Brian Castro's Fiction ,      Transcultural Writers and Novels in the Age of Global Mobility Arianna

Dagnino,2015-06-30 In Transcultural Writers and Novels in the Age of Global Mobility Arianna Dagnino analyzes a new type of literature emerging from artists increased movement and cultural flows spawned by globalization This transcultural literature is produced by authors who write across cultural and national boundaries and who transcend in their lives and creative production the borders of a single culture Dagnino's book contains a creative rendition of interviews conducted with five internationally renowned writers Inez Baranay Brian Castro Alberto Manguel Tim Parks and Ilija Trojanow and a critical exegesis reflecting on thematic critical and stylistic aspects By studying the selected authors corpus of work life experiences and cultural orientations Dagnino explores the implicit often subconscious process of cultural and imaginative metamorphosis that leads transcultural writers and their fictionalized characters beyond ethnic national racial or religious loci of identity and identity formation Drawing on the theoretical framework of comparative cultural studies she offers insight into transcultural writing related to belonging hybridity cultural errancy the Other worldviews translanguaging deterritorialization neomadism as well as genre thematic patterns and narrative techniques Dagnino also outlines the implications of transcultural writing within the wider context of world literature s and identifies some of the main traits that characterize transcultural novels

Global Fragments Anke Bartels,Dirk Wiemann,2007 While the world seems to be getting ever smaller and globalization has become the ubiquitous buzz word regionalism and fragmentation also abound This might be due to the fact that far from being the alleged production of cultural homogeneity the global is constantly re defined and altered through the local This tension pervading much of contemporary culture has an obvious special relevance for the new varieties of English and the literature published in English world wide Postcolonial literatures exist at the interface of English as a hegemonic medium and its many national regional and local competitors that transform it in the new English literatures Thus any exploration of a globalization of cultures has to take into account the fact that culture is a complex field characterized by hybridization plurality and difference But while global or transnational cultures may allow for a new cosmopolitanism that produces ever changing fluid identities they do not give rise to an egalitarian global village an asymmetry between centre and periphery remains largely intact albeit along new parameters The essays collected in this volume offer readings of literary theoretical and filmic texts from the postcolonial world These texts are read as attempts to articulate the global with the local from a perspective of immersion in the actual diversity of life worlds focusing on such issues as consumption identity politics and modes of affiliation In this sense they are global fragments locally refracted figurations of an experience of world wide interconnectedness

H. Redmon, 2016-05-19 Every three minutes someone in the U S is diagnosed with a blood cancer like leukemia or lymphoma and Dr Redmon's son Victor was no exception Victor Redmon was a college student when he was diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukemia or ALL Victors Over Leukemia is the true story of his battle with and ultimate triumph over ALL a disease that not long ago was a nearly certain death sentence Dr Redmon pulls no punches as she shares her story through the eyes of Victor his family and his friends Experience the lowest of lows and the highest of highs as the family struggles to balance their lives with Victor's illness and Victor fights to fulfil his dream of going to medical school Whether you or a loved one is facing a life threatening illness like leukemia or you simply enjoy stories of faith and fortitude Victors Over Leukemia is a celebration of human triumph that will strengthen your spirit The Spirit of Science Fiction Roberto Bolaño, 2019-02-05 From a master of contemporary fiction a tale of bohemian youth on the make in Mexico City Two young poets Jan and Remo find themselves adrift in Mexico City Obsessed with poetry and above all with science fiction they are eager to forge a life in the literary world or sacrifice themselves to it Roberto Bolaño's The Spirit of Science Fiction is a story of youth hungry for revolution notoriety and sexual adventure as they work to construct a reality out of the fragments of their dreams But as close as these friends are the city tugs them in opposite directions Jan withdraws from the world shutting himself in their shared rooftop apartment where he feverishly composes fan letters to the stars of science fiction and dreams of cosmonauts and Nazis Meanwhile Remo runs headfirst into the future spending his days and nights with a circle of wild young writers seeking pleasure in the city's labyrinthine streets rundown cafés and murky bathhouses This kaleidoscopic work of strange and tender beauty is a fitting introduction for readers uninitiated into the thrills of Roberto Bolaño's fiction and an indispensable addition to an ecstatic and transgressive body of work     Against the Grain Lyn Jacobs, 2001 This is the first comprehensive critical study of Beverley Farmer's poetry prose and criticism in UQP's long running Studies in Australian Literature series Jacobs studies Farmer's work in relation to the dynamic changes in writing and reception that have occurred during Farmer's writing life     New York Magazine, 1994-02-21 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea     Silver Spring Ivy Kaminsky, 2013-11-19 Estefan is the man every man wants to be and every woman dreams of handsome successful and charming But then he falls in love and the trouble begins     The Perfect Stranger Anne Gracie, 2006-06-06 They vow to love honor cherish With her signature spirit Faith Merridew has left everything she's ever known for the man she thought was the love of her life Instead he leaves her name and dreams in the dust That is until she crosses paths with Nicholas Blacklock a Waterloo veteran who offers to save her reputation with a marriage of convenience and then get to know one other A hardened soldier Nick hides a deadly secret and tries to keep Faith at arm's length But even though Nick can command legions of men with a word his orders go sweetly ignored by his convenient bride And as they come to know one another more deeply she brings out in him things he thought dead gentleness laughter and love     Eagles of Destiny Jory Sherman,     The Politics and Aesthetics of Refusal Caroline Hamilton, Michelle Kelly, Elaine Minor, 2009-03-26 The Politics and Aesthetics of Refusal is an eclectic collection of essays from emerging academics who engage with the notion of refusal both as the embodiment of a resistance to conventional boundaries between academic disciplines and as a concept with an underlying negative or reactive force that can be widely interpreted and applied The applications of refusal outlined in this volume ranging from activism and the politics of cultural production through to problems of identity and knowledge classification raise questions about often elided relationships of agency and complicity in routine experience The sense of refusal that emerges from this book is perhaps most easily classified by what it is not namely a prescriptive conclusive or unified account of what it is to reject react or work against any particular instance of theory or practice in any given domain

The value of a thematically oriented collection like this is its ability to work across disciplines media and philosophical frameworks rather than limiting its focus to a narrow territory According to Herbert Marcuse refusal must not only be the guiding principle for all artistic creation it must also be a manifestation of artistic creation itself With this volume we have attempted to compose a collection which is not only theoretically guided by refusal but practically informed by it as well The collection in itself constitutes we hope a constructive rejection of the usual constrictions of discipline and approach placed upon new scholars This rich collection of essays on the political aesthetic and ethical dimensions of that form of social action called refusal is an important contribution to our understanding of the tensions and contradictions of contemporary culture

John Frow Professor of English Literary Studies at the University of Melbourne      Beyond Good and Evil? Dennis

Haskell, Megan McKinlay, Pamina Rich, 2005 At the beginning of the twenty first century are we balancing on an axis of good and evil How do the concepts of good and evil operate in the literature and culture of the Asia Pacific In this volume writers and scholars from the region examine subjects ranging from the Japanese evil of the Second World War to the appropriation of indigenous cultures and the ethics of biographical writing Although diverse the essays share an interest in the conflicts between relativism and fundamentalism and between uncertainty and sureness
