Lotus Born The Life Story Of Padmasambhava:

The Lotus-Born Yeshe Tsogyal, 2004 How often do you hear the story of a man who was immaculately born from within a lotus flower with a thousand petals in the middle of a lake having been sent as a meteor from the heart of the Buddha of Boundless light Lotus Born is the fabulous story of the mystic master scholar and outrageous yogi Padmasambhava the Lotus Born who grew up an adopted prince was banished burned at the stake in a neighboring kingdom and continued miraculously unscathed wandering through cemeteries dancing on corpses and proceeded to live more than five hundred years He is regarded by the most sane Tibetans as a real historical figure the founder of Buddhism in Tibet where he subjugated demons and taught the Buddha's teachings The complete story of how Buddhism was planted in Tibet is available in English for the first time with the publication of this book Lotus Born is a translation of a biography of the great master recorded in the ninth century by his foremost Tibetan disciple the princess Yeshe Tsogyal Many of these biographies were concealed as terma treasures to protect them against the changes of time

The Lotus-born Ye-shes-mtsho-rgyal, 1993 In English translation for the first time this is the most authoritative scripture regarding how the Dharma was planted in Tibet according to His Holiness Dilgo Khyentse Rinpoche Titles in the original Tibetan The Sanglingma Life Story it was recorded by the dakini Yeshe Tsogyal concealed in the ninth century at Sanglingma Copper Temple in Samye and revealed by Nyang Ral Nyima Oser in the twelfth century In addition to narrating the legendary story of a unique spiritual personality the book contains oral instructions and advice that he left for the benefit of future generations Also included are A Clarification of the Life of Padmasambhava by Tsele Natsok Rangdroum I an extensive glossary and index and a bibliography of Tibetan and English sources

Himalayas for centuries Remembering the Lotus-Born Daniel Hirshberg, 2016-10-25 Remembering the Lotus Born sheds light on the work of Nyangrel Nyima ser 1124 92 one of the most influential yet least known figures in the history of Tibetan Buddhism His pivotal work the Copper Island is the story of how the Indian tantric master Padmasambhava brought Buddhism to the region This work elevated Padmasambhava to central importance in Tibetan history and made treasure revelation and recognized reincarnations among the institutions that still define Tibetan culture Tibetan and Western scholars alike have long assumed that the Copper Island Biography of Padmasambhava was originally presented as a treasure text terma However investigating the sources of this narrative shows that rather than wholesale invention or simple revelation the Copper Island was a product of the Tibetan assimilation and innovation of core Indian Buddhist literary traditions These traditions were well known to Nyangrel who is renowned as the first of the great Buddhist treasure revealers Remembering the Lotus Born takes an unprecedented look at Nyangrel s work in the Copper Island including his contributions to hagiography reincarnation theory treasure recovery historiography Drawing all these threads together it concludes by comparing all the available versions of Nyangrel s Padmasambhava narrative to challenge long held assumptions and clarify its origin and transmission It received an Honorable Mention from the E Gene Smith Book Prize Competition in 2018 by the Association for Asian Studies

The Copper-Colored Mountain Jigme Lingpa, 2022-11-01 A translation of Jigme Lingpa s eighteenth century Tibetan Buddhist aspiration prayer for taking rebirth in the pure land Copper Colored Mountain accompanied by a commentary and analysis by the translators While Pure Land Buddhism is generally thought of as an East Asian tradition with an Indian origin the Copper Colored Mountain is in fact the first and only pure land with scriptural origins entirely in the Tibetan tradition It represents Tibetan culture's fascinating intersection of traditional history with liturgical tantric practice. The Copper Colored Mountain is understood to be the current abode of Padmasambhava, the Indian master credited with first bringing Buddhism to Tibet and founding Tibet's first monastery, Samye. After leaving Tibet, it is said that Padmasambhava set up residence on Cmara, one of the two islands on either side of the continent of Jambudvīpa, our world according to Buddhist cosmology. After taming the resident ogres of Cmara and converting them to Buddhism, he then built an octagonal palace where Buddhist practitioners may be transported in visions and dreams or reborn through aspiration prayers. This work is a translation and analysis of one such aspiration prayer. This prayer was composed by Jigme Lingpa, a treasure revealer of the Nyingma tradition in the eighteenth century and remains the most important prayer to this pure land in Tibetan Buddhism. Merging academic precision in representing the Tibetan texts and devotion to the principles of tantric Buddhism, translators Georgios T. Halkias and Christina Partsalaki enable a wider appreciation of the history and impact of this prayer in Tibetan Buddhist literature while elucidating its meaning for Buddhist practitioners.

