Love Sex And Power Women In Southeast Asia:

Love, Sex and Power Susan Blackburn, 2001 This book presents new trends in writing about women in Southeast Asia applying concepts of power in unusual areas What really are the impediments to women sharing power How do Vietnamese ideals of romantic love that effectively subordinate women to men Frank interviews explode the myth that marital rape does not happen in Indonesia There are historical and contemporary examples of the liberating influence of new work for women and the story of how the Indonesian state spread the message of family planning And delving into the discipline of cross cultural women s studies itself is a considered perspective on power relations between the Western scholar and the Asian women she is studying

Islam, Women's Sexuality and Patriarchy in Indonesia Irma Riyani, 2020-11-26 This book explores the intimate marital relationships of Indonesian Muslim married women As well as describing and analysing their sexual relationships the book also investigates how Islam influences discourses of sexuality in Indonesia and in particular how Islamic teachings affect Muslim married women s perceptions and behaviour in their sexual relationships with their husbands Based on extensive original research the book reveals that Muslim women perceive marriage as a social cultural and religious obligation that they need to fulfil that they realise that finding an ideal marriage partner is complicated with some having the opportunity for a long courtship and others barely knowing their partner prior to marriage and that there is a strong tendency with some exceptions for women to consider a sexual relationship in marriage as their duty and their husband s right Religious and cultural discourses justify and support this view and consider refusal a sin dosa or taboo pamali Both discourses emphasise obedience towards husbands in marriage

Gender, Violence and Power in Indonesia Katharine McGregor, Ana Dragojlovic, Hannah Loney, 2020-03-13 This book uses an interdisciplinary approach to chart how various forms of violence domestic military legal and political are not separate instances of violence but rather embedded in structural inequalities brought about by colonialism occupation and state violence The book explores both case studies of individuals and of groups to examine experiences of violence within the context of gender and structures of power in modern Indonesian history and Indonesia related diasporas It argues that gendered violence is particularly important to consider in this region because of its complex history of armed conflict and authoritarian rule the diversity of people that have been affected by violence as well as the complexity of the religious and cultural communities involved The book focuses in particular on textual narratives of violence visualisations of violence commemorations of violence and the politics of care

Sex and Sexualities in Contemporary Indonesia Linda Rae Bennett, Sharyn Graham Davies, 2014-12-05 Winner of the 2015 Ruth Benedict Prize for Outstanding Edited Volume Sex sexuality and sexual relationships are hotly debated in Indonesia triggering complex and often passionate responses This innovative volume explores these issues in a variety of ways It highlights historical and newer forms of sexual diversity as well as the social responses they provoke It critiques differing representations of sexuality pointing to the multiplicity of discourses within which sexuality and the sexual are understood in modern day Indonesia Placing sexuality centre stage and locating it within the specific historical context of the Reformasi era this landmark volume explores understandings and practices across a wide variety of sites focusing in on a diverse group of Indonesian actors and the contested meanings that sexuality carries Beginning with a substantive introduction and concluding with a scholarly reflection on key issues the volume is framed around the four themes of sexual politics health diversity and representations It seeks both to present new empirical findings as well as to add to existing theoretical analysis This work fills an important gap in our understanding of the evolution and contemporary dynamics of Indonesian sexualities It will be of interest to scholars and academics from disciplines including gender and sexuality studies global health sexual and reproductive health anthropology sociology and Asian studies

Routledge Handbook of Sexuality Studies in East Asia Mark McLelland, Vera Mackie, 2014-09-15 This collection brings together cutting edge work by established and emerging scholars focusing on key societies in the East Asian region China Taiwan Hong Kong Japan North and South Korea Mongolia and Vietnam This scope enables the collection to reflect on the nature of the transformations in constructions of sexuality in highly developed developing and emerging societies and economies Both Japan and China have established traditions of sexuality studies reflecting longstanding indigenous understandings of sex as well as more recent developments which interface with Euro American medical and psychological understandings Authors reflect upon the complex colonial and economic interactions and cultural flows which have affected the East Asian region over the last two centuries They trace local flows of ideas instead of defaulting to Euro American paradigms for sexuality studies Through looking at regional and global exchanges of ideas about sexuality this volume adds considerably to our understanding of the East Asian region and contributes to wider discussions of social transformation modernisation and globalisation It will be essential reading in undergraduate and graduate programs in sexuality studies gender studies women's studies and masculinity studies as well as in anthropology sociology history cultural studies area studies and health sciences

Sexual Violence and the Law in Japan Catherine Burns, 2013-04-15 This book provides a detailed examination of judicial decision making in Japanese cases involving sexual violence It describes the culture of eroticised violence in Japan which sees the feminine body as culpable and the legal system which encourages homogeneity and conformity in decision making and shows how the legal constraints confronting women claiming sexual assaults are enormous It includes analysis of specific case studies and a discussion of recent moves to address the problem

