Drawing Back Culture Tweedie, 2015-08-17 The Makah Indians of Washington State briefly in the national spotlight when they resumed their ancient whaling traditions in 1999 have begun a process that will eventually lead to the repatriation of objects held by museums and federal agencies nationwide Drawing Back Culture describes the early stages of the tribe's implementation of what some consider to be the most important piece of cultural policy legislation in the history of the United States the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act NAGPRA NAGPRA was passed by Congress in 1990 to give Native people a mechanism through which they could reclaim specific objects of importance to the tribe Because NAGPRA definitions were intended for widespread applicability each tribe must negotiate a fit between these definitions and their own material culture The broad range of viewpoints within any given tribal community creates internal negotiations over NAGPRA surrounding the identification and eventual return of such objects Negotiations also arise concerning the nature of ownership At the heart of this ongoing struggle are themes relevant to indigenous studies worldwide the central role of material culture in cultural revitalization movements concerns with intellectual property rights and self representation and the trend towards professional cultural resource management among indigenous peoples The conception of ownership lies at the heart of the Makahs struggle to implement NAGPRA Tweedie explores their historical patterns of ownership and demonstrates the challenges of implementing legislation which presumes a concept of communal ownership foreign to the Makahs highly developed and historically documented patterns of personal ownership of both material culture and intellectual property Drawing Back Culture explores how NAGPRA implementation has been working at the tribal level from the perspective of a tribe struggling to fit the provisions of the law with its own sense of history ownership and the drive for cultural renewal Early Neolithic Settlement and Society at Olszanica Sarunas

Milisauskas,1986-01-01 The site of Olszanica in southeastern Poland contains remains of a large Early Neolithic settlement of the Linear Pottery culture This monograph presents the results of the archaeological excavations conducted from 1967 to 1973 The Pond Dwellers: People of the Freshwaters of Massachusetts 1620-1676 Kelly Savage,2018-01-31 Enter the world of Firehawk and his people Sit with them in their councils as they discuss the strange pale tribes birdships are bringing to their shores Experience with them the changes these new people will bring to Turtle Island changes that will give birth to a new nation while destroying their world Using documents from the 1600s and others this book brings together New England Native American personal and place names culture religion medicine and more to retell the story of how America began from the Native American perspective Lushootseed Culture and the Shamanic Odyssey Jay Miller,1999-01-01 This is the first comprehensive overview of the Native people of Puget Sound who speak a Coast Salishan language called Lushootseed They originally lived in communal cedar plank houses clustered along rivers and bays Their complex continually evolving religious attitudes and rituals were woven into daily life the cycle of seasons and long term activities Despite changes brought on by modern influences and Christianity traditional beliefs still infuse Lushootseed life Drawing on established written sources and his own two decades of fieldwork Miller depicts the Lushootseed people in an innovative way building his cultural representation around the grand ritual known as the Shamanic Odyssey In this ritual cooperating shamans journeyed together to the land of the dead to recover some kind of vitality stolen from the living Miller sees the Shamanic Odyssey as a central lens on Lushootseed culture epitomizing and validating in a public setting many of its important concerns and themes In particular the rite brought together a number of distinct aspects or vehicles of culture including the cosmos canoe house body and the network of social relations radiating across the Lushootseed waterscape

Winter's Graces Susan Avery Stewart,2025-07-30 Filled with unexpected good news about growing older Winter s Graces highlights eleven qualities that ripen with age including audacious authenticity creative ingenuity necessary fierceness self transcending generosity and a growing capacity to savor life and to ride its ups and downs with humor and grace Decades of research have established that the catastrophic conditions often associated with late life such as severe dementia and debilitating frailty are the exception not the rule Still the mistaken idea that aging equals devastating decline persists causing enormous and unnecessary suffering especially for women Drawing on decades of experience as a psychology professor and psychotherapist Susan Stewart PhD weaves together inspiring folk stories that illustrate the graces of winter and recent research that validates them along with a wealth of user friendly tools and practices for amplifying these graces and bringing them to life Written primarily for women over 50 seeking good news about growing older Winter s Graces offers adults of all ages a compelling vision of aging that celebrates its many gifts acknowledges its challenges and reveals how the last season of life can be the most fulfilling of all      History 4 Rhona Whiteford,2005-02      Daily life at the turn of the neolithic Simonsen John,2017-08-02 This book provides unique insights into Late Neolithic life its organization and its economy made possible by an altogether exceptional collection of recent archaeological findings in South Scandinavia from longhouses with sunken floors dating from this period Through analysis and interpretation of these comprehensive materials Danish archaeologist John Simonsen presents brand new findings essential for many wider interpretations of this crucial and fascinating transitional period from the Stone Age to the Bronze Age c 2350 c 1600 BC The basic materials presented and discussed in Daily Life at the Turn of the Neolithic were mainly found during new archaeological excavations in the central part of the Limfjord region of Denmark but in terms of the wider perspectives and considerations often relate to the entire region and in several respects also to South Scandinavia and beyond
