
Wedding Prayer by Robert Louis Stevenson

Lord, behold our family here assembled.
We thank you for this place in which we dwell,
 for the love that unites us, for the peace accorded us this day, for the hope with which we expect the morrow,
 for the health, the work, the food, and the bright skies that make our lives delightful;
for our friends in all parts of the earth.
 Amen.

Antioch, 1986-04 Quiet Time Poems David Edwin Hall, 2014-11-06 Every day there are treasures to be discovered by anyone who will honestly come to hear the voice of the Savior in his Word The Lord Jesus indicates that there is an added blessing for those who will write down the insights he gives by his instruction Every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old Matthew 13 52 The poems in this book are the result of going to the Bible each day with an expectation that God has something very valuable to say That expectation has NEVER been disappointed Our risen Lord said I stand at the door and knock If any man hears My voice and opens the door I will come into him and will sup with him and he with Me Revelation 3 20 This intimate two way communion with God is offered to all those who have received the Lord Jesus Christ John 1 12 and thereby have received not the spirit of the world but the Spirit which is of God that we might know the things that are freely given to us by God 1 Corinthians 2 12 My prayer is that God may use this book for his glory for the encouragement of his own children and for the persuasion of those who may yet be awakened to their need of our Savior Blessed is the man that heareth Me watching daily at My gates waiting at the post of My doors Proverbs 8 34 Heaven is waiting Dont miss it for the world

Poems, to which is added a memoir of the author James Montgomery,1861 Tennyson's Poems R. H. Winnick,2019-04-18 In Tennyson s Poems New Textual Parallels R H Winnick identifies more than a thousand previously unknown instances in which Tennyson phrases of two or three to as many as several words are similar or identical to those occurring in prior works by other hands discoveries aided by the proliferation of digitized texts and the related development of powerful search tools over the three decades since the most recent major edition of Tennyson s poems was published Each of these instances may be deemed an allusion meant to be recognized as such and pointing for definable purposes to a particular antecedent text an echo conscious or not deliberate or not meant to be noticed or not meaningful or not or merely accidental Unless accidental Winnick writes these new textual parallels significantly expand our knowledge both of Tennyson s reading and of his thematic intentions and artistic technique Coupled with the thousand plus textual parallels previously reported by Christopher Ricks and other scholars he says they suggest that a fundamental and lifelong aspect of Tennyson s art was his habit of echoing any work ancient or modern which had the potential to enhance the resonance or deepen the meaning of his poems The new textual parallels Winnick has identified point most often to the King James Bible and to such canonical authors as Shakespeare Milton Dryden Pope Thomson Cowper Shelley Byron and Wordsworth But they also point to many authors rarely if ever previously cited in Tennyson editions and studies including Michael Drayton Richard Blackmore Isaac Watts Erasmus Darwin John Ogilvie Anna Letitia Barbauld Letitia Elizabeth Landon John Wilson and with surprising frequency Felicia Hemans Tennyson's Poems New Textual Parallels is thus a major new resource for Tennyson scholars and students an indispensable adjunct to the 1987 edition of Tennyson's complete poems edited by Christopher Ricks Advocate and Family Guardian ,1872
