Louise Imogen Guiney Eva Mabel Tenison,1923? The Poetry of American Women from 1632 to 1945 Emily Stipes

Watts,2014-09-10 American women have created an especially vigorous and innovative poetry beginning in 1632 when Anne Bradstreet set aside her needle and picked up her poet's pen The topics of American women poets have been various their images their own and their modes of expression original Emily Stipes Watts does not imply that the work of American men and that of American women are two different kinds of poetry although they have been treated as such in the past It is her aim rather to delineate and define the poetic tradition of women as crucial to the understanding of American poetry as a whole By 1850 American women of all colors religions and social classes were writing and publishing poetry Within the critical category of female poetry developed from 1800 to 1850 these women experimented boldly and prepared the way for the achievement of such women as Emily Dickinson in the second half of the nineteenth century Indeed at times for example from 1860 through 1910 it was women who were at the outer edge of prosodic experimentation and innovation in American poetry Moving chronologically Professor Watts broadly characterizes the state of American poetry for each period citing the dominant male poets she then focuses on women contemporaries singling out and analyzing their best work This volume not only brings to light several important women poets but also represents the discovery of a tradition of women writers This is a unique and invaluable contribution to the history of American literature Catholic Women Writers Mary

Reichardt,2001-07-30 Women have been writing in the Catholic tradition since early medieval times yet no single volume has brought together critical evaluations of their works until now The first reference of its kind Catholic Women Writers provides entries on 64 Catholic women writers from around the world and across the centuries Each of the entries is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography of the author a critical discussion of her works especially her Catholic and women's themes an overview of her critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources Authors writing in all genres including fiction autobiography poetry children's literature and essays are represented The entries give special attention to the authors use of Catholic themes structures traditions culture and spirituality The writers surveyed range from Doctors of the Church to mystics and visionaries to those who employ Catholic themes primarily in historical and cultural contexts to those who critique the tradition An introductory essay places the writers within the historical and literary contexts of women's writing in the Catholic tradition and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Louise

Imogen Guiney Alice Brown,1921 The Publishers Weekly ,1923 The Nation and Athenæum ,1923 The Nation and the Athenæum ,1923 Separatism and Subculture Paula M. Kane,2017-10-10 Kane explores the role of religious identity in Boston in the years 1900 1920 arguing that Catholicism was a central integrating force among different class and ethnic groups She traces the effect of changing class status on religious identity and solidarity and she delineates the social and cultural meaning of Catholicism in a city where Yankee Protestant nativism persisted even as its hegemony was in decline Books of 1912- ,1922 Bulletin [1908-23] Boston Public Library,1923 Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library,1923 The Quest ,1922 The Literature of the American People Arthur Hobson Quinn,1951 Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature ,1922 Includes both books and articles Bibliography of English Language and Literature ,1923 News Notes of California Libraries California State Library,1924 Volumes for 1971 include annual reports and statistical summaries Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired 1881/1900-.
