 the three empires fighting on the Eastern Front were reaching their breaking points but none was closer than Russia After the February Revolution Russia's ability to wage war faltered and her last desperate gamble the Kerensky Offensive saw the final collapse of her army This helped trigger the Bolshevik Revolution and a crippling peace but the Central Powers had no opportunity to exploit their gains and a year later both the German and Austro Hungarian empires surrendered and disintegrated Concluding his acclaimed series on the Eastern Front in World War I Prit Buttar comprehensively details not only these climactic events but also the successor wars that raged long after the armistice of 1918 New states rose from the ashes of empire and war raged as German forces sought to keep them under the aegis of the Fatherland These unresolved tensions between the former Great Powers and the new states would ultimately lead to the rise of Hitler and a new terrible

 Ann Holly,1984 No one has been more influential in the contemporary practice of art history than Erwin Panofsky yet many of his early seminal papers remain virtually unknown to art historians As a result Michael Ann Holly maintains art historians today do not have access to the full range of methodological considerations and possibilities that Panofsky's thought offers and they often remain unaware of the significant role art history played in the development of modern humanistic thought Placing Panofsky's theoretical work first in the context of the major historical paradigms generated by Hegel Burckhardt and

Dilthey shows how these paradigms themselves became the grounds for creative controversy among Panofsky's predecessors Riegl W Ifflin Warburg and Dvor k among others She also discusses how Panofsky's struggle with the terms and concepts of neo Kantianism produced in his work remarkable parallels with the philosophy of Ernst Cassirer Finally she evaluates Panofsky's better known and later iconological studies by reading them against the earlier essays and by comparing his earlier ideas with the vision that has inspired recent work in the philosophy of history semiotics and the philosophy of science
