The Waking Dream Maria Morris Hambourg, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1993 The 253 works in the exhibition many of them rare or unique and all of exceptional print quality have been culled from the more than five thousand that comprise the legendary but seldom exhibited Gilman Paper Company Collection the most important private collection of photographs in the world The Bible and the Image Yeshayahu Nir, 2017-01-30 This book is a volume in the Penn Press

Photographs and Architecture Micheline Nilsen, 2017-07-05 Eschewing the limiting idea that nineteenth-century architecture photography merely reflects functionality the objective of this collection is to reflect the aesthetic intellectual and cultural concerns of the time The essays hold appeal for social and cultural historians as well as those with an interest in the fields of art history urban geography history of travel and tourism Nineteenth-century photographers captured what could be seen and what they wanted to be seen Their images informed of exploration progress heritage and destruction Architecture was a staple subject for the first generation of photographers as it patiently tolerated the long exposures of the early processes During its formative decades photography responded to evolutionary cultural forces of market and artistic production Photographs of architecture reflected a specific political or social context modulated through individual points of view For this reason the examination of each photographic image as a primary visual document and an aesthetic object rather than a technical milestone on a chronological trajectory affords a richer multi-faceted approach to the extensive and complex corpus of photographs taken by photographers all over the world This project acknowledges the importance of technique in the early decades of photography but focuses on the thematic content of the material It places the photography of architecture in an international context under the contemporary critical lens sharpened by theoretical and cultural examinations of the topic Revealing the Holy Land Kathleen Stewart Howe, Santa Barbara Museum of Art, St. Louis Art Museum, 1997 This is the catalog for an exhibition of ninety nineteenth-century photographs drawn primarily from the world-class collection of Michael G. Wilson Included are the starkly beautiful photographs of Sergeant James McDonald's surveys of Palestine and Jerusalem recently discovered photographs by Ernest Benecke and the rare photographs by Maxime Du Camp taken in 1850 as he traveled with Flaubert With the invention of photography and the increasing popularity of travel in the mid-nineteenth century the Holy Land became one of the most photographed places on earth Interest in Jerusalem and Palestine was particularly pronounced in England partly because of England's need to control its routes to the riches of India but also because of Britain's cultural identification with the people and lands of the Bible Imperial ambition and deeply ingrained cultural associations resulted in a surge of photographic activity in Palestine McDonald's photographs from surveys of Jerusalem and the Sinai epitomize the dual imperatives of Bible and Empire Photography provided a new standard for authenticity in pictorial representations Early photographs were considered the ultimate bearers of reality at a time when viewers had not yet lost their naive faith in the objective accuracy of photography Throughout the last half of the nineteenth century the Holy Land drew legions of photographers amateurs recording a stop on the Grand Tour academics pursuing archaeological theories military surveyors all trying to capture the truthfulness of a land that had enormous spiritual emotional and political connotations for most of the Western world What they saw and how they saw it are the themes of this beautifully recorded collection

Collection de Clercq M. de Clercq (Louis), Joachim Menant, 1904      Inside/Outside Islamic Art and Architecture Saygin Salgirli, 2021-07-29

When we walk into a gallery we have a fairly good idea where the building begins and ends and inside while observing a painting we are equally confident in distinguishing between the painting proper and its frame and borders Yet things are often more complicated A building defines an exterior space just as much as an interior and what we perceive to be ornamental and marginal to a given painting may in fact be central to what it represents In this volume a simple question is presented instead of dichotomous separations between inside and outside or exterior and interior what other relationships can we think of The first book of its kind to grapple with this question Inside Outside Islamic Art and Architecture focuses on a wide spectrum of mediums and topics including painted manuscripts objects architectural decoration architecture and urban planning and photography Bringing together scholars with diverse methodologies who work on a geographical span stretching from India to Spain and Nigeria and across a temporal spectrum from the thirteenth to the twenty first century this original book also poses engaging questions about the boundaries of the field

La Santa Casa di Loreto Ilario Rinieri, 1911      Unthinking Eurocentrism Ella Shohat, Robert Stam, 2014-06-05 Unthinking Eurocentrism a seminal and award winning work in postcolonial studies first published in 1994 explored Eurocentrism as an interlocking network of buried premises embedded narratives and submerged tropes that constituted a broadly shared epistemology Within a transdisciplinary study the authors argued that the debates about Eurocentrism and post coloniality must be considered within a broad historical sweep that goes at least as far back as the various 1492s the Inquisition the Expulsion of Jews and Muslims the Conquest of the Americas and the Transatlantic slave trade a process which culminates in the post War attempts to radically decolonize global culture Ranging over multiple geographies the book deprovincialized media cultural studies through a polycentric approach while analysing in depth such issues as postcolonial hybridity antinomies of Enlightenment the tropes of empire gender and rescue fantasies the racial politics of casting and the limitations of positive image analysis

The substantial new afterword in this 20th anniversary new edition brings these issues into the present by charting recent transformations of the intellectual debates as terms such as the transnational the commons indigeneity and the Red Atlantic have come to the fore The afterword also explores some cinematic trends such as indigenous media and postcolonial adaptations that have gained strength over the past two decades along with others such as Nollywood that have emerged with startling force Winner of the Katherine Kovacs Singer Best Film Book Award the book has been translated in full or in its entirety into diverse languages from Spanish to Farsi This expanded edition of a ground breaking text proposes analytical grids relevant to a wide variety of fields including postcolonial studies literary studies anthropology media studies cultural studies and critical race studies

El arte español entre Roma y París (siglos XVIII y XIX) Luis Sazatornil Ruiz, Frédéric Jiménez, 2014-07-24 Francia Italia y España conforman uno de los escenarios más atractivos del arte europeo en los siglos XVIII y XIX La particularidad de estos dos siglos desde el último barroco hasta el umbral de las vanguardias es justamente el papel protagonista de Roma y París en la construcción de una Europa de las artes Los estudios reunidos en este libro colectivo permiten situar el arte español en esta compleja red internacional de transferencias construida en torno a las dos metrópolis culturales europeas El elocuente ejemplo de las relaciones entre España y las capitales del arte europeo con especial incidencia en la circulación de artistas ideas y obras permite confirmar el carácter renovador de la Roma del Setecientos y evaluar el dominio de París en la escena artística del siglo XIX El propósito es en definitiva superar las visiones nacionales y subrayar la importancia de los ejes de circulación e intercambio que vertebraban Europa en la transición del sistema artístico entre las épocas moderna y contemporánea
