

The Road Not Taken

by Robert Frost

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

The East Face of Helicon : West Asiatic Elements in Greek Poetry and Myth M. L. West, 1997-10-23 Over the last sixty years scholars have increasingly become aware of links connecting early Greek poetry with the literatures of the ancient Near East Martin West's new book far surpasses previous studies in comprehensiveness demonstrating these links with massive and detailed documentation and showing they are much more fundamental and pervasive than has hitherto been acknowledged Ever since Neolithic times Greek lands lay open to cultural imports from western Asia agriculture metal working writing religious institutions artistic fashions musical instruments and much more Over the last sixty years scholars have increasingly become aware of links connecting early Greek poetry with the literatures of Mesopotamia Anatolia Canaan and Israel Martin West's new book far surpasses previous studies in comprehensiveness demonstrating these links with massive and detailed documentation and showing that they are much more fundamental and pervasive than has hitherto been acknowledged His survey embraces Hesiod the Homeric epics the lyric poets and Aeschylus and concludes with an illuminating discussion of possible avenues of transmission between the orient and Greece He believes that an age has dawned in which Hellenists will no more be able to ignore Near Eastern literature than Latinists can ignore Greek

West African Poetry Robert Fraser, 1986-09-04 Previous studies of African poetry have tended to concentrate either on its political content or on its relationship to various European schools This book examines West African poetry in English and French against the background of oral poetry in the vernacular Do the roots of such poetry lie in Africa or in Europe In committing their work to writing do poets lose more than they gain Can the immediacy of oral performance ever be recovered Robert Fraser's account of two centuries of West African verse examines its subjugation to a succession of international styles from the heroic couplet to the austerity of experimental Modernism Successive chapters take us through the Negritude movement and the emergence of anglophone free verse in the 1950s to the rediscovery in recent years of the neglected springs of orality which is the subject of the concluding chapter

The Real West Marginal Way: A Poet's Autobiography Richard Hugo, 1992-06-17 Of Richard Hugo's Making Certain It Goes On David Wagoner has written Richard Hugo spared himself and us no pains or joys in making the wonderful vigorous original poems brought together in this single collection His was and is a very important voice in modern American poetry Hugo was also an editor of the Yale Younger Poets series and a distinguished teacher and master of the personal essay Now many of his essays have been assembled and arranged by Ripley Hugo the poet's widow and a writer and teacher and Lois and James Welch writers and close friends of the poet Together the essays constitute a compelling autobiographical narrative that takes Hugo from his lonely childhood through the war years and his working and creative life to an interview just before his death in 1982 William Matthews also a friend of Hugo's has written an introduction The Poetry Home Repair Manual Ted Kooser, 2007-03-01 Recently appointed as the new U S Poet Laureate Ted Kooser has been writing and publishing poetry for more than forty years In the pages of The Poetry Home Repair Manual Kooser brings those decades of experience to bear Here are tools and insights the instructions and warnings against instructions that poets aspiring or practicing can use to hone their craft perhaps into art Using examples from his own rich literary oeuvre and from the work of a number of successful contemporary poets the author schools us in the critical relationship between poet and reader which is fundamental to what Kooser believes is poetry's ultimate purpose to reach other people and touch their hearts Much more than a guidebook to writing and revising poems this manual has all the comforts and merits of a long and enlightening conversation with a wise and patient old friend a friend who is willing to share everything he's learned about the art he's spent a lifetime learning to execute so well Out West, 1904 Contains monthly column of the Sequoia League A Hard Journey James J. Lorence, 2007 A Hard Journey brings to life Don West poet ordained Congregationalist minister labour organizer educator leftist radical activist and one of the most important literary and political figures in the southern Appalachians during the middle years of the twentieth century Motivated by religious conviction and driven by a vision of an open democratic and non racist society West was also a passionate advocate for the region's traditional values Rather than focus on his literary achievements alone James J Lorence's biography balances his literary work with political and educational activities placing West's poetry in the context of his fight for social justice and racial equality Uncovering the ethical and religious roots of West's militant antifascism Lorence uses previously unexamined sources to explore his early involvement in organizing miners and other workers for the Socialist and Communist Parties during the 1930s In detailing West's participation in the Communist Party and founding role in the Highlander Folk School and other training grounds for radically cooperative democratic ways of living Lorence also describes West's lifelong commitment to defending mountain culture as an activist for exploited workers and the rural poor In documenting West's lifetime commitment to creating a non racist egalitarian South A Hard Journey furnishes the spotlight he deserves as a pioneering figure in twentieth century Southern radicalism Easte and West Poems Brett Harte, 2020-07-16 Reproduction of the original Easte and West Poems by Brett Harte East and West: Poems Bret Harte, 2019-07-02 Abandoned Way Out West Diana Burbano, 2021-01-01 a play by Diana Burbano with additional music by Tom Shelton Aquilina is a clever courageous and imaginative girl who leads a group of orphans in a recently abandoned wild west town The town should belong to a kindly if woolly headed widow who can't find the deed When three mysterious strangers appear to rescue the orphans and start a pie making business it looks like the orphans luck has finally changed But while the other kids take these kind strangers to heart Aquilina remains mistrustful and starts to poke her nose into the truth She discovers that two of the strangers belong to a vicious gang and are about to sell all the orphans into servitude and take the town for themselves They've also kidnapped a young girl and threaten do harm to the widow Aquilina with the help of the young kidnapped girl tricks the strangers into revealing themselves and uses her wits and a lemon cream pie to outsmart the gang and save the town Dramey Full length 60 70 minutes 15 35 actors gender flexible casting

