Seeking Peace:

Pursuing Peace JS Prickett, 2012-10-04 pursuing peace Is there not something that we all seek something that defines separates yet unites us I believe that this is the pursuit for inner peace There are an infinite number of individual paths to this one destination This is mine Peace requires the simple but powerful recognition that what we have in common as human beings is more important and crucial than what divides us Robert Sargent Shriver Peace is a daily a weekly a monthly process gradually changing opinions slowly eroding old barriers quietly building new structures John Fitzgerald Kennedy Peace is costly but it is worth the expense African Proverb I do not want the peace which passeth understanding I want the understanding which bringeth peace Helen Keller Peace is not merely a distant goal that we seek but a means by which we arrive at that goal Martin Luther King Jr It is more difficult to organize a peace than to win a war but the fruits of victory will be lost if the peace is not organized Aristotle Peace is not only better than war but infinitely more arduous George Bernard Shaw If everyone demanded peace instead of another television set then there d be peace John Lennon Nothing can bring you peace but yourself Ralph Waldo Emerson

Peace Anonymous - the 12 Steps to Peace Johnny F, 2012-06-26 Well intentioned people such as Bono and John Lennon have for years implored us to stop killing each other in much the same manner family members have begged alcoholics to stop drinking Perhaps we are addicted to war and violence and like alcoholics we need more than to simply stop we needed to find a new design for living The 12 Steps have been instrumental in changing the lives of over 3 million alcoholics in over 77 countries regardless of religious faith Those who once knew only chaos pain and suffering have discovered peace as a result of these Steps Consider the Steps as a recipe for peace Should they fail to produce the desired results we will refund your misery and you may return to killing at your leisure How To Find Peace...And Keep It! Margaret Light, 2024-07-31 Finding and maintaining peace in today's fast paced world can be challenging but it is essential for overall well being Achieving inner peace involves cultivating mindfulness practicing acceptance and creating a balanced lifestyle Mindfulness meditation is a powerful tool for developing a deeper sense of calm and equanimity Regular meditation can help you stay centered amidst chaos by fostering a present focused mindset Acceptance of what you cannot change is another critical step towards peace By letting go of control over uncontrollable situations you reduce stress and mental clutter Incorporating forgiveness into your life helps release grudges and past resentments paving the way for a serene mental state Making time for yourself is vital in maintaining inner peace Engaging in activities that bring joy and relaxation such as reading walking or hobbies can help you recharge and maintain a tranquil mind Gratitude exercises also play a significant role in fostering happiness and contentment Regularly reflecting on things you are thankful for can shift your focus from negative to positive aspects of life By integrating these techniques into your daily routine you can create a foundation for lasting peace and serenity in your life

Seeking the Welfare of the City Naomi Noguchi Reese, 2025-01-27 In the history of public theology the Holy Spirit s role in creation has been underexplored If the Holy Spirit is the agent of transformation in creation why have so many theologians neglected the Spirit s activity in the context of public theology One of the causes of such neglect derives from a long held belief in dualism or its assumption As a result generally speaking theologians have neglected the eschatological aspect of the Spirit's work over creation and instead have devoted much of their attention to the immanent spiritual aspect of the Spirit's work. Hence a theology is needed that recaptures the eschatological aspect of the Spirit's work over creation and Colin E. Gunton's pneumatology that is trinitarianly formulated and eschatologically conceived brings a fresh approach to public theology and moves us toward a full-bodied holistic and trinitarian public theology that takes into account the triune God. This study attempts to draw upon the resources uncovered in Gunton's pneumatology to outline applications for Christian engagement of the public square for the twenty-first century. The book concludes with criteria for discerning the Spirit's work in the public square to give us practical ways to see how the Spirit may be working in the public square for transformation.

A Listening Community Aquinata Böckmann, 2015. This new book by Sister Aquinata Böckmann discusses the Prologue and chapters 1, 2, and 3 of the Rule of St. Benedict. In a lectio regulae she plumbs the depths of Benedict's vision. Listen, the first word of the Prologue is a keyword that describes the main stance of the individual monastic, the superior, and the entire community: Listening to the Scriptures and in them to Christ guides individuals and the community on how to run on the way of God's commandments toward the goal of communal life in and with Christ. The first three chapters of the Rule concretize the principles of this communal spirituality of listening: the importance of a rule and a pastor for maintaining the community's attentiveness to life; the superior's responsibility to listen to individuals within the community; and the mutual listening between leader and community members regardless of their age. As in her earlier books, Sister Aquinata proves to be a true guide into the spirit of Benedict's Rule, which provides sound principles for listening in common in a community of life.

