carry their roots with them as they strive for justice and authenticity in early childhood teacher education and community activists working with families and children God of Desire Catherine Benton, 2006-06-01 Presents Kamadeva the Hindu god of desire in tales art and ritual

Also covers Kamadeva's appearance in Buddhist lore Rediscovering God's Grand Story James M. Roseman, 2017-09-15 In the passage to modernity we in the West have lost the ability to see things whole We've closed our minds to all things transcendent and default to unbelief and can't make sense of the persistent echoes of the voice of God that reverberate in our souls In Rediscovering God's Grand Story James Roseman picks up the strands of science philosophy history the arts and theology and reweaves the tapestry to see a coherent story that makes the best sense of the world and provides real meaning and significance to our lives God's Grand Myth We see that the signals of transcendence that confound our culture of doubt are a universal language and vocabulary of the heart echoing the voice of God and in the very Judeo Christian story we so readily jettison is found the Author enabling us to see the world whole again This essay tells why the story and promise of Christianity is so hard to hear today but won't go away Could it be that as T S Eliot wrote in the mid twentieth century at the end of all our exploring will be to arrive where we started and know the place for the first time

Cistercian Stories for Nuns and Monks Martha G. Newman, 2020-10-30 Around the year 1200 the Cistercian Engelhard of Langheim dedicated a collection of monastic stories to a community of religious women Martha G Newman explores how this largely unedited collection of tales about Cistercian monks illuminates the religiosity of Cistercian nuns As did other Cistercian storytellers Engelhard recorded the miracles and visions of the order's illustrious figures but he wrote from Franconia in modern Germany rather than the Cistercian heartland His extant texts reflect his interactions with non Cistercian monasteries and with Langheim's patrons rather than celebrating Bernard of Clairvaux Engelhard was conservative interested in maintaining traditional Cistercian patterns of thought Nonetheless by offering to women a collection of narratives that explore the oral qualities of texts the nature of sight and the efficacy of sacraments Engelhard articulated a distinctive response to the social and intellectual changes of his period In analyzing Engelhard's stories Newman uncovers an understudied monastic culture that resisted the growing emphasis on the priestly administration of the sacraments and the hardening of gender distinctions Engelhard assumed that monks and nuns shared similar interests and concerns and he addressed his audiences as if they occupied a space neither fully sacerdotal nor completely lay neither scholastic nor unlearned and neither solely male nor only female His exemplary narratives depict the sacramental value of everyday objects and behaviors whose efficacy relied more on individual spiritual formation than on sacerdotal action By encouraging nuns and monks to imagine connections between heaven and earth Engelhard taught faith as a learned disposition Newman s study demonstrates that scholastic questions about signs sacraments and sight emerged in a narrative form within late twelfth century monastic communities
