was written as Koka And as the samename crept into all the translations into other languages in India the book became generally known and the subject was popularly called Koka Shastra or doctrines of Koka which is identical with the Kama Shastra or doctrines of love and the words Koka Shastra and Kama Shastra are used indiscriminately The work contains nearly eight hundred verses and is divided into ten chapters which are called Pachivedas Some of the things treated of in this work are not to be found in the Vatsyayana such as the four classes of women the Padmini Chitrini Shankini and Hastini as also the enumeration of the days and hours on which the women of the different classes become subject to love The author adds that he wrote these things from the opinions of Gonikaputra and Nandikeshwara both of whom are mentioned by Vatsyayana but their works are not now extant It is difficult to give any approximate idea as to the year in which the work was composed It is only to be presumed that it was written after that of Vatsyayana and previous to the other works on this subject that are still extant Vatsyayana gives the names of ten authors on the subject all of whose works he had consulted but none of which are extant and does not mention this one This would tend to show that Kukkoka wrote after Vatsya otherwise Vatsya would assuredly have mentioned him as an author in this branch of literature along with the others

The Kama Sutra Vatsyayana, 2014-03-18 The world's most influential and enduring text on human sexuality Long before The Joy of Sex Masters and Johnson or Dr Ruth there was Vatsyayana's Kama Sutra or Aphorisms on Love This ancient text translated from Sanskrit into English in the nineteenth century by Sir Richard Burton along with Bhagavanlal Indragit and Shivaram Parashuram Bhide has stood the test of time as a thoughtful treatise on the art of lovemaking An insightful consideration of the connections between sensual pleasure and spiritual enlightenment this classic work presents a sincere and civilized approach to sexuality that modern readers will find refreshing and inspirational This ebook has been professionally proofread to ensure accuracy and readability on all devices

The Kama Sutra of Vatsyayana Vatsyayana Vatsyayana, Richard Burton, 2014-08-05 The author of the Secrets of Love No was a poet named Kukkoka He composed his work to please one Venudutta who was perhaps a king When writing his own name at the end of each chapter he calls himself Siddha patiya pandita i e an ingenious man among learned men The work was translated into Hindi years ago and in this the author's name was written as Koka And as the same name crept into all the translations into other languages in India the book became generally known and the subject was popularly called Koka Shastra or doctrines of Koka which is identical with the Kama Shastra or doctrines of love and the words Koka Shastra and Kama Shastra are used indiscriminately The work contains nearly eight hundred verses and is divided into ten chapters which are called called Pachivedas Some of the things treated of in this work are not to be found in the Vatsyayana such as the four classes of women viz the Padmini Chitrini Shankini and Hastini as also the enumeration of the days and hours on which the women of the different classes become subject to love The author of the Five Arrows No in the list was one Jyotirisha He is called the chief ornament of poets the treasure of the sixty four arts and the best teacher of the rules of music This work contains nearly six hundred verses and is divided into five chapters called Sayakas or Arrows The author of the Light of Love No was the poet Gunakara the son of Vechapati The work contains four hundred verses and gives only a short account of the doctrines of love dealing more with other matters The Garland of Love No is the work of the famous poet Jayadeva who said about himself that he is a writer on all subjects This treatise is however very short containing only one hundred and twenty five verses The author of the Sprout of Love No was a poet called Bhanudatta The work written in Sanscrit gives the descriptions of different classes of men and women their classes being made out from their age description conduct etc It contains three chapters and its date is not known and cannot be ascertained The Stage of Love No was composed by the poet Kullianmull for the amusement of Ladkhan the son of Ahmed Lodi The work would therefore have been written in the fifteenth or sixteenth century It contains ten chapters and has been translated into English but only six copies were printed for private circulation This is supposed to be the latest of the Sanscrit works on the subject and the ideas in it were evidently taken from previous writings of the same nature The contents of these works are in themselves a literary curiosity There are to be found both in y Men and women are divided into classes and divisions As Venus was represented by the Greeks to stand forth as the type of the beauty of woman so the Hindoos describe the Padmini or Lotus woman as the type of most perfect feminine excellence as follows She in whom the following signs and symptoms appear is called a Padmini Her face is pleasing as the full moon her body well clothed with flesh is soft as the Shiras or mustard flower her skin is fine tender and fair as the yellow lotus never dark coloured Her eyes are bright and beautiful as the orbs of the fawn well cut and with reddish corners Her bosom is hard full and high she has a good neck her nose is straight and lovely and three folds or wrinkles cross her middle about the umbilical region Her yoni resembles the opening lotus bud and her love seed Kama salila is perfumed like the lily that has newly burst She walks with swan like gait and her voice is low and musical as the note of the Kokila bird she delights in white raiments in fine jewels and in rich dresses She eats little sleeps lightly and being as respectful and religious as she is clever and courteous she is ever anxious to worship the gods and to enjoy the conversation of Brahmans