Attention Antony Ward, 2004-11 What is attention and what is the best way to understand it Taking its cue from this key question this book presents a detailed overview of cognitive neuropsychological and connectionist methodologies in attention research

Eastwards / Westwards Clara Sarmiento, 2009-03-26 Eastwards Westwards Which Direction for Gender Studies in the XXIst Century is a collection of essays which focus on themes and methods that characterize the current research on gender in Asian countries in general under a comparative approach that tries to cut across the boundaries of time and space In this collection ideas derived from Gender Studies as they are practised all over the world have been subjected to scrutiny for their utility in helping to describe and understand regional phenomena But the concepts of local and global with their discursive productions have not functioned here as a binary opposition localism and globalism are mutually constitutive and the authors have interrogated those spaces of interaction between the self and the other bearing in mind their own embeddedness in social and cultural structures and their own historical memory Eastwards Westwards Which Direction for Gender Studies in the XXIst Century provides a critical transnational perspective on some of the complex effects of the dynamics of cultural globalization by exploring the relation between gender and education politics economics anthropology linguistics historiography sociology literature and popular culture as agents of the re invention of old and new male and female identities their conversion into concepts and their circulation through time and space

A Literary Mirror I . Nyoman Darma Putra, 2011-01-01 A Literary mirror is the first English language work to comprehensively analyse Indonesian language literature from Bali from a literary and cultural viewpoint It covers the period from 1920 to 2000 This is an extremely rich field for research into the ways Balinese view their culture and how they respond to external cultural forces This work complements the large number of existing studies of Bali and its history anthropology traditional literature and the performing arts A Literary Mirror is an invaluable resource for those researching twentieth century Balinese authors who wrote in Indonesian Until now such writers have received very little attention in the existing literature An appendix gives short biographical details of many significant writers and lists their work

Linking Destinies Peter Boomgaard, Dick Kooiman, Henk Schulte Nordholt, 2008-01-01 Trade flows cities and kinship relations can all be seen as elements of complex networks In this collection of essays all of which deal with Asia we argue that there are good reasons to envisage them as various dimensions of the same networks Nevertheless it is fairly rare to find trade cities and kinship relations as intimately linked as we have portrayed them in this volume because they are usually classified within different sub disciplines of history whose practitioners are all too often not inclined to talk to people outside their own field The Australian born historian Heather Sutherland who recently retired from the VU university in Amsterdam is an exception in this respect because most of her work gravitates towards an approach which aims to integrate this trinity of topics This collection of essays written by a number of her students and close colleagues has taken its cue from her approach It is not the case that all the contributions deal with all three topics but they as a collective demonstrate how flows of trade cities both as urban centres and nodes in wider networks and kinship relations hang together and how the study of one topic opens new vistas on the other two revealing causal links that otherwise would have remained hidden Thus the essays in this collective volume support the idea that trade towns and kin although often dealt with quite separately can be viewed as various aspects of the same networks connecting people places and commodities

A Life of Worry Allen L Tran, 2023-08-29 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Who what and how we fear reflects who we are In less than half a century people in Vietnam have gone from fearing bombing raids political persecution and starvation to worrying about decisions over the best career path or cell phone plan This shift in the landscape of people s anxieties is the result of economic policies that made Vietnam the second fastest growing economy in the world and a triumph of late capitalist development Yet as much as people marvel at the speed of progress all this change can be difficult to handle A Life of Worry unpacks an ethnographic puzzle What accounts for the simultaneous rise of economic prosperity and anxiety among Ho Chi Minh City s middle class The social context of anxiety in Vietnam is layered within the development of advanced capitalism the history of the medical and psychological sciences and new ways of drawing the line between self and society At a time when people around the world are turning to the pharmaceutical and wellness industries to soothe their troubled minds it is worth considering the social and political dynamics that make the promises of these industries so appealing

Culture and Customs of Thailand Arne

Kislenko,2004-05-30 Thailand is rapidly industrializing dramatically improving the living standards of its people and gradually developing a more democratic society Despite such profound changes traditional Thai culture has not only survived but has also in many respects prospered Although famous for its food and despite its increasing popularity as a tourist destination Thailand remains relatively unknown to most Westerners Culture and Customs of Thailand presents the traditional culture and customs against the backdrop of modern times Thailand has always been an important Southeast Asian country With a long reigning monarchy it is the only country in the region that has never been colonized by a Western power or suffered bloody revolutions and wars It was the first Asian country to establish diplomatic relations with the United States and has remained a constant ally Thailand has emerged as a considerable economic force as the world s largest rice and rubber producer and remains a regional political power Against this historical framework Kislenko deftly introduces the traditional and modern strands of the dominant Buddhist faith and other religions such as animism Coverage includes literature the arts architecture including the Thai Wat food and dress gender and marriage festivals and fun and social customs Kislenko also balances the portrait with discussions of threats from globalization AIDS and sex tourism the drug trade and corruption in business and government Evocative photos a country map a timeline and a chronology complete the coverage This reference is the best source for students and general readers to gain substantial sweeping insight into the Thais and their land of smiles

