The Heart Has Its Reasons Beata Toth, 2016-05-26 The Heart Has Its Reasons explores a hitherto neglected area of theological anthropology the unity of human emotion and reason embodied in the Biblical concept of the heart While the theological contours of human rationality have long been clearly drawn and presented as the exclusive seat of the image of God affectivity has been relegated to a secondary position With the reintegration of the body into recent philosophical and theological discourses a number of questions have arisen if the image also resides in the body how does this change one's view of the theological significance of human affect In what way is our likeness to God realised in the whole of what we are Can one overcome the traditional dissociation between intellect and affect by a renewed theory of love In conversation with patristic and medieval authors like Irenaeus Tertullian Gregory of Nyssa Maximus and Thomas Aquinas and in dialogue with more recent interlocutors such as Blaise Pascal Ricoeur Marion Milbank and John Paul II Beata Toth pursues a novel theological vision of the essential unity of our humanity

Learning to Love Others Richard Peace, 2015-04-28 At the heart of Jesus' call to us is the call to love others. But this can be so difficult. For one thing, others are not always very lovable; for another, loving others sometimes gets in the way of our own self-interests. But if we want to follow Jesus, love needs to be our lifestyle, and the way we treat others really does matter. It's not all sacrifice and pain, though. To be in loving relationship with others is to be truly alive, and it's the source of our greatest joy. This study will help you love others the way Jesus desires. You'll learn how to study the Bible as you examine and discuss topics such as Loving Others, Loving Our Families, Fellowship with Others, Getting Along with Others, Opposition from Others, Sharing Our Faith with Others, Serving Others. Each chapter has three main sections: Group Study materials for a sixty to ninety minute small group Bible study; Study Resources: notes and comments for use in both group and personal study; Personal Study: a series of reflection questions for use by group members on their own during the week. Extra help is available at the end of the book in the sections: The Art of Leadership: tips on how to lead a small group; and Small Group Leader's Guide: notes on each session. The goal of PILGRIMAGE GUIDES is to understand what it means for us to meet and know Jesus. Through an examination of the spiritual disciplines of Bible study, prayer, and worship, we experience what it means to be a spiritual pilgrim walking in a new way with God. And we look at how this new way changes the way we view others and live our lives in Christ. PILGRIMAGE GUIDES: Learning to Love God, Learning to Love Ourselves, Learning to Love Others.

Love... and Death Abraham Kaplan, 2025-10-01 In these eleven talks originally presented as the highly acclaimed television series The Worlds of Abraham Kaplan, a great teacher discusses the most important questions of traditional and contemporary human experience. Dr. Kaplan's views reflect a deep concern for human dignity and a sensitive awareness of the obstacles which often hinder our self-understanding, our relationships, and our happiness. With wisdom and humane wit, Kaplan deals with the attitudes and emotions which many of us feel but which few of us can articulate. On Women, the kind of discrimination which makes a problem for women, blacks, Catholics, Jews, Chicanos, and all sorts of minorities and special groups in our society, is this: they are responded to differently in situations in which the differences make no difference. On Religion, authentic religious life in all cultures and all faiths is something that comes out of the fullness of a man's heart. It is a gift in which we express our love rather than something which comes out of the poverty of our lives as a demand that something be given to us

On Morals the great moral leaders of mankind the prophets the teachers the martyrs they have been the very men and women who made trouble

On Technology We talk of modern technology as a Frankenstein monster that threatens to destroy us the symbol is perhaps better than is often appreciated Frankenstein was not the name of the monster Frankenstein was the name of the human being who created the monster

On Loneliness I believe that one of the tragedies of our time is that if we have no other way of relating to others we do so by violence

On Aging In many ways it is the old that are to be envied by the young they have so much less to lose that often they are capable of much more dedication and commitment to the values ideals and principles which provide meaning to all our lives

On Death To die in a manner that is worthy of a human being is to die with a sense of one's identity as the human being he is as the locus of all the human values which intersect which come to a meeting point in his being as an embodiment of human dignity

With Abraham Kaplan as Alfred Slote notes in his Foreword the reader is in the hands of a master teacher a philosopher a gadfly and a delightful and impassioned storyteller

Love and Death is a book to own to ponder and to give to friends you cherish      Toward a Psychology of Awakening John Welwood, 2002-02-12 A guide to understanding the relationship between Western psychology and the contemplative spirituality of the East and how one's spiritual journey can be enriched by both

How can we connect the spiritual realizations of Buddhism with the psychological insights of the West

In Toward a Psychology of Awakening John Welwood addresses this question with comprehensiveness and depth building on his innovative psychospiritual approach to health healing and spirituality

He covers the following topics

- What can the spiritual methodologies of the East teach us about psychological health
- What issues arise when the recognition of our larger nature challenges our very conception of individual self
- What new directions become possible when psychological work is undertaken in a spiritual context
- How does Western psychological understanding affect our approach to spirituality

Welwood's psychology of awakening brings together three major dimensions of human existence personal interpersonal and suprapersonal in one overall framework of understanding and practice

