Birth Marks Jim Daniels, 2013-08-19 In Birth Marks Jim Daniels examines how our origins mark us forever From Detroit to Pittsburgh he explores the lives of ordinary people in a world which often seems tilted against them His tough unflinching poems recount family myths urban decay his own lies and the struggle for survival in a post industrial world as the economy crumbles around us

Play Among Books Miro Roman, Alice_ch3n81, 2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science

The Motor Car and Popular Culture in the Twentieth Century David Thoms, Len Holden, 2016-12-05 This is a multidisciplinary analysis of the relationship between the motor car and popular culture in the 20th century which brings together original essays by academics in the UK North America and Australia The contributors write from a wide range of disciplinary perspectives including semiotics social history literary and film criticism and musicology Three main themes are addressed the car as a cultural image its impact on leisure and entertainment and the cultural significance of the processes of manufacturing and selling cars

I'm No Longer Troubled by the Extravagance Rick Bursky, 2015-09-21 I'm No Longer Troubled by the Extravagance is a collection of poems that assign new meanings to the people and things of the past The book moves in three sections through a fantastic landscape that maps human fragility The poems in the first section speak to matters of the heart intimacy and loss punctuated by lovers who leave The second section is comprised of prose poems chronicling misadventures and conspiracies Russian spies on Wilshire Boulevard artichokes that mate for life and secret photographs of God Finally the third section pans out from individual experience hosting the collective in fable like reflections Together the poems in Extravagance mark with fragile acceptance the surreal extravagance of being alive The Relentless One day we ll know how long the dead have to be dead before they feel hunger One day it ll be summer forever In the meantime the weather looking for its cue keeps an eye on me and I keep whatever money s in my pocket crumpled in a ball A relentless responsibility dogs me and the funny thing is these are the lyrics to a happy song Go ahead tap your foot snap your fingers We re roasting a pig in the yard Rick Bursky is the author of Death Obscura Sarabande Books 2010 and The Soup of Something Missing Bear Star Press 2004 winner of the Dorothy Brunsman Poetry Prize He lives in Los Angeles where he works in advertising and teaches poetry in the UCLA Extension Writer s Program

The Black Maria Aracelis Girmay, 2016-04-18 Taking its name from the moon s dark plains misidentified as seas by early astronomers The Black Maria investigates African diasporic histories the consequences of racism within American culture and the question of human identity Central to this project is a desire to recognize the lives of Eritrean refugees who have been made invisible by years of immigration crisis refugee status exile and resulting statelessness The recipient of a 2015 Whiting Award for Poetry Girmay s newest collection elegizes and celebrates life while wrestling with the humanistic notion of seeing beyond seeing violence seeing grace and seeing each other better to the sea great storage house history on which we rode we touched the brief pulse of your fluttering pages spelled with salt life your rage your indifference your gentleness washing our feet all of you going on whether or not we live to you we bring our carnations yellow pink how they float like bright sentences atop your memory s dark hair Aracelis Girmay is the author of two poetry collections Teeth and Kingdom Animalia which won the Isabella Gardner Award and was a finalist for the NBCC Award The recipient of a 2015 Whiting Award she has received grants and fellowships from the Jerome Cave Canem and Watson foundations as well as Civitella Ranieri and the NEA She currently teaches at Hampshire College s School for Interdisciplinary Arts and in Drew University s low residency MFA program Originally from Santa Ana California she splits her time between New York and Amherst Massachusetts

Sasha Sings the Laundry on the Line Sean Thomas Dougherty,2010-09-21 These soul infused deftly crafted stanzas pulse with the rhythms of a poet who lives his life out loud Sean Thomas Dougherty has always shunned convention in favor of his fresher landscapes and this book will be the one that stamps his defiant signature on the canon Patricia Smith Sasha Sings the Laundry on the Line is a powerful grief driven deeply felt collection that finds the beautiful and the true the little epiphanies that give our lives meaning no matter how ephemeral they might be The author of ten previous poetry collections Sean Thomas Dougherty teaches poetry at Case Western University and lives in Erie Pennsylvania and Cleveland Ohio

