Come Matter Here Hannah Brencher,2018-05-29 Come Matter Here is a call to stop putting your life on hold until someday and start digging your heels into the here and now to build the life God has designed for you Life is scary Adulthood is hard When faced with the challenges of building a life of your own it's all too easy to stake your hope and happiness in someday But what if the dotted lines on the map at your feet today mattered just as much as the destination you dream of Hannah Brencher TED Talk speaker and founder of The World Needs More Love Letters thought Atlanta was her destination Yet even after she arrived she found herself in the same old chase for the next best thing somewhere else And it left her in a state of anxiety and deep depression Our hyper connected era has led us to believe life should be a highlight reel where what matters most is perfect beauty instant success and ready applause Yet as Hannah learned nothing about faith relationships or character is instant So she took up a new mantra be where your feet are Give yourself a permission slip to stop chasing the next big thing and come matter here Engage the process as much as you trust the God who lovingly leads you If you are tired of running away from your life or tired of running ragged toward the next thing you think will make you feel complete Come Matter Here will help you do whatever it takes to show up for the life God has for you Whether you need to make a brave U turn take a bold step forward or finish the next lap with fresh courage find fuel and inspiration for the journey right here

Queer Opera Andrew Sutherland, 2023-03-27 In Queer Opera Andrew Sutherland argues that operas often reflect characteristics of the society and episteme in which they are written but that they also do much more than that operas have agency LGBTQ social cultural and political issues have become an increasingly defining feature of twenty first century life and as agency for change composers have turned to opera to underscore the lived queer experience Sutherland posits that operas written before the sexual revolution of the mid twentieth century utilized a codified language both in the libretto and score communicating with those observers open to a queer reading He explores the growing trend of local small scale independent opera companies seen around the world towards the end of the first decade of the twenty first century and argues that this has emboldened queer artists to reclaim opera as a queer space He further argues that for several centuries opera houses have been safe havens for queer composers librettists performers and designers and yet it is only relatively recently that any serious attempt at queer representation in operatic works has begun to be realized In this book he examines narratives and music of selected operas to walk through queer history in Western societies and shines a light on how many of opera's well known characters based on historical figures who represent pivotal moments in the queer story are responsible in a variety of ways for the continued struggle for queer acceptance

Cruise the World for $50 a Day H. C. Byler Jr., 2008-06 In this Thirty Days of Focus Prayer Apostle R Joshua Mitchell carefully unfolds key passages from the Bible demonstrating how to be a prayer asking Christ Jesus to teach us to pray understanding that men must always pray and not faint The apostolic prayer strategies found in this book will draw the reader more into becoming a prayer and not just praying when things happen or when you want something from the Lord You will be a prayer meeting The time has come when all Christians must realize the power of prayer knowing the way Jesus prayed which was authoritative powerful prayers that Heaven heard and always responded to and these prayers removed the power of darkness wherever it existed

