of abolitionism conservative southerners demanded absolute political fealty to their peculiar institution from the city that had profited most from the cotton trade By 1861 reactionary circles in the South viewed New York s failure to extend such unalloyed validation as the betrayal of an erstwhile ally that in the words of one polemicist deemed Gotham worthy of being blotted from the list of cities Drawing on contemporary letters diaries fiction and travel writings Grand Emporium Mercantile Monster provides the first detailed study of the complicated relationship between the antebellum South and New York City in the decades leading up to the Civil War The Queen's Necklace, Or the Mysteries of the Court of Louis XVI Alexandre Dumas (pere),1853 Great Expectations Charles Dickens,1861