The Taming of the Demons Jacob P. Dalton, 2011-06-28
The Taming of the Demons examines mythic and ritual themes of violence, demon taming and blood sacrifice in Tibetan Buddhism. Taking as its starting point Tibet's so-called age of fragmentation, 842 to 986 C.E., the book draws on previously unstudied manuscripts discovered in the library cave near Dunhuang on the old Silk Road. These ancient documents, it argues, demonstrate how this purportedly inactive period in Tibetan history was in fact crucial to the Tibetan assimilation of Buddhism and particularly to the spread of violent themes from tantric Buddhism into Tibet at the local and the popular levels. Having shed light on this dark age of Tibetan history, the second half of the book turns to how, from the late tenth century onward, the period came to play a vital symbolic role in Tibet as a violent historical other against which the Tibetan Buddhist tradition defined itself.

An Atlas of the Himalayas by a 19th Century Tibetan Lama Diana Lange,2020-06-08 Diana Lange s patient investigations have in this wonderful piece of detective work solved the mysteries of six extraordinary panoramic maps of routes across Tibet and the Himalayas clearly hand drawn in the late 1850s by a local artist known as the British Library s Wise Collection Diana Lange now reveals not only the previously unknown identity of the Scottish colonial official who commissioned the maps from a Tibetan Buddhist lama but also the story of how the Wise Collection came to be in the British Library The result is both a spectacular illustrated ethnographic atlas and a unique compendium of knowledge concerning the mid 19th century Tibetan world as well as a remarkable account of an academic journey of discovery It will entertain and inform anyone with an interest in this fascinating region This large format book is lavishly illustrated in colour and includes four separate large foldout maps Tibetan Diary Geoff Childs,2004-09-27 High in the Nepali Himalaya are a number of ethnic Tibetan communities Geoff Childs presents a portrait of Nubri Kutang in which he chronicles the daily lives of community members in all their tangled intricacies Roaming Free Like a Deer Daniel Capper,2022-03-15 By exploring lived ecological experiences across seven Buddhist worlds from ancient India to the contemporary West Roaming Free Like a Deer provides a comprehensive critical and innovative examination of the theories practices and real world results of Buddhist environmental ethics Daniel Capper clarifies crucial contours of Buddhist vegetarianism or meat eating nature mysticism and cultural speculations about spirituality in nonhuman animals Buddhist environmental ethics often are touted as useful weapons in the fight against climate change. However, two formidable but often overlooked problems with this perspective exist. First, much of the literature on Buddhist environmental ethics uncritically embraces Buddhist ideals without examining the real world impacts of those ideals, thereby sometimes ignoring difficulties in terms of practical applications. Moreover, for some understandable but still troublesome reasons, Buddhists from different schools follow their own environmental ideals without conversing with other Buddhists, thereby minimizing the abilities of Buddhists to act in concert on issues such as climate change that demand coordinated large scale human responses. With its accessible style and personhood ethics orientation, Roaming Free Like a Deer should appeal to anyone who is concerned with how human beings interact with the nonhuman environment.

Cross-Cultural Perspectives on Hagiographical Strategies Massimo A. Rondolino, 2017-01-12. This book examines the potential of conducting studies in comparative hagiology through parallel literary and historical analyses of spiritual life writings pertaining to distinct religious contexts. In particular, it focuses on a comparative analysis of the early sources on the medieval Christian Saint Francis of Assisi (1182-1226) and the Tibetan Buddhist Milarepa (c. 1052-1135) up to and including the so-called standard versions of their life stories written by Bonaventure of Bagnoregio (1221-1274) and Tsangnyen Heruka (1452-1507) respectively. The book thus demonstrates how, in the social and religious contexts of both 1200s Italy and 1400s Tibet, narratives of the lives, deeds, and teachings of two individuals recognized as spiritual champions were seen as the most effective means to promote spiritual, doctrinal, and political agendas. Therefore, as well being highly relevant to those studying hagiographical sources, this book will be of interest to scholars working across the fields of religion and the comparative study of religious phenomena as well as history and literature in the pre-modern period.