Letters on the Practice of Abandonment to Divine Providence S.J. de Caussade, 2015-08-24 Jean Pierre de Caussade of the Society of Jesus in France was one of the most remarkable spiritual writers in the 18th Century His works have gone through many editions and have been republished and translated into several foreign languages First Book On the Esteem for and Love of This Virtue Second Book On the Exercise of the Virtue of Abandonment Third Book On the Obstacles to Abandonment Fourth Book The First Trials of Souls Called to the State of Abandonment Aridities Weaknesses and Weariness Fifth Book Fresh Trials Sufferings and Privations Sixth Book On the Continuation of Trials and Fear of the Anger Of God Seventh Book The Last Trials Agony and Mystical Death The Fruit Thereof My Song: Memoir of an ER Physician Craig Dean, MD, 2014-05-12 Thirty years in the making one hundred thousand patients later the hundred numinous patients I will forever treasure It has been said that memoirs are the narratives of our life and as such become the manner and method of how we make sense out of our life s journey Indeed I could not imagine my life without my career in the ER since without it I would truly feel like a naked wizened skeleton devoid of skin flesh or viscera The ER experience was the alchemist s stone that touched my ordinary life and in so many ways made it exquisitely gilded Many were the patients that stirred the invisible fabric of my soul and made the ordinary universe seem so much more expansive and unequalled The magnificence of the ER flows from the commanding variety of patients not unlike the arresting diversity of flora in the plant kingdom renders a regal awe upon the eyes and souls of the beholder Jeanne Devereaux, Prima Ballerina of Vaudeville and Broadway Kathleen Menzie Lesko, 2017-05-10 International vaudeville star and Broadway prima ballerina Jeanne Devereaux performed for millions across America and Europe from age eleven until her retirement at forty A headliner at Radio City Music Hall she led a large group of performers on one of the first USO Camp Shows tours to Japan Born Jean Helman she entered showbiz as a dancing trouper performing in palatial theaters and was one of the last vaudevillians surviving into the 2010s In her later years living in Pasadena California Devereaux indulged her passion for research and writing in the Huntington Library s Rothenberg Reading Room losing none of her intelligence and wit despite a fading memory Drawing on personal interviews theatrical programs and her diary and letters this biography illuminates the life and career of one of vaudeville s stars of stage film and television Lincoln Legends Edward Steers, 2007-10-12 Succinctly and eloquently debunks 14 popular myths about the Great Emancipator s life and death with solid documentation Publishers Weekly In the more than 150 years since his death Abraham Lincoln has become America s most revered president The mythmaking about this self made man began early some of it starting during his campaign for the presidency in 1860 As an American icon Lincoln has been the subject of speculation and inquiry as authors and researchers have examined every aspect personal and professional of the president s life In Lincoln Legends noted historian and Lincoln expert Edward Steers Jr carefully scrutinizes some of the most notorious tall tales and distorted ideas about America s sixteenth president Did he write his greatest speech on the back of an envelope on the way to Gettysburg Did he appear before a congressional committee to defend his wife against charges of treason Was he an illegitimate child Did he have romantic encounters with women other than his wife or love affairs with men What really happened in the weeks leading up to April 14 1865 and in the aftermath of Lincoln s tragic assassination Lincoln Legends evaluates the evidence on all sides of the many heated debates about the Great Emancipator and also traces the often fascinating evolution of flawed theories about Lincoln and the motivations of the individuals occasionally sincere but more often cynical self serving and nefarious who are responsible for their dispersal Based on extensive primary research Lincoln Legends will settle many of the enduring questions and persistent myths about Lincoln s life once and for all Fascinating reading Tucson Citizen

The Life and Letters of Father Bertrand Wilberforce of the Order of Preachers Bertrand Wilberforce, Mother Mary Reginald, 1906 The Doubled Life of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Diane

Reynolds, 2016-01-01 Few twentieth century theologians have had a bigger impact on theology than Dietrich Bonhoeffer a man who lived his faith and died at the hands of the Nazis For Bonhoeffer the theological was the personal life and faith were deeply intertwined and to this day the world is inspired by that witness Yet the true story of the women in this remarkable man s life has until now been obscured by a conventional narrative that has distorted their role Using primary sources written by the women in his life and even including the first ever photo of alleged first fianc e Elisabeth Zinn this book sees these women fully for the first time A highly readable but scholarly work of narrative nonfiction The Doubled Life of Dietrich Bonhoeffer places Bonhoeffer s theology of love and sexuality within the context of his struggles with women friendship and the evils of Nazi Germany Reckoning with Restorative Justice Leanne Trapedo Sims, 2023-09-18 In Reckoning with

Restorative Justice Leanne Trapedo Sims explores the experiences of women who are incarcerated at the Women s Community Correctional Center the only women s prison in the state of Hawai i Adopting a decolonial and pro abolitionist lens she focuses particularly on women s participation in the Kailua Prison Writing Project and its accompanying Prison Monologues program Trapedo Sims argues that while the writing project served as a vital resource for the inside women it also remained deeply embedded within carceral logics at the institutional state and federal levels She foregrounds different aspects of these programs such as the classroom spaces and the dynamics that emerged between performers and audiences in the Prison Monologues Blending ethnography literary studies psychological analysis and criminal justice critique Trapedo Sims centers the often overlooked stories of incarcerated Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander women in Hawai i in ways that resound with the broader American narrative the disproportionate incarceration of people of color in the prison industrial complex The Clairmont Family Letters, 1839 - 1889 Sharon Joffe, 2016-09-01 This book is the first of two volumes in an edited collection that brings together the unpublished letters of the extended Clairmont family for the first time The letters housed in the Carl H Pforzheimer Collection of Shelley and His Circle at the New York Public Library inform our understanding of the Shelley Godwin circle through the experiences and thoughts of their descendants The correspondence also enables us to see into the contemporary social history of nineteenth century families living in Europe and Australia dealing with subjects such as the conflicts in Europe woes in the European financial markets and the effects of Australian pioneer life on immigrants to that country The Clairmont Family Letters 1839 1889 improves upon scholarship made by other Shelley and Clairmont collections and is furnished with editorial notes and apparatus from Dr Sharon Joffe These volumes will be of significant interest to scholars in British Romanticism      Death of a Rebel Scott Donaldson,2012 This is a biography of Charles Andrews Fenton 1919 1961 a teacher scholar and writer who at the peak of his career took his own life      Life and letters George Eliot,1899
