Reparations and the Human David L. Eng, 2025-03-21 The Holocaust and the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki invoked in graphic terms the specter of total human destruction In response a new international order of reparations and human rights arose from the ashes of World War II This legal regime sought to subrogate the sovereignty of the nation state in order to defend the sovereignty of the human being While the Holocaust's history is settled Nazis were perpetrators and Jews were victims there remains little historical consensus as to the victims and perpetrators of the atomic bombings In Reparations and the Human David L Eng investigates a history of reparations across the Transpacific He analyzes how concepts of reparation established during colonial settlement and the European Enlightenment shape contemporary configurations of the human and human rights determining who can be recognized as victims who must be seen as perpetrators and who deserves repair As demands for reparations now occupy center stage in debates concerning unresolved legacies of dispossession and Transatlantic slavery Eng considers how the Cold War Transpacific provides a limit case for the politics of repair and definitions of the human Melanie Klein Deborah P. Britzman, 2015-11-07 This volume introduces the psychoanalyst Melanie Klein to the general field of education and traces her theories of mental life as an emotional situation through to problems of self other relations in our own time The case is made for Klein's relevance and the difficulties her theories pose to the activities of learning and pedagogical relation Klein's vocabulary the paranoid schizoid and depressive positions phantasy object relations projective identification anxiety envy and the urge for reparation and gratitude are discussed in terms of their evolution and the designs of her main questions all stemming from the problem of inhibition Her contribution to an understanding of symbolization and the shift from concrete thinking to greater freedom of mind is analyzed The essay develops the following questions why is learning an emotional situation How did Klein's life and larger history influence her views What are her central theories of mental life Why did Klein focus on anxiety and phantasies as making up the life of the mind What is object relations theory And what does Klein s model of the self proffer to contemporary education in schools and in universities