Adolescents in Contemporary Indonesia Lyn Parker,Pam Nilan,2013-07-18

The youth demographic is a large and growing cohort in Indonesia and adolescents embody the currents of social change Throughout the twentieth century they were significant agents of social protest leading to social and political transformation This book looks at the importance of adolescents in contemporary Indonesia and how they are spearheading not just globalisation and a growing consumer youth culture but also the Islamisation movement The book explores both the inner worlds and social selves of Indonesian adolescents It presents an in depth knowledge of Indonesian society and culture in various parts of

Indonesia and discusses national patterns and trends Grounded in two field sites the book enables an analysis of young people's local ethnic and religious identities and their commitment to the Indonesian nation state It goes on to look at the physical age bracket of youth the definitions used by the Indonesian state and other agencies and the perceptions of youth themselves about adolescence and adulthood Providing a comprehensive study of young people in contemporary Indonesia the book addresses gender relations the importance of education for youth and youth engagement with popular culture and the moral issue concerning the sexual propriety of young people It is a useful contribution for students and academics of Asian Studies Sociology and Cultural Studies

Linguistics, Literature and Culture Shakila Abdul Manan, Hajar Abdul Rahim, 2012-12-05 This book documents the changing realities in the fields of linguistics literature and culture in Asia resulting from globalization modernisation and rapid technological development It consists of sixteen essays by academics and researchers around the world reflecting on the interface between the global and the local and its impact on the local and regional languages literatures and cultures of Asia This scenario which exemplifies language contact in action is captured by the book mainly to demonstrate that linguistic negotiations appropriations and indeed changes are not one way As such their implications on language use language choice language policy and planning literacy and pedagogy identity subjectivity and culture need to be closely examined The uniqueness of this book lies in its attempt to showcase original research in a variety of multicultural settings Its multi and cross disciplinary approach will appeal to a wide spectrum of readers from diverse backgrounds This book will serve as a useful reference that is both scholarly and informative for researchers as well as academics in the fields of linguistics literature and culture

Democratising Indonesia Mikaela Nyman, 2006 The fall of Suharto has drawn much media and academic attention but the focus has been on the elite perspective the role of the regime and military and little has been published on civil society Gender issues are also often by passed Indonesia is at a crossroads and the greater involvement of civil society is being seriously considered for the first time by government representatives and demanded by civil society actors political think tanks and social commentators This study which covers the lead up to and ousting of Suharto up until the 2004 democratic elections analyses the role of civil society in Indonesia's transition towards democracy by applying social movement theory and the framework of political opportunities It shows the importance of social movements as civil society's primary catalysts for change and the need for a strong civil society to take over where the social movements left off in order to consolidate attitudinal changes in the political economic and social spheres The actions and limitations of various parts of the Indonesian pro democracy movement are discussed providing case studies of three groups of actors the student movement the women's movement and the labour movement focusing on times when they have joined forces to form social movements The shortcomings and successes of the pro democracy movement are discussed as are the prospects for civil society in the future

Paths Not Taken Michael D. Barr, Carl A. Trocki, 2008 This title will remind older Singaporeans of ages from their past while providing a younger generation with a novel perspective of their country's past struggles It reveals a complex situation which gives weight to the middle years of the 20th century as a period that offered real alternatives

Women Shaping Islam Pieterella van Doorn-Harder,2010-10-01 In the United States precious little is known about the active role Muslim women have played for nearly a century in the religious culture of Indonesia the largest majority Muslim country in the world While much of the Muslim world excludes women from the domain of religious authority the country's two leading Muslim organizations Muhammadiyah and Nahdlatul Ulama NU have created enormous networks led by women who interpret sacred texts and exercise powerful religious influence In Women Shaping Islam Pieterella van Doorn Harder explores the work of these contemporary women leaders examining their attitudes toward the rise of radical Islamists the actions of the authoritarian Soeharto regime women's education and employment birth control and family planning and sexual morality Ultimately van Doorn Harder reveals the many ways in which Muslim women leaders understand and utilize Islam as a significant force for societal change one that ultimately improves the economic social and psychological condition of women in Indonesian society
