Selected Black American, African, and Caribbean Authors James Allen Page, Jae Min Roh, 1985      Afro-American Life, History and Culture, 1985      Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults Barbara Thrash Murphy, 1999 The Third Edition of this renowned reference work illuminates African American contributions to the genre of books for children and young adults with the biographies of 274 authors and artists including 121 new biographies not included in previous editions The book presents the user with a rich source of accessible in depth biographical data on each individual author or artist including birthplace education their approach to art or literature career development and awards and honors received Over 160 photographs of the subjects bring the biographies to life and 46 covers of important children's books are reproduced Also included is a comprehensive index of books an index of authors and illustrators and useful listings of publishers distributors and bookstores arranged by state      American Black Women in the Arts and Social Sciences; A Bibliographic Survey Ora Williams, 1994-01-01 Calls attention to the many contributions African American women have made to American and world culture Includes pictures of artists art works and authors      Dictionary of American Library Biography Donald G. Davis, 2003-01-30 This second supplement to DALB the Dictionary of American Library Biography 1978 adds 77 notable deceased members of the library and archival communities to the 302 entries in the main volume and the 51 entries in the first supplement 1990 The second supplement includes primarily those figures who died between 1987 and the end of the year 2000 though some 13 entries provide sketches for notable persons whose death dates are somewhat earlier and who were not included in earlier works Among the entries are a number of African Americans and nearly one half of the entries are women Some 80 contributors from the United States and Canada provided sketches many based on original source material This supplement follows the practice and format of the earlier volumes though it allows presidents of the American Library Association to compete for inclusion with other nominations      Blacks at Harvard Werner Sollors, Caldwell Titcomb, Thomas A. Underwood, 1993-03 The history of blacks at Harvard mirrors for better or for worse the history of blacks in the United States Harvard too has been indelibly scarred by slavery exclusion segregation and other forms of racist oppression At the same time the nation's oldest university has also at various times stimulated supported or allowed itself to be influenced by the various reform movements that have dramatically changed the nature of race relations across the nation The story of blacks at Harvard is thus inspiring but painful instructive but ambiguous a paradoxical episode in the most vexing controversy of American life the race question The first and only book on its subject Blacks at Harvard is distinguished by the rich variety of its sources Included in this documentary history are scholarly overviews poems short stories speeches well known memoirs by the famous previously unpublished memoirs by the lesser known newspaper accounts letters official papers of the university and transcripts of debates Among Harvard's black alumni and alumnae are such illustrious figures as W E B Du Bois Monroe Trotter and Alain Locke Countee Cullen and Sterling Brown both received graduate degrees The editors have collected here writings as diverse as those of Booker T Washington William Hastie Malcolm X and Muriel Snowden to convey the complex ways in which Harvard has affected the thinking of African Americans and the ways in turn in which African Americans have influenced the traditions of Harvard and Radcliffe Notable among the contributors are significant figures in African American letters Phyllis Wheatley William Melvin Kelley Marita Bonner James Alan McPherson and Andrea Lee Equally prominent in the book are some of the nation's leading historians Carter Woodson Rayford Logan John Hope Franklin and Nathan I Huggins A vital sourcebook Blacks at Harvard is certain to nourish scholarly inquiry into the social and intellectual history of African Americans at elite national institutions and serves as a telling metaphor of this nation's past

Randall, Broadside Press, and the Black Arts Movement in Detroit, 1960-1995 Julius E. Thompson, 2005-02-15 In 1965 Dudley F Randall founded the Broadside Press a company devoted to publishing distributing and promoting the works of black poets and writers In so doing he became a major player in the civil rights movement Hundreds of black writers were given an outlet for their work and for their calls for equality and black identity Though Broadside was established on a minimal budget Randall's unique skills made the press successful He was trained as a librarian and had spent decades studying and writing poetry most importantly Randall was totally committed to the advancement of black literature The famous and relatively unknown sought out Broadside including such writers as Gwendolyn Brooks Margaret Walker Mae Jackson Lance Jeffers Etheridge Knight Sonia Sanchez Nikki Giovanni Audre Lorde and Sterling D Plumpp His story is one of battling to promote black identity and equality through literature and thus lifting the cultural lives of all Americans

Encyclopedia of African-American Education Charles A. Asbury, D. Kamili Anderson, Michael Fultz, Sylvia M. Jacobs, Faustine C. Jones-Wilson, Margo Okazawa-Rey, 1996-08-28 This indispensable reference is a comprehensive guide to significant issues policies historical events laws theories and persons related to the education of African Americans in the United States Through several hundred alphabetically arranged entries the volume chronicles the history of African American education from the systematic long term denial of schooling to blacks before the Civil War to the establishment of the Freedmen's Bureau and the era of Reconstruction to Brown v Board of Education and the civil rights reforms of the last few decades Entries are written by expert contributors and contain valuable bibliographies while a selected bibliography of general sources concludes the volume The African American population is unique in that its educational history includes as law and public policy the systematic long term denial of the acquisition of knowledge In the 18th century African Americans were initially legally forbidden to be taught academic subjects in the South where most African Americans lived This period which ended around 1865 with the conclusion of the Civil War and the establishment of the Freedmen's Bureau was followed by the introduction of laws policies and practices providing for rudimentary education for 69 years under the dual school separate but equal policies established by Plessy v Ferguson 1896 These policies did not end until the Brown v Board of Education decisions of 1954 and 1955 were reinforced by the passage of civil rights and equal opportunity legislation in the mid 1960s The education of African Americans has been a continuing moral political legal economic and psychological issue throughout this country s history It continues to consume time and attention and it remains an unresolved dilemma for the nation Through several hundred alphabetically arranged entries this indispensable reference offers a comprehensive overview of significant issues policies historical events laws persons and theories related to African American education from the early years of this country to the present day The entries are written by expert contributors and each entry includes a bibliography of works for further reading A selected general bibliography concludes the volume     The Historical and Cultural Atlas of African Americans Molefi Kete Asante, Mark T.
