Photographe de mode le jour photographe de rue la nuit cette formule simpliste rend bien compte de ce que fut la vie professionnelle de Faurer dans les années 50      Louis Faurer Anne Tucker, Louis Faurer, Lisa Hostetler, Kathleen V. Jameson, Addison Gallery of American Art, Museum of Photographic Arts (San Diego, Calif.), Art Institute of Chicago, Philadelphia Museum of Art, 2002 Faurer also worked as a fashion photographer for nearly thirty years producing work for Harper's Bazaar Vogue and Flair with a particular gift for highlighting his subjects' ephemeral grace He was a lasting influence on Robert Frank and other members of the New York school of photography This book the first to examine Faurer's work in depth and bring it to a modern readership draws together a great deal of previously unpublished material as well as images not seen since they originally appeared in magazines in the 1940s and 1950s BOOK JACKET      Louis Faurer ,      Louis Faurer Anne Tucker, Lisa Hostetler, Kathleen V. Jameson, 2002-01-01      Louis Faurer Maurice Faurer, 1981      Louis Faurer , 2016 This book is the first in fifteen years to present the largely overlooked work of Louis Faurer who depicted the melancholy streets of New York in the 1940s and 50s and whom Walter Hopps has described as a master of his medium Faurer initially worked for fashion magazines such as Harper's Bazaar in New York but soon focused his eye on the enchanting city itself Everywhere a new discovery awaited me Here Faurer made poetic darkly romantic images of the characters of the street often the poor and lonely amidst the bustle of Times Square during what he called its hypnotic dusk light Inspired by Walker Evans Faurer developed a personal highly empathetic vision comparable to that of Robert Frank with whom he shared a loft and darkroom in his early New York days Faurer solidified his ironic brooding aesthetic in the 50s often employing graphic contrasts reflections and distortions which show the influence of film noir and deepen his exploration of the psychology of the individual My eyes search for people who are grateful for life people who forgive and whose doubts have been removed who understand the truth whose enduring spirit is bathed by such piercing light as to provide their present and future with hope I have an intense desire to record life as I see it as I feel it As long as I am amazed and astonished as long as I feel that events messages expressions and movements are all shot through with the miraculous I'll feel filled with the certainty I need to keep going When that day comes my doubts will vanish Louis Faurer
