An Air Transport Strategy for Northern Ireland Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Northern Ireland Affairs Committee, 2012-11-30 Air travel is fundamental to family and economic life in Northern Ireland To facilitate the rebalancing of the economy it is vital the air links to Great Britain mainland Europe and the rest of the world are robust The Committee identified in this report several hurdles to overcome Air Passenger Duty APD despite the APD on direct long haul flights being reduced to zero this does not assist the 98.5 per cent of passengers who travel from NI airports on short haul flights Ways to reduce or preferably abolish APD on all flights into NI from GB and on all direct flights from Northern Ireland to any destination should be explored

Connectivity air links to hub airports particularly Heathrow must be at least maintained at the current level and further routes should be actively sought Airports Commission review the review is being carried out by the Airports Commission into options to maintain the UK's status as an international hub for aviation As this report is not due until 2015 and the delay as to the future airport configuration and capacity in the South East of England is causing concern among the business community in Northern Ireland The Committee urged the Government to expedite the review and its decision as soon as possible given its importance to Northern Ireland's international connectivity Internal access to Northern Ireland's airports road and rail links to all three of NI airports must be improved Visas there should be introduced between the UK and Irish Government a shared visit visa for the UK and the Republic of Ireland as the current cost of two visas deters both business and leisure travellers from visiting both jurisdictions on a single visit

Gender and Tourism Sustainability Claudia Eger, Ana María Munar, Cathy H.C. Hsu, 2023-03-21 This book examines the relationship between gender and sustainability in tourism Whilst an extensive body of work exists in the areas of gender and sustainability these two fields of knowledge are seldom combined to examine tourism phenomena When we look at the evolution of tourism we see that sustainability has become an essential element in educational programmes policy making and strategic considerations for organisations and destinations Whilst the beginnings of tourism sustainability were challenging presently its relevance is seldom questioned However this situation is not the case with gender research Although gender theorising and research have existed for over a century and a rich legacy of knowledge exists on this topic meaningful and respectful engagement with this line of scholarship is thus far peripheral in tourism studies The aim of this book is to reflect on and rethink the intersection of gender and tourism sustainability through the lens of gender theory and feminist epistemology to stay with the trouble and devise pathways for sustainability gender knowledge This book will be of great interest to students researchers and academics in tourism gender and sustainability as well as tourism management The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Sustainable Tourism Air Travel Organisers' Licensing (ATOL) reform Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Transport Committee,2012-04-30 Changes to ATOL that come into effect today April 30 2012 do not go far enough say MPs on the Commons Transport Committee in this new report Fundamental reform of ATOL the consumer protection scheme for holidaymakers is needed The Committee calls on the Government to clarify its objectives for ATOL reform to ensure that all passengers and holidaymakers are properly informed of the potential consequences of airline insolvency and the options available to them to obtain financial protection MPs also recommend that i The Civil Aviation Authority should work with the airlines to develop a code of practice covering information for all consumers making overseas holiday or travel bookings This must be designed to ensure that passengers understand the risks of being stranded abroad as a result of airline insolvency and are aware of the insurance options available ii The Government undertake research into consumers views on whether and in what ways the ATOL scheme should be extended iii The Government must distinguish between issues related to consumer protection and repatriation cover iv Future reforms should be funded by the travel industry and must provide consumers with informed choices on protection options v ATOL Protection Contributions should be linked to the value of the holiday booking instead of the current flat rate of 2 50 per passenger A.W.