The Orchard Brigit Pegeen Kelly,2013-12-20 Richly allusive the poems in Brigit Pegeen Kelly s The Orchard evoke elements of myth in distinctive aural and rhythmic patterns Her poetic strength lies in her ability to cast poems as modern myths and allegories Propelled by patterned repetitions and lush cadences the poems move the reader through a landscape where waking and dream consciousness fuse Brigit Pegeen Kelly teaches creative writing at the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign Her poetry collections are Song BOA Editions the 1994 Lamont Poetry Selection of The Academy of American Poets and a finalist for the 1995 Los Angeles Times Book Award and To the Place of Trumpets selected by James Merrill for the 1987 Yale Series of Younger Poets Prize

Whereso Karen Volkman,2016-05-16 Known for the transcendent abstractionist poems of Nomina Volkman s newest collection returns to tangible experiences of the body its range of expressivity and physical movement in space Where is the body in travel What space does it occupy in dreams and memory With rich perplexity Whereso responds to dance performance and position in time translating flight of the body into language and line Karen Volkman is the author of Crash s Law winner of the National Poetry Series Spar winner of the Iowa Poetry Prize and the James Laughlin Award and Nomina She teaches at the University of Montana in Missoula Montana

Primitive Janice N. Harrington,2016-10-17 A biographical reflection on the art and life of Horace H Pippin the best known African American artist of his time Primitive is a critique on current perceptions surrounding African American folk art as well as the absence of key African American history in present day curricula Award winning poet Janice Harrington connects readers with a fascinating odds defying artist all while underscoring the human need for artistic expression      You and Yours Naomi Shihab Nye,2005 In You and Yours Naomi Shihab Nye continues her conversation with ordinary people whose lives become through her empathetic use of poetic language extraordinary Nye writes of local life in her inner city Texas neighborhood about rural schools and urban communities she s visited in this country as well as the daily rituals of Jews and Palestinians who live in the war torn Middle East The Day I missed the day on which it was said others should not have certain weapons but we could Not only could but should and do I missed that day Was I sleeping I might have been digging in the yard doing something small and slow as usual Or maybe I wasn t born yet What about all the other people who aren t born Who will tell them Balancing direct language with a suggestive aslantness Nye probes the fragile connection between language and meaning She never shies from the challenge of trying to name the mysterious logic of childhood or speak truth to power in the face of the horrors of war She understands our lives are marked by tragedy inequity and misunderstanding and that our best chance of surviving our losses and shortcomings is to maintain a heightened awareness of the sacred in all things Naomi Shihab Nye poet editor anthologist is a recipient of writing fellowships from the Lannan and Guggenheim foundations Nye s work has been featured on PBS poetry specials including NOW with Bill Moyers The Language of Life with Bill Moyers and The United States of Poetry She has traveled abroad as a visiting writer on three Arts America tours sponsored by the United States Information Agency In 2001 she received a presidential appointment to the National Council of the National Endowment for the Humanities She lives in San Antonio Texas      The Keys to the Jail Keetje Kuipers,2014-03-10 The Keys to the Jail asks the question of who is to blame for all we ve lost calling us to reexamine the harsh words of failed love the aging of a once beautiful body even our own voracious desires Keetje Kuipers is a poet of daring leaps and unflinching observations whose richly textured lyrics travel from Montana s great wildernesses to the ocean fogged streets of San Francisco as they search out the heart that s lost its way Dolores Park In the flattening California dusk women gather under palms with their bags of bottles and cans The grass is feathered with the trash of the day paper napkins blowing across the legs of those who still drown on a patchwork of blankets Shirtless in the phosphorescent gloom of streetlamps they lie suspended This is my one good life watching the exchange of embraces counting the faces assembled outside the ice cream shop sweet tinge of urine by the bridge above the tracks broken bike lock of the gay couple s hands desperate clapping of dark pigeons who will take it from me A former Wallace Stegner Fellow in Poetry Keetje Kuipers s debut collection Beautiful in the Mouth won the A Poulin Jr Poetry Prize She has been the Margery Davis Boyden Wilderness Writing Resident and is currently an assistant professor at Auburn University      Asphalt Nation Jane Holtz Kay,2012-06-20 Asphalt Nation is a major work of urban studies that examines how the automobile has ravaged America s cities and landscape and how we can fight back The automobile was once seen as a boon to American life eradicating the pollution caused by horses and granting citizens new levels of personal freedom and mobility But it was not long before the servant became the master public spaces were designed to accommodate the automobile at the expense of the pedestrian mass transportation was neglected and the poor unable to afford cars saw their access to jobs and amenities worsen Now even drivers themselves suffer as cars choke the highways and pollution and congestion have replaced the fresh air of the open road Today our world revolves around the car as a nation we spend eight billion hours a year stuck in traffic In Asphalt Nation Jane Holtz Kay effectively calls for a revolution to reverse our automobile dependency Citing successful efforts in places from Portland Maine to Portland Oregon Kay shows us that radical change is not impossible by any means She demonstrates that there are economic political architectural and personal solutions that can steer us out of the mess Asphalt Nation is essential reading for everyone interested in the history of our relationship with the car and in the prospect of returning to a world of human mobility No Remedy for Love Liona Boyd, 2017-08-19 A fascinating personal story of the adventures romance and recovery of renowned classical guitarist Liona Boyd After her divorce and departure from Beverly Hills Boyd reinvented her career became a singer songwriter and the pen pal of Prince Philip and turned a devastating diagnosis into a new chapter in her life and career librarians sound recording archivists sociologists social critics and journalists can all learn something as the book shows them the cross pollination of music and social life in the United States Text Types and the History of English Manfred Görlach, 2008-08-22 The history of modern European languages has been largely determined by the range of functions they have acquired particularly after 1500 This development necessitated a notable expansion of their syntax and lexis but is most characteristically reflected in the conventionalization of text types Starting from the German concept of Textsorte as developed from the 1960s onwards the present account is a first comprehensive attempt at charting the field for the history and present day situation of the English language In text types a designation is linked with a more or less stable form which guides the writer's production as well as the reader's expectation permitting one to recognize straightforward uses as well as deliberate misuses Some two thousand of such designations are here listed with minimal definitions and dates for first occurrences The discussion then concentrates on selected types which are seen as especially illustrative for English book dedications cooking recipes advertisements church hymns lexical entries and jokes Their functions and development over time are treated in correlation with their specific linguistic characteristics and adaptations to different period styles and social changes in the readership The functional range of text types in traditions outside England and the consequences of the export of English categories are exemplified by the history of Scots Scottish English and of English in India The arguments are accompanied by a lavish supply of textual excerpts and more than fifty pages of facsimiles which are especially relevant for insights derived from typographical features A full bibliography and indices are provided at the end The book will prove useful for decisions on the constitution of representative text corpora and stimulate research into a greater number of individual text types as well as contrastive analyses at least among European languages Under the Rock Umbrella