Sanctified and Consecrated for Spiritual Ministry Zacharias Tanee Fomum, 2015-12-30 God has done everything He had to do for the sanctification of the believer

In this book Professor Fomum delves into the believer's responsibility to do what he must do in order to practically experience sanctification

It is up to the believer to take all necessary steps to make evident the new quality of life that God is showing him

Sanctified and Consecrated for Spiritual Ministry shows you step by step how to place at the disposal of the Lord a pure and available vessel that is yourself which he can use in His service at His discretion anywhere anytime and for any purpose

If you are not sanctified you don't have the kind of quality vessel that God needs to be consecrated to Him

If you are sanctified but are not consecrated God can't use you for astounding and outstanding spiritual ministry

The content of this book is therefore fundamental for all those who are called to a narrow walk with God and to spiritual ministry for Him

This book if strictly applied will make you an effective and useful minister in the hands of the Lord      The Journal of a Disappointed Man W. N. P. Barbellion, 1919      Love in Contemporary British Drama Korbinian Stöckl, 2021-01-18 Despite the recent turn to affects and emotions in the humanities and despite the unceasing popularity of romantic and erotic love as a motif in fictional works of all genres the subject has received surprisingly little attention in academic studies of contemporary drama Love in Contemporary British Drama reflects the appeal of love as a topic and driving force in dramatic works with in depth analyses of eight pivotal plays from the past three decades Following an interdisciplinary and historical approach the study collects and condenses theories of love from philosophy and sociology to derive persisting discourses and to examine their reoccurrence and transformation in contemporary plays Special emphasis is put on narratives of love s compensatory function and precariousness and on how modifications of these narratives epitomise the peculiarities of emotional life in the social and cultural context of the present Based on the assumption that drama is especially inclined to draw on shared narratives for representations of love the book demonstrates that love is both a window to remnants of the past in the present and a proper subject matter for drama in times in which the suitability of the dramatic form has been questioned      Biblical Sermons Haddon W. Robinson, 1997-02-01 Haddon Robinson s method as presented in Biblical Preaching is employed in twelve expository messages offering concrete examples of how experienced preachers have made Robinson s homiletical principles work for them Robinson comments on each expository message interviews each preacher and contributes a sermon of his own The book shows how successfully his method of developing sermons can be adapted to different contexts      In Their Shoes Grace Halsell, 2013-05-31 Probably no American journalist man or woman has had a more extraordinary career than Grace Halsell Before President Lyndon Johnson personally hired her to work in the White House Halsell had over a period of two decades written her way around the world Europe the Middle East Africa the Orient and the Americas Born on the windswept plains of West Texas Halsell was encouraged from the age of five by her pioneer father who had led cattle drives on the Chisolm Trail to travel to get the benefit of knowing other peoples She began her travels at the age of twenty going first to Mexico and then touring the British Isles by bicycle Halsell studied at the Sorbonne in Paris and lived in London Tokyo Berlin and Seoul In Hong Kong where she lived on a fishing junk with a Chinese family of nineteen she wrote a column for the Tiger Standard in Tokyo where she slept on tatami mats ate raw fish and took scalding ofuro baths she was a columnist for the Japan Times Moving to South America she traveled on a tug for 2 000 miles down the Amazon and crossed the Andes by jeep In Lima she became a columnist for the Spanish language daily La Prensa Halsell has seen the Big Buddha the Taj Mahal the pyramids and the Machu Picchu has interviewed presidents movie stars kings and prime ministers Her newspaper dispatches for the New York Herald Tribune the New York Post and the Christian Science Monitor have datelined war zones in Korea Vietnam and Bosnia as well as Russia China Macedonia and Albania      Love Letters: Great Literary Romances Steven Payne, 2012-05-31 In the hands of a genius a love letter can become a great even an immortal work of literature in its

Solomon, 2010-12-08 Love our hearts yearn for it we fall into it or out of it we ll do almost anything to attain and keep it Those who have experienced the power of love whirl from its embrace It is delicious anguish gut wrenching pain and intoxicating allure Nations go to war over it crimes are committed to satisfy its demands lives are often ruined because of it and extraordinary feats of courage and sacrifice are performed in its name But beyond the cliches and greeting card platitudes do we really understand what love is and how it alters the way we think feel and behave Should love be viewed as little more than a lusty romp or is there more to it What is the relationship between love and romance caring concern compassion thoughtfulness sex and the many other components that our society jumbles together in this potent potpourri whose power can give strength to the weakest among us or turn powerhouses of strength into emotional mush It is precisely because love is such an important part of our lives that we owe it to ourselves to reach beyond overwhelming passion and the roadblocks of illusion to achieve real understanding of this extraordinary human phenomenon It won t always be easy in fact it s sometimes quite painful But the rewards are many for those who will risk exploring their own cherished attitudes about a subject that has held us in its grip for centuries and shows no signs of letting go Some of the topics covered are What I Feel in My Heart On the Alleged Origins of Romantic Love What Do I Want When I Want You Why Do I Love You The Importance of Being Honest Love Sex and Intimacy Beyond Sex and Gender What s So Good About Love Catalog of Copyright Entries.
