Looking At Literature:

A Chinese Look at Literature David E. Pollard, 2023-07-28 A Chinese Look at Literature The Literary Values of Chou Tso jen in Relation to the Tradition delves into the complex and fascinating literary philosophy of Chou Tso jen a key figure in modern Chinese literature Blending traditional Chinese values with a modern Western educated perspective Chou s work offers a rare lens through which to explore the intersections of cultural heritage and contemporary thought This book focuses on the middle period of Chou s career a time when he withdrew from national politics to concentrate on literary and cultural questions It provides a nuanced analysis of his ideas about literature while situating them within the broader context of Chinese critical traditions including comparisons to the Kung an and Tung ch eng schools With a balanced view the author examines Chou s essays and their interplay of modern rationalism and age old Chinese aesthetic principles The book also includes an exploration of Chou s biography from his early education in naval studies to his formative years in Japan where he developed his deep engagement with foreign literatures It traces his influential role in China s New Culture Movement and the intellectual challenges he faced during times of political upheaval including his controversial collaboration with the Japanese during their occupation of China By contextualizing Chou s work within both his personal history and the traditions he sought to reinterpret this study illuminates the enduring relevance of his contributions to Chinese literature and criticism It is an invaluable resource for readers seeking a deeper understanding of modern Chinese intellectual history and its enduring dialogue with its rich cultural past This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1973

Wells, 2015-06-29 This outline of Korea's civilisation is a cultural history that examines the ways the Korean people over the past two millennia understood the world and viewed their place in society In the traditional era the interaction between several broad religious and philosophical traditions and social institutions state interests and at times external pressures provides the framework of the story In the modern era the chief concern is with the rapid and momentous cultural changes that have occurred over the past one and a half centuries in the idea and spread of education the rise in influence of students the development of mass culture the redefinition of gender and the continuing importance of religion Literature and Literary Criticism in Contemporary China Zhang Jiong, 2017-10-16 Each age has its value system of literary criticism whose construction is inseparable from the mainstream ideology of the society In contemporary China the mainstream ideology is inevitably Marxism This book is composed of two parts The first part studies literary criticism in contemporary China whose development is closely related to the popularization of Marxism and the unavoidable collisions between Marxism and other theories It also introduces some relevant critical debates such as the debate on the criticism of Yu Pingbo a representative and one of the authoritative scholars studying The Dream of the Red Chamber In the second part the author expounds the history of Chinese literature from a macro level perspective involving works genres ideologies schools etc He also discusses the challenges facing Chinese literature under the background of economic globalization Will politics cultures including literature and arts be globalized In addition the author puts forward that a dynamic concept is needed for a better understanding of Chinese culture and gives his suggestions about the adjustments Chinese people should make for the present This book will attract scholars and students of literary criticism studies and Chinese literary studies People who are interested in Chinese literature and thought will also benefit from this book

Boricua Literature Lisa Sánchez-González, 2001-08 Since the invasion and colonization of Puerto Rico in 1898 all Puerto Ricans are both American citizens and colonial subjects by birth according to international law Over a third of this population currently lives in the continental U S forming one of the nation's most significant minority communities Yet no complete study of mainland Puerto Rican or Boricua literature has been written Until now Boricua Literature is the first literary history of the Puerto Rican colonial diaspora The result of a decade of research in archives and special collections in the Caribbean and in the U S Lisa Sánchez-González argues that the writing of the Puerto Rican diaspora should be considered an integral field of study Covering 100 years of Boricua literary history each chapter looks at the single writer or group of writers who are most emblematic of their respective generation from William Carlos Williams and Arturo Schomburg to Latina feminism and salsa music The story of an American community of color Boricua Literature is also about contemporary critical race and gender studies Unlike virtually all studies concerning mainland Puerto Rican writing Lisa Sánchez-González is less concerned with cultural identity than with unearthing a substantive cultural intellectual history The first explicitly literary historical analysis of Boricua Literature this definitive study proposes a new and discreet area of literary historical research in American studies

Contemporary Women Writers Look Back Alice Ridout, 2011-01-13 Long before John Barth announced in his famous 1967 essay that late 20th century fiction was The Literature of Exhaustion authors have been retelling and recycling stories Barth was however right to identify in postmodern fiction a particular self-consciousness about its belatedness at the end of a long literary tradition This book traces the move in contemporary women's writing from the self-conscious ironic parodies of postmodernism to the nostalgic and historical turn of the 21st century It analyses how contemporary women writers deal with their literary inheritances offering an illuminating and provocative study of contemporary women writers re-writings of previous texts and stories Through close readings of novels by key contemporary women writers including Toni Morrison Doris Lessing Margaret Atwood Zadie Smith Emma Tennant and Helen Fielding and of the ITV adaptation Lost in Austen Alice Ridout examines the politics of parody and nostalgia exploring the limitations and possibilities of both in the contexts of feminism and postcolonialism