Shutterbabe Deborah Copaken, 2002-01-08 NATIONAL BESTSELLER The remarkable memoir of an ambitious young photojournalist who went off to war as a twenty two year old girl and came back four years and many adventures later a woman Eloquent and well observed not only about the memoirist but about the world war death photojournalism and of course the worldwide battle between the sexes The Washington Post Book World In 1988 fresh out of Harvard Deborah Copaken Kogan moved to Paris with a small backpack a couple of cameras the hubris of a superhero and a strong thirst for danger She wanted to see what a war would look like when seen from up close Na vely she figured it would be easy to filter death through the prism of her wide angle lens She was dead wrong Within weeks of arriving in Paris after begging to be sent where the action was Kogan found herself on the back of a truck in Afghanistan her tiny frame veiled from head to toe the only woman and the only journalist in a convoy of rebel freedom fighters Kogan had not actually planned on shooting the Afghan war alone However the beguiling French photographer she d entrusted with both her itinerary and her heart turned out to be as dangerously unpredictable as well a war Kogan found herself running from one corner of the globe to another each linked to the man she was involved with at the time From Zimbabwe to Romania from Russia to Haiti Kogan takes her readers on a heartbreaking yet surprisingly hilarious journey through a mine strewn decade her personal battles against sexism battery and even rape blending seamlessly with the historical struggles of war revolution and unfathomable abuse it was her job to record In the end what was once adventurous to the girl began to weigh heavily on the woman Though she had finally been accepted into photojournalism s macho fraternity her photographs splashed across the front pages of international newspapers and magazines Kogan began to feel there was something more she was after Ultimately what she discovered in herself was a person a woman for whom life not death is the one true adventure to be cherished above all Village memoirs; Literary memoirs & epistolary correspondence; Poems Joseph Cradock,1828 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,2004

Witschi,2014-02-03 A Companion to the Literature and Culture of the American West presents a series of essays that explore the historic and contemporary cultural expressions rooted in America s western states Offers a comprehensive approach to the wide range of cultural expressions originating in the west Focuses on the intersections complexities and challenges found within and between the different historical and cultural groups that define the west s various distinctive regions Addresses traditionally familiar icons and ideas about the west such as cowboys wide open spaces and violence and their intersections with urbanization and other regional complexities Features essays written by many of the leading scholars in western American cultural studies

South West Scotland Tom Atkinson,2024-05-08 The lovely land of hills moors and beaches is bounded by the Atlantic and the Solway Steeped in history and legend still unspoiled it is a land whose peace and grandeur are at least comparable to the Highlands and yet it is hardly known No area of Scotland better repays exploration than this From the Auld Kirk of Alloway where tales of Tam O Shanter resound to the legends of St Ninian at one of Scotland s earliest Christian sites Whithorn this region is lovingly described by a local author who will explore with you the splendour of Culzean Castle and delights of Wanlockhead Scotland s highest village West/Border/Road

Katherine Ann Roberts,2018-04-18 The North American entertainment industry is rapidly consolidating and new modes of technological delivery challenge Canadian content regulations An understanding of how Canadian culture negotiates its rapport with American genres has never been more timely West Border Road offers an interdisciplinary analysis of contemporary Canadian manifestations of three American genres the western the border and the road It situates close readings of literary film and television narratives from both English Canada and Quebec within a larger context of Canadian generic borrowing and innovation Katherine Ann Roberts calls upon canonical works in Canadian studies theories of genre and a wide range of scholarship from border studies cultural studies and film studies to examine how genre is appropriated and sometimes reworked and how these cultural narratives engage with discourses of contemporary Canadian nationhood The author elucidates Guy Vanderhaeghe s rewriting of the codes of the historical western to include the trauma of Aboriginal peoples

Aritha van Herk's playful spoof on American western iconography, the politics and perils of the representation of the Canada-US border in CBC-produced crime television, and how the road genre inspires and constrains the Québécois and Canadian road movie. A reminder of the power and limitations of American genres, West Border Road provides a nuanced perspective on Canadian engagement with cultural forms that may be imported but never foreign.
