human persons It does so by turning to the sixteenth century writings of John of the Cross on mystical union with God and the metaphor of sexual relationship that he uses to describe this union Juan s mystical theology which highlights the notion of God as lover and God s erotic like relationship with human persons provides a fitting source for rethinking the Christian doctrine of God in John s own words as un no s qu an I know not what In critical conversations with contemporary queer theologies it retrieves from John a preferential option for human sexuality as an experience in daily life that is rich with possibilities for re sourcing and imagining the Christian doctrine of God Consistent with other liberating perspectives it outs God from heteronormative closets and restores human sexuality as a resource for theology This outing of divine queerness that is the ineffability of divine life helps to align reflections on the mystery of God with the faith experiences of queer Catholics By engaging Juan de la Cruz through queer Latinx eyes Miguel D az continues the objective of this series to disrupt the cartography of theology latinamente
