Love and Politics Jeffery L. Nicholas, 2021-06-07 In Love and Politics Jeffery L. Nicholas argues that Eros is the final rejection of an alienated life in which humans are prevented from developing their human powers Eros in contrast is an overflowing of acting into new realities and new beauties a world in which human beings extend their powers and senses Nicholas uniquely interprets Alasdair MacIntyre's Revolutionary Aristotelianism as a response to alienation defined as the divorce of fact from value However this account cannot address alienation in the form of the oppression of women or people of color Importantly it fails to acknowledge the domination of nature that blackens the heart of alienated life Alienation must be seen as a separation of the human from nature Nicholas turns to Aristotle first to uncover the way his philosophy embodies a divorce of human from nature then to reconstruct the essential elements of Aristotle's metaphysics to defend a philosophical anthropology based on Eros Love and Politics Persistent Human Desires as a Foundation for Liberation presents a critical theory that synthesizes MacIntyre's Revolutionary Aristotelianism Frankfurt School Critical Theory and Social Reproduction Theory It will be of great interest to political theorists and philosophers

The Strand Magazine, 1892 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1978 Sudden Death in Opera Michael Trimble, Robert Ignatius Letellier, Dale Hesdorffer, 2021-09-28 An aspect of dying in opera rarely observed or commented on is Sudden Unexpected Death There are many deaths in this melodramatic genre most follow expected causes like murder suicide or old age This book explores those deaths which occur without obvious natural causes These are often central to the overall drama of the opera representing denouements forming the epiphany of the story and the apotheosis for the audience The book identifies 50 operas where such events occur exploring the role of the dramatis personae the circumstances of their dying and specific themes that emerge These include a preponderance of females especially in the 19th century who die mainly at the end of the operas often in the context of tragedy It charts the growing awareness in the medical sciences of the unconscious forces driving human behaviour including liminal mental states and trances which influenced these operas and continue to affect human behaviour to the present day In addition the changing philosophies that are intertwined with operatic narratives in particular stemming from Kant Hegel Schopenhauer and Nietzsche are important in the book's exegesis as is the special role of Wagner's compositions This leads to the exploration of recurrent concepts such as the Liebestod the ewig Weibliche and redemption itself Converse with One Earthly Jeannie Chen, Cheng Hsiu Chen, 2017-08-30 A book differs from a person in that one is dead and another alive The need to be consistent with oneself is one of the five merits discussed in chapter 7 A person needs to attempt on achieving consistency on all fronts but a book does not need to The inconsistency within this book demonstrates the consistency of authors to reveal all truth including our stages of spiritual growth An outline of this book is provided after the last chapter Textbooks in schools and colleges should have similar outlines appended to help the study The writing of outlines has not received enough attention in school that most students still write one paragraph before outlining Writing paragraphs sequentially should only occur when one does not have a clear sight of what to write and have only vague and general ideas Outlining should be done at least 95 percent of the time Jesus or Nietzsche Raymond Angelo Belliotti, 2013 This book reconstructs the cornerstones of Jesus's moral teachings about how to lead a good even exemplary human life It does so in a way that is compatible with the most prominent competing versions of the historical Jesus The work also contrast Jesus understanding of the best way to lead our lives with that of Friedrich Nietzsche Both Jesus and Nietzsche were self consciously moral revolutionaries Jesus refashioned the imperatives of Jewish law to conform to what he was firmly convinced was the divine will Nietzsche aspired to transvalue the dominant values of his time which themselves were influenced greatly by Christianity in service of what he took to be a higher vision The interplay of these radical versions of the good human life seasoned with critical commentary emerging from modern findings in the sciences and humanities opens possibilities and lines of inquiry that can inform our choices in answering that enduring paramount question How should we live our lives Services For Special Days Mary Lu Warstler, 2006 Looking for worship material specifically tailored for holidays and other special out of the ordinary occasions If so then you'll draw on this compendium of services for fresh ideas throughout the year Each of these 13 services actively involves the congregation through the singing of several hymns as well as scripture and dramatic readings that can be performed either with or without costumes Because these flexible services can be presented with as few or as many participants as desired they are ideal for both large and small congregations Many of these versatile pieces can even be used without a pastor so this is an excellent resource to have on hand for pastoral vacations or other occasions when the laity is in charge of worship Best of all this collection couldn't be more convenient to use every service comes with brief instructions and a sample form for your worship bulletin Services are included for New Year's Day Valentine's Day Ash Wednesday Lent Palm Passion Sunday Maundy Thursday Good Friday Easter Pentecost Sunday Trinity Sunday Reformation Sunday All Saints Day Thanksgiving Christmas Eve Mary Lu Warstler is a pastor's wife who became a United Methodist pastor herself serving congregations in Akron and Bucyrus Ohio A graduate of the University of Akron and the Methodist Theological School in Ohio her sermons have appeared in Pulpit Digest and Clergy Journal Warstler's CSS publications include Angels We Have