How We Met (A Journey of Little Miracles) Madeleine O'Dell-Conui, 2014-04 When I first came to America in 1967 one of my dreams was to locate my O'Dell relatives from my grandfather's side My Dad and my aunt Nancy always extoll their Dad with such affection that I always wish I have known him The first few years in the US was a struggle of daily living raising 4 children and working full time that my dreams of ever connecting with them faded into oblivion In 2012 a premed student from the Santo Tomas University UST connected with everyone through facebook with an O'Dell surname with his research into the O'Dell family through Wikipedia the free encyclopedia en Wikipedia.org Charles Wallace O'Dell is a 6th generation O'Dell and it took another Wallace in the family to uncover the family history O'Dell family originally owned by an Anglo Saxon king according to Wikipedia in Bedfordshire O'Dell is a village and civil parish in the North of the county of Bedfordshire in England Originally owned by an Anglo Saxon king the barony of Woadhyll was transferred to the Norman Count of Flanders after the Norman invasion He later changed his last name to Woadhyll which means a hill full of Woads and as time went on the barony was changed to O'Dell which was ruled by Barons bearing the name of O'Dell By the 1600s the family had a quarrel and was split into two leaving the barony without a legal male heir. The quarrel stemmed from religion. The family was divided into the Protestants and the Catholics. The Protestants moved to Newfoundland in Virginia bearing the name Odell while the Catholics moved to Ireland changing their name to O'Dell to evade Irish reprisals against the British. Eventually the Catholics moved to Nebraska and that was the start of the family's story. Our great grandfather Wallace Scott O'Dell 1852-1915 married Cora Davis. Wallace Scott died in 1915 and was survived by 8 children and his wife. His brother could not attend his funeral and also his son named Thomas Leroy O'Dell nicknamed Roy was in the Philippine Islands at the time of his death in Nebraska. Our great grandmother on the left see picture and a woman standing is daughter Zoe the sister of Leroy and her granddaughter on the right. A native of Venango County Pennsylvania he was born on the 4th of Feb 1852 and was a son of Alfred and Julia Van Geisen O'Dell native respectively of New York and New Jersey. They were married in Pennsylvania and continued to reside there until Wallace was 17 years old when the family moved to Saunders County in Nebraska. His father homesteading land 2 and a half miles east of Weston. At that time the County was in the main a frontier district and the town of Weston had not been founded yet. Mr O'Dell proved up to his claim and remained there on until his demise in 1909 at the age of 86. His wife died in 1911 at 84 years old. They became parents of 7 children. Wallace Scott is the third child. Wallace Scott attended School in Pennsylvania and remained at home for sometime after the family left the County. At 25 years of age he was married and began farming in Chapman precinct buying railroad land which he improved. He was a successful Agriculturist being energetic and progressive and accumulated competence as the years went by which enabled him to retire from active life in 1910. He sold his farm that year and moved to Weston. On July of 1877 Mr O'Dell married Miss Cora Davis a daughter of Captain William and Nancy Whiting Davis. They had 8 children namely Maud wife of Henry White of Wahoo, Roy who was connected with the civil service in the Philippines, Zoe the wife of Joseph Kriz, Alta at home, Dawn the wife of Joseph Porter of Wahoo, Wilma married to George Jackson of Wahoo, Nannie and Alfred at home. (1938-1944), 1939 Political Will William J. Spencer, 2020-10-06 This book is a tribute to all who answered the call to bring this new American institution into existence. It provides guidance for better understanding the strategies and tactics for creating political will in ways that resonate with lasting peace and social justice. The story is both reflective and instructive. Told by the Director of the national campaign to create it and of the Federal Commission that developed it, the story captures the beliefs and values of the major players responsible for USIP. In the early stages of the COVID world, the reality of the important work ahead should be clear to all of us It is worth repeating that today our American Democracy is caught in an unpleasant and entangled web Each strand has been woven with remarkable tensile strength by cultural and economic dynamics each sustaining their own complexity and entanglements We face enmeshed processes of racism discrimination excessive military spending corporate influence runaway capitalism environmental degradation and the system straining cycles of poverty and injustice Creating political will is one means to leverage the resistance we need to break these bonds