William J. Walsh, 2006 American poet born between 1951 and 1977 who was not influenced by popular music and the paradigm shift that occurred in the country Under the Rock Umbrella brings together the best poets influenced by this powerful era in music to allow us to examine the music of each poet's own verse Mercer University Press A Lovesong for India Ruth Praver Jhabvala, 2013-02-12 From the Booker Prize winning novelist and screenwriter of Howard's End Cinematic and exquisite stories of longing loss and redemption Publishers Weekly In this expansive story collection Ruth Praver Jhabvala author of Heat and Dust and the screenplays for The Remains of the Day and A Room with a View continues her lifelong meditation on East and West Set in India England and New York City A Lovesong for India reveals what unites us across oceans cultures and lifetimes In Innocence an older couple whose social standing is marred by a decades old scandal rent out rooms in their Delhi home for both companionship and income The couple becomes deeply invested in the lives of their two tenants but with the addition of a third renter a beautiful and provocative woman from India tensions in the household push the story to its feverish conclusion Talent finds Jhabvala in New York City reflecting on the friction between family and societal expectations Magda is a talent scout whose work is her entire life until she meets Ellie a singer whose immense ability and unguarded personality captivate Magda Soon Ellie is integrated into Magda s extended family for better or worse This remarkable collection is the hallmark of Jhabvala s celebrated career and a testament to her balance subtlety wry humor and beauty The New York Times      Mid-American Review ,2003      The Hoopoe's Crown Jacqueline Osherow,2005 Poems dealing with the land of Israel and inconsistencies and mysteries in Biblical texts      Life ,1902
